Persons to whom these regulations apply

- 4.—(1) These regulations shall apply to any person who—
- (a) has ceased to be employed by an employing authority; and
 - (b) immediately before ceasing to be so employed—
 - (i) was subject to a superannuation scheme; and
 - (ii) had completed the minimum period of reckonable service and had satisfied any other requirements which would qualify a person for a pension under the Regulations either—
 - (A) immediately upon ceasing such employment; or
 - (B) subsequently upon reaching such age as is specified in the Regulations, and
 - (c) has received or has become entitled to receive payment of any retirement benefit under a superannuation scheme; and
 - (d) either—
 - (i) has attained the age of 60 years or the minimum age provided for by an order made under section 3(8) of the Act of 1971 and, in the case of a person to whom paragraph (1)(b)(ii)(B) applies, has attained the age referred to therein; or
 - (ii) has retired on account of physical or mental infirmity, or has satisfied the Department that he is disabled by physical or mental infirmity; or
 - (iii) is a woman who has at least one dependant.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (1)(a) and (b) in the case of a person to whom paragraph (1)(b)(ii)(B) applies and who, within 12 months of ceasing to be employed by an employing authority, enters into any of the employments mentioned in paragraph 2 of the schedule in respect of which the requirements of paragraph 3(a) of that schedule have been fulfilled, these regulations shall apply only in respect of any further termination of employment under an employing authority and not in respect of any previous termination.

(4) Where a person to whom these regulations apply leaves employment in circumstances in which, if the Regulations had applied, he would have been awarded a lump sum retiring allowance which he would not have become entitled to receive until he—

- (a) attained such age as is specified in the Regulations; or
- (b) became permanently incapacitated before attaining that age, there shall be ascribed to him a notional lump sum retiring allowance calculated on the following basis—

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These regulations provide for payments to certain persons who retire from employment in the Health Services having elected to secure their superannuation benefits through schemes which operate by way of insurance policies to produce lump sums or annuities, or both, upon retirement, and who would have been eligible for increases under the Pensions (Increase) Act (Northern Ireland) 1971 had they been pensionable under the Health Services superannuation scheme.

The relevant schemes are the Federated Superannuation Scheme for Nurses and Hospital Officers and any other scheme approved for this purpose by the Department of Finance.

The conditions of entitlement combine, with necessary modification, those for a health services pension and those for increases under the Pensions (Increase) Act (Northern Ireland) 1971. The principal conditions are that the person—

- (a) completed the necessary qualifying service in health services or local government employment or certain types of related employment or the civil service;
- (b) would have been entitled to receive payment of a pension had he been subject to the health services scheme up to the date of his retirement; and
- (c) has attained the age of 60 years, or any earlier age prescribed under section 3(8) of the Pensions (Increase) Act (Northern Ireland) 1971, or is incapacitated, or is a woman who has a dependant.

The payments are based on a notional pension and, where appropriate, a notional lump sum (defined in regulation 5) corresponding broadly to the pension and any deferred lump sum the person would have received if he had been in the health services scheme and entitled to reckon under that scheme certain service during which he was within the Federated Superannuation Scheme for Nurses and Hospital Officers or any other approved scheme.

In accordance with the power conferred by section 10(4) of the Pensions (Increase) Act (Northern Ireland) 1971, the Regulations provide for the payments to take effect from 1st September 1971.
