EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

Part II amends the Firemen's Pension Scheme Order (N.I.) 1973.

Article 3 relates to the commutation of a portion of a pension for a lump sum. Under the Scheme of 1973 a member of a brigade cannot commute an ordinary pension (save in specified circumstances) unless he has 30 years' pensionable service. Article 3 provides, with effect from 1st April 1975, that a member with less than this service may commute an ordinary pension subject, however, to a new restriction on the portion which may be commuted.

Articles 4 and 5 of the Order relate to the calculation of awards by reference to periods of pensionable service and other periods and related matters. Under the Scheme of 1973 only completed years, or in certain cases completed half-years, are taken into account; but the service of a member of a fire brigade of a rank not higher than that of station officer may be extended beyond the normal age for compulsory retirement to enable him to reckon an additional completed year, or half-year, of pensionable service. Article 4 provides that any fraction of a year shall be taken into account except that the existing position is preserved in the case of persons who ceased to be members of a fire brigade before 1st May 1975, from which date Article 4 has effect. Article 5 revokes the provision for the extension of service, mentioned above, with effect (subject to transitional provisions) from 7th September 1978.

Part III provides for increased awards.

Under the various Firemen's Pensions Schemes the amount of certain awards is determined by reference to specified flat rates which do not qualify for increases under the Pensions (Increase) Act (N.I.) 1971 [1971 c. 35 (N.I.)]. The Order increases these flat rates with effect from 1st December 1976, the date from which increases under the Pensions Increase (Annual Review) Order (N.I.) 1976 were authorised.

Retrospection is authorised by section 17(3B) of the Fire Services Act (N.I.) 1969.
