1. These rules amend Order 88 of the Rules of the Supreme Court (Northern Ireland) 1936 relating to proceedings under the Bankruptcy Acts (Northern Ireland) 1857 to 1977.

2. The sittings and applications in bankruptcy which must be held and heard in open court are specified and the jurisdiction of the Master (Bankruptcy) is re-defined, consequential upon the Judicature (Northern Ireland) Act 1978.

3. Provision is made for the procedure to be followed on a bankruptcy petition by the Incorporated Law Society of Northern Ireland against a solicitor under Article 41(2) of the Solicitors (Northern Ireland) Order 1976 and on a reference to the Bankruptcy Court by the Master (Enforcement of Judgments) under section 77K(1) of the Judgments (Enforcement) Act (Northern Ireland) 1969, following the revocation of an administration order under that Act.

4. Provision is made to permit the Official Assignee to pay solicitors' and accountants' costs and charges out of a bankrupt's estate without taxation or measurement by the Court, if they do not exceed £200, subject to the power of the Court to require taxation.

5. The Official Assignee's power of sale of the assets of a bankrupt is re-defined and made more flexible.

6. The use by creditors of unsworn proofs of debt is facilitated.

7. The Order also contains other minor amendments to Order 88.
