OVERTIME

Paragraph 6.

Overtime rates are payable as follows:—

A.—WORKERS EMPLOYED ON TIME WORK:

- | | |
|--|-----------------|
| (1) on any day other than Saturday, Sunday or a customary holiday—for the first four hours worked in excess of 8 hours | Time-and-a-half |

B.—WORKERS EMPLOYED ON PIECE WORK

Workers employed on piece work are entitled to receive, in respect of each hour of overtime worked, in addition to piece rates each of which would yield, in the circumstances of the case, to an ordinary worker at least the same amount of money as the appropriate piece work basis time rate applicable an amount equivalent to One-half or the Whole of the appropriate piece work basis time rate according as the overtime rate payable under the provisions of sub-paragraph A, if the worker has been employed on time work, would have been equivalent to time-and-a-half or double time, respectively.

Paragraph 7.

Overtime rates are payable in respect of all overtime worked on any day, notwithstanding that the total number of hours worked in the week does not exceed 40.

Paragraph 8.

The expression “customary holiday” means:—

- (a) Christmas Day, Boxing Day, the day following Boxing Day and New Year’s Day provided that—
- (i) where Christmas Day, Boxing Day or New Year’s Day falls on a Saturday and the worker does not normally work for the employer on a Saturday, the employer shall allow to the worker, instead of the customary holiday, a holiday in lieu on a day on which the worker normally works for the employer within the period of eight weeks immediately following the customary holiday;
 - (ii) where Christmas Day falls on a Sunday the customary holidays shall be Boxing Day and the next two following days;
 - (iii) where the day following Boxing Day or New Year’s Day falls on a Sunday that Sunday shall not be treated as one of the customary holidays and a customary holiday shall be allowed to the worker on the Monday next following;
- Easter Monday, Easter Tuesday and the Wednesday following the last-mentioned day, or
- (b) a day substituted by the employer for any one of the said days, being either a day recognised by local custom as a day of holiday in substitution for the said day or a day agreed between the employer and the worker or his representative.

For the purpose of paragraph 6 the expressions time-and-a-half and double time mean, respectively, one-and-a-half times, and twice the amount of the minimum rate otherwise applicable.

GENERAL

DEFINITIONS

Paragraph 10.

A MACHINE MINDER is a worker who is engaged in setting, adjusting and keeping running paper box machines, and in superintending the carrying through of all operations that can be performed in whole or in part by such machines.

Paragraph 11.

A HEAD STOCK KEEPER is a worker who is in full charge of unmanufactured stock, of the receipt and distribution of unmanufactured stock, and of the keeping of records, and who either himself orders or passes through to the proper authority requisitions for further stock.

Paragraph 12.

A TRAINEE is a worker who—

- (a) has not completed the appropriate period of employment set out in paragraph 3;
- (b) (i) is employed during the whole or a substantial part of his or her time in learning any branch or process of the trade by an employer who provides the trainee with reasonable facilities for such learning; and
- (ii) has received a certificate or has been registered in accordance with rules from time to time laid down by the Wages Council, or has made an application for such a certificate or registration which has been duly acknowledged and is still under consideration, provided that the certification or registration of a trainee will become invalid if at any time during learnership the provisions set out in this Schedule relating thereto are not complied with,

provided also that an employer may employ a trainee on his or her first employment without a certificate or registration for a probation period not exceeding eight weeks, but in the event of such trainee being continued thereafter in the employment, the probation period will be included in the period of learnership, and provided further that, notwithstanding compliance with these conditions, a person shall not be deemed to be a trainee if he or she works in a room used for dwelling purposes, and is not in the employment of his or her parent or guardian.

Paragraph 13.

An OUTWORKER is a worker who works in his or her home or in any other place not under the control or management of the employer.

PIECE WORK

Paragraph 14.

In determining whether any piece rate satisfies the foregoing condition regard shall be had only to the earnings of ordinary workers, that is, workers of ordinary skill and experience in the class of work in question and not to the earnings of workers of less than ordinary skill and experience, for example, juvenile and infirm workers.

EMPLOYMENT OF JUVENILE WORKERS ON PIECE WORK

Paragraph 15.

An employer will, in any case where a trainee or juvenile worker is employed on piece work during the first six months of his employment in the trade, be deemed to pay wages at less than the minimum rate unless he shows that such worker has received in respect of his employment on piece work in each week during that period, at least the same amount of money as such worker would have been entitled to receive if employed on time work. An employer will, in any case where any such worker is so employed at any time subsequent to the first six months of his employment in the trade, be deemed to pay wages at less than the minimum rate unless he shows that such worker has, in respect of his employment on piece work been paid at piece rates which would yield, in the circumstances of the case, to an ordinary worker (not being a juvenile worker) at least the same amount of money as the appropriate piece work basis time rate.

WAITING TIME

Paragraph 16.

- (1) A worker is entitled to payment of statutory minimum remuneration during all the time during which he is present on the premises of his employer unless he is so present either without his employer's consent, express or implied, or for some purpose unconnected with his work and other than that of waiting for work to be given to him to perform.
- (2) A piece worker is, during any time during which he is present as aforesaid and is not doing piece work, entitled to payment of the general minimum time rate applicable to the workers of the class to which he belongs.

Provisions (1) and (2) do not apply when—

- (a) a worker is present on his employer's premises by reason only of the fact that he is resident thereon, or
- (b) a worker is present on his employer's premises during normal meal times in a room or place in which no work is being done and is not waiting for work to be given to him to perform.
