Order to be inserted after Order 6 of the County Court Rules (Northern Ireland) 1981

ORDER 6A

Service out of Northern Ireland

Interpretation

1. In this Order the following words and expressions have the following meanings, unless a contrary intention appears:—

- “originating process” includes a third party notice but excludes a default or summary civil bill or an application for arbitration under Article 30 of the Order;
- “interlocutory process” means an order, notice or summons made, given or issued in proceedings already commenced in or remitted to a county court;
- “process” means an originating process or an interlocutory process;
- “country” means a foreign country, or any country mentioned in Rule 7(5);
- “country of service” means the country in which a process is to be served or is served pursuant to leave granted under this Order;
- “convention country” means a foreign country with which a convention has been made relating to civil procedure including the service of documents issued from Northern Ireland in the foreign country and includes a country which is a party to the Hague Convention;
- “Hague Convention” means the Convention on the Service Abroad of Judicial and Extra-Judicial Documents in Civil or Commercial matters signed at The Hague on 15th November 1965(a);
- “associated state” has the meaning given to it by the Interpretation Act 1978(b);
- “colony” has the meaning given to it by the Interpretation Act 1978;
- “applicant” means the party applying for or obtaining leave under this Order to serve a process out of Northern Ireland;
- “respondent” means the party on whom the applicant seeks or obtains leave to serve a process.

Conditions of allowing service of originating process

2. The court may allow an originating process to be served out of Northern Ireland where—
- (a) the whole subject-matter of the proceedings is land situate within the division (with or without rent or profits); or
 - (b) any act, deed, will, contract, obligation or liability affecting land situate within the division is sought to be construed, rectified, set aside or enforced in the proceedings; or
 - (c) any relief is sought against any person domiciled or ordinarily resident in Northern Ireland against whom an action may be commenced in the court by virtue of Order 1, Rule 1; or
 - (d) the claim is for the administration of the estate of any deceased person who had his last residence within the division, or for the execution (as to property situate within the division) of the trusts of any instrument of which the person to be served is a trustee, which ought to be executed according to the law of Northern Ireland; or
 - (e) the action begun by the originating process is brought against a defendant not domiciled or ordinarily resident in Scotland to enforce, rescind, dissolve, annul or otherwise affect a contract or to recover damages or obtain other relief in respect of the breach of a contract, being (in either case) a contract which—
 - (i) was made within the jurisdiction of the court, or
 - (ii) was made by or through an agent trading or residing within the jurisdiction of the court on behalf of a principal trading or residing out of that jurisdiction, or
 - (iii) is by its terms or by implication, governed by the law of Northern Ireland;

(a) Cmnd. 3986

(b) 1978 c. 30

- (f) the action begun by the originating process is brought against a defendant not domiciled or ordinarily resident in England and Wales or Scotland in respect of a breach committed within the jurisdiction of the court of a contract made within or out of that jurisdiction, and irrespective of the fact, if such be the case, that the breach was preceded or accompanied by a breach committed out of the jurisdiction of the court that rendered impossible the performance of so much of the contract as ought to have been performed within that jurisdiction; or
- (g) the claim is founded on a tort committed in Northern Ireland; or
- (h) any injunction is sought as to anything done, or to be done, in the division, or any nuisance in the division is sought to be prevented or removed; or
- (i) any person out of Northern Ireland is a necessary or proper party to any proceedings properly commenced in the court against some other person duly served in Northern Ireland; or
- (j) the claim is for a sum to which the Directive of the Council of the European Communities dated 15th March 1976 No. 76/308/EEC applies, and service is to be effected in a country which is a member state of the European Economic Community.

Conditions of allowing service of other process

3. The court may allow an interlocutory process to be served out of Northern Ireland on a person who is already a party to the proceedings and, in the case of a defendant, respondent or third party, has been served with the originating process.

England and Wales and Scotland

4.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2), where leave is asked from the court under Rule 2 to serve a process in England and Wales or in Scotland and it appears to the court that there may be a concurrent remedy in England and Wales or Scotland (as the case may be), the court shall have regard to the comparative cost and convenience of proceeding in the division, or in the place of residence of the respondent, and particularly to the powers and jurisdiction of the county courts in England and Wales and of the sheriff court in Scotland, respectively.

(2) Nothing in this Rule shall be construed as enabling leave to be given under paragraph (e) of Rule 2 where the respondent is domiciled or ordinarily resident in Scotland or under paragraph (f) of Rule 2 where the respondent is domiciled or ordinarily resident in England and Wales or Scotland.

Application to be supported by evidence

5.—(1) An application for leave to serve a process on a respondent out of Northern Ireland shall be ex parte to the judge (or in an action in which the amount claimed or the value of specific chattels claimed does not exceed £500, to the circuit registrar) and shall be supported by affidavit or other evidence—

- (a) stating that in the belief of the deponent the applicant has a good cause of action; and
- (b) showing—
 - (i) in what country and place the respondent is or may probably be found; and
 - (ii) whether the respondent is a United Kingdom national or not; and
 - (iii) the grounds on which the application is made.

(2) Leave shall not be granted unless it appears to the court that the case is a proper one for service out of Northern Ireland.

Date of hearing

6.—(1) When giving leave to serve a process out of Northern Ireland, the court shall fix a date on which the proceedings to which it relates will be heard.

(2) When exercising its powers under paragraph (1) of this Rule, the court shall have regard to the distance of the country of service.

Modes of service

7.—(1) Where leave has been given to serve a process out of Northern Ireland, service may, subject to the provisions of this Rule, be effected —

- (a) through the court; or
- (b) by the applicant or his agent.

(2) Where the country of service is a convention country, service may be effected through the court or, if service by the applicant or his agent is permitted by the convention, by the applicant or his agent.

(3) Where the country of service is neither a convention country nor a country mentioned in paragraph (5), service may be effected through the court.

(4) Where the country of service is not a convention country but is a country mentioned in paragraph (5), service may be effected by the applicant or his agent, if and so far as the law of the country of service permits.

(5) The countries referred to in paragraphs (3) and (4) are:—

- (a) England and Wales, Scotland, the Isle of Man and the Channel Islands;
- (b) any independent Commonwealth country outside the United Kingdom, and any territory administered by the government of such a country;
- (c) any associated state;
- (d) any colony;
- (e) the Republic of Ireland.

(6) Where the respondent is a State, as defined in section 14 of the State Immunity Act 1978(a), service shall be effected through the court, except where the State has agreed to some other method of service.

Service by applicant

8. The process, if served by the applicant or his agent, shall be served on the respondent by delivering it to him personally.

Service through the court

9.—(1) Where service is to be effected through the court, the applicant shall file a request in that behalf in Form 280, together with a copy thereof and two copies of the process to be served.

(2) The request shall indicate whether the applicant wishes service to be effected—

- (a) through the authority designated under the Hague Convention,
- (b) through the foreign judicial authority,
- (c) through a British consular authority,
- (d) through the foreign government, where it is willing for service to be effected in that way.

(3) Where the party to be served is a State, as defined in section 14 of the State Immunity Act 1978, the request shall indicate that fact and that the applicant is willing for service to be effected by whatever method the Secretary of State may choose.

(4) The applicant shall file with the request two copies of a translation of the process in the language of the country of service, certified by or on behalf of the applicant to be a correct translation:

Provided that this paragraph shall not apply where the official language or one of the official languages of the country of service is English, or service is to be effected on a United Kingdom national directly through the British Consul, unless the country of service is a convention country and the convention requires a translation.

(5) The chief clerk shall seal the two copies of the process and the translations (if any), and shall forward them and the request to the Lord Chancellor.

(6) An official certificate or declaration upon oath or otherwise of the judicial authority, central authority or government of the country of service or of the British consular authority in that country transmitted by the Lord Chancellor to the chief clerk of the county court, shall be received as evidence of the facts certified or declared with regard to the service or attempted service of the process.

(7) Where the process has been served through the court in accordance with the law of the country of service, the service shall be deemed to be good service.

(8) Where it appears from the certificate or declaration that the process has been duly served upon the respondent, the certificate or declaration shall be an equivalent substitute for any affidavit or certificate of service required by these Rules.

(9) Where, pursuant to an order for substituted service, a document is required to be transmitted through the court to the country of service, the provisions of this Rule shall apply with the necessary modifications.

Proof of service

10. Where the respondent does not indicate that he intends to defend the proceedings the applicant shall, before proceeding, file an affidavit or official certificate or declaration showing that the process has been duly served.

Setting aside the service

11. The respondent may apply, on notice, to the court to set aside the service of the process, or to discharge the order giving leave to serve the process out of the jurisdiction.

Costs

12. Order 55, Rule 19 (which provides for reduced or no costs in certain proceedings before the judge or the circuit registrar) shall not apply to proceedings in which a process has been served out of Northern Ireland in accordance with this Order.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Rules.)

These Rules add Order 6A to the County Court Rules (Northern Ireland) 1981. The new Order lays down the procedure to be followed on an application to serve county court proceedings out of Northern Ireland.

These Rules also reduce from 14 per centum to 12 per centum per annum the rate of interest on the amount awarded by a decree.
