- (iii) cases not falling within head (i) or (ii) but where at the coming into operation of the Supplementary Benefit (Requirements and Resources) (Miscellaneous Provisions) (No. 2) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1985 the claimant was nevertheless receiving the protected

  - (ii) immediately before that date, the actual charge for the claimant's accommodation was being met either wholly or partly out of the claimant's resources, or, wholly or partly out of other resources which can no longer be made available for this purpose;

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations.)

These regulations make provision for the requirements and resources of boarders. They correspond to provision contained in regulations made by the Secretary of State for Social Services in relation to Great Britain and accordingly, by virtue of section 10(2) of, and paragraph 21 of Schedule 3 to, the Social Security Act 1980 (c. 30) are not subject to the requirement of section 10(1) of that Act for prior reference to the Social Security Advisory Committee.

The Supplementary Benefit (Requirements and Resources) (Miscellaneous Provisions) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1985 and the Supplementary Benefit (Requirements) (Amendment) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1985 are revoked by regulation 2 of these regulations and re-enacted, with various modifications, in the form of further amendments to the Supplementary Benefit (Requirements) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1983 (the Requirements Regulations) and the Supplementary Benefit (Resources) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1984.

These regulations differ from those which are revoked in the following respects:

- (a) The new regulation 9(13)(i) of the Requirements Regulations enables the Department, in it's discretion, to determine that certain boarders in homes for persons in need and nursing homes immediately before 29th April 1985, although not then in receipt of supplementary benefit and accordingly outside the scope of paragraph (13)(a) to (e), should in cases of exceptional hardship receive equivalent protection; and paragraph (13) provides in a similar way, for the exercise of the Department's discretion in other situations of exceptional hardship: (regulation 4(1)(f)).
- (b) The maximum amounts for boarders in homes for persons in need and nursing homes have been set at higher figures in paragraphs 1 and 2 of the new Schedule 1A to the Requirements Regulations; and the Department's former discretion to determine what should be appropriate figures, has not been reproduced in these regulations.
- (c) By paragraph 5 of the new Schedule 1A, the maximum amounts for ordinary board and lodging accommodation are now fixed by reference to the limits set out in the publication "Supplementary Benefit Maximum Amounts, Initial Periods and Board and Lodging Areas in Northern Ireland"; and the Department's former discretion in this respect has not been reproduced in these regulations.
- (d) Like it's predecessor the new Schedule 1B to the Requirements Regulations is concerned with persons who are not boarders for the purposes of regulation 9 of the Requirements Regulations, but the categories of persons under 26 years of age who are put outside the Schedule, and accordingly remain eligible to be treated as boarders, have now been extended to include:
  - those remanded on bail or under the supervision of a probation officer or social worker in compliance with a court order;
  - those who live in the same accommodation as their former foster parents;
  - those who would otherwise suffer exceptional hardship;
  - and the Department's former discretion to make further additions has not been reproduced. However, those who immediately before the coming into operation of these regulations were in receipt of supplementary benefit as boarders are protected from the effect of the new Schedule 1B until 28th July 1986: (paragraph 5(3) and (4) of the new Schedule 1B).
- (e) The initial periods during which persons under 26 years of age are nevertheless eligible to be treated as boarders is now determined by reference to the time limits set out in the publication "Supplementary Benefit Maximum Amounts, Initial Periods and Board and Lodging Areas in Northern Ireland"; and the Department's former discretion in this respect has not been reproduced: (paragraph 5(2) of the new Schedule 1B).

The publication "Supplementary Benefit Maximum Amounts, Initial Periods and Board and Lodging Areas in Northern Ireland" is published by Her Majesty's Stationery Office and numbered ISBN 0 337 07353 8 and is available from Her Majesty's Stationery Office, Government Bookshop, 80 Chichester Street, Belfast BT1 4JY.
