EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations.)

These regulations amend the Occupational Pension Schemes (Contracting-out) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1985 by inserting provisions in relation to transfer premiums (a new kind of state scheme premium introduced by the Social Security (Northern Ireland) Order 1985). They also correct a minor error in those regulations.

Article 46A of the Social Security Pensions (Northern Ireland) Order 1975, one of the enabling provisions under which the regulations are made, is brought into operation on 1st January 1986 by virtue of the Social Security (1985 Order) (Commencement No. 2) Order (Northern Ireland) 1985 (S.R. 1985 No. 247 (C. 8)).

The regulations provide that the prescribed person for the purpose of paying a transfer premium is the trustees of the relevant occupational pension scheme; and if they have not been discharged from their liability to pay the guaranteed minimum pensions of the earner in question and there is no outstanding requirement that they should secure them by purchasing an annuity, they are to pay the premium if they have elected to do so. For the purpose of calculating the premium the actuarial table which would be applied for the purpose of calculating an accrued rights premium is to be applied as if the event giving rise to the liability for the premium were the election to pay it. Further provisions relate to the time within which an election is to be made, a premium is to be paid and a premium is to be refunded.

(13) In regulation 23(8) after sub-paragraph (b) there shall be inserted the following sub-paragraph—

“(c) where it was paid under regulation 17A and the person in respect of whom it was paid has died, without leaving a widow, on or before the latest of the days first mentioned in sub-paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) respectively of regulation 19(1A).”.

(14) In regulation 31(4)—

(a) for “or Article 47 (limited revaluation)” there shall be substituted “, Article 47(a) (limited revaluation) or regulation 17A (transfer)”;

(b) in sub-paragraph (c) for “or a limited revaluation premium” there shall be substituted “, a limited revaluation premium or a transfer premium”.
