Made	•	•	•	•	•	16th March 1988
Coming	into op	peratio	on	•	•	18th April 1988

The Lord Chancellor in exercise of the powers conferred on him by Article 13 of the Magistrates' Courts (Northern Ireland) Order 1981(a) and section 7 of the Costs in Criminal Cases Act (Northern Ireland) 1968(b) on the advice of the Magistrates' Courts Rules Committee and after consultation with the Lord Chief Justice hereby makes the following rules:-

Citation and commencement

1. These rules may be cited as the Magistrates' Courts (Costs in Criminal Cases) Rules (Northern Ireland) 1988 and shall come into operation on 18th April 1988.

Revocation

2. The Magistrates' Courts (Costs in Criminal Cases) (No. 2) Rules (Northern Ireland) 1985(c) are hereby revoked.

Interpretation

3. In these rules—

- "the Act" means the Costs in Criminal Cases Act (Northern Ireland) 1968:
- "witness" means a person properly attending to give evidence, whether or not he gives evidence, and includes a person accompanying a witness where the court is satisfied that it is reasonable that the witness should be accompanied by that person;

"session" means over three hours and up to three and a half hours;

"full day" means over seven hours.

Orders for the payment of costs of prosecution or defence fees for solicitors or counsel

4. Where a magistrates' court makes an order under section 2 or 3 of the Act for payment by a convicted person of the whole or any part of the costs of the prosecution or under section 3 of the Act for the payment by the Secretary of State or, as the case may be, by the prosecutor of the whole or any part of

Magistrates' Courts

SCHEDULE 1

Amounts payable for fees of solicitors or counsel

1. The Court may order the payment of—

- (a) such amount not exceeding £75 as the court thinks just, in respect of the remuneration and outlay (other than outlay incurred in connection with witnesses recoverable under rule 5 and Schedule 2) of the solicitor for the prosecution or, as the case may be, the defence in taking instructions, preparing the case, attending in court and where counsel is not instructed conducting the proceedings at the hearing and in respect of all other reasonable charges incidental to the proceedings;
- (b) where it is reasonable to instruct counsel, such amount not exceeding £75 as the court thinks just, in respect of counsel's fees; or
- (c) such amount for costs and outlay incurred by a party appearing in person as the court thinks just.

2. Where the court, having regard to the exceptional length, difficulty or complexity of the proceedings, is satisfied that the amounts prescribed in paragraph 1 are inadequate, it may, notwithstanding that paragraph, make a special order for the payment of a greater sum.

A special order under this paragraph shall contain a full statement of the reasons for making it.

Magistrates' Courts SCHEDULE 2

Amounts payable in connection with the attendance of witnesses, etc.

Part I

Travelling

1.—(1) Where the witness has travelled to and from court by public conveyance or, in the opinion of the court, could reasonably have done so but instead incurred greater expense, there may be allowed a sum not exceeding the amount of the fare which was actually, or would have been, paid for travelling by public conveyance.

Provided that, unless for a special reason the court otherwise directs, only second class fare shall be allowed for travel by railway.

(2) Where the witness has travelled to and from the court by private conveyance and, in the opinion of the court, it was reasonable that he should have done so, there may be allowed in respect thereof—

- (a) if the vehicle is a car, a sum calculated at the rate of $31 \cdot 8p$ per mile each way; or
- (b) if the vehicle is a motor cycle, a sum calculated at the rate of 10.2p per mile each way;
- (c) if the vehicle is a motor cycle of 151 cc-250 cc, a sum calculated at the rate of 14.3p per mile each way; or
- (d) if the vehicle is a motor cycle of 251 cc or over, a sum calculated at the rate of 19.6p per mile each way.

Provided that, where the court considers it unreasonable that he should have travelled by private car the sum payable shall be calculated at the rate of 14.5p per mile.

(3) The rates specified in paragraph (2) shall be increased—

- (i) by a supplement of 2.0p per mile each way for the first, and 1.0p per mile each way for each additional passenger carried to whom a travelling allowance would otherwise have been payable under this Part; and
- (ii) by the amount of any expenditure necessarily incurred on parking fees, provided the court considers the use of a private conveyance to have been reasonable.

(4) Where the witness has travelled to and from the court by a hired vehicle and, in the opinion of the court, it was reasonable that he should have done so, there may be allowed, in respect thereof, the amount of the fare and any reasonable gratuity paid.

Provided that, where the court considers it unreasonable that he should have travelled by hired car, there may be allowed the amount which would have been paid for travelling by public transport.

Magistrates' Courts EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Rules.)

These rules provide for the maximum amounts which may be ordered by a Magistrates' Court in a criminal case to be paid by the defendant or, as the case may be, by the prosecutor for solicitors' or counsel's fees or for personal litigants' costs or in connection with the attendance of witnesses at the hearing. The rules replace the Magistrates' Courts (Costs in Criminal Cases) (No. 2) Rules (Northern Ireland) 1985, which are revoked. The new rules increase certain amounts payable in connection with the attendance of witnesses.
