(This note is not part of the Order.)

This Order provides that any period during which an election made by a judge of the Supreme Court under the Judicial Pensions (Personal Pension Option) Regulations 1988, (S.I. 1988/1417) is in force, shall not count as relevant service in connection with the preservation of benefits under the Judicial Pensions (Preservation of Benefits) Order (Northern Ireland) 1988, S.R. 1988 No. 293. A judge may elect under those Regulations to have a personal pension instead of acquiring pension rights under the Judicial Pensions Act 1981.
