

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order.)

This order brings into operation all remaining provisions of the Disability Living Allowance and Disability Working Allowance (Northern Ireland) Order 1991 on the following dates:—

- (a) 26th November 1991 for the powers enabling regulations to be made;
- (b) 3rd February 1992 for the purposes of making claims for, and the determination of claims and questions to, disability living allowance, and attendance allowance where the person has attained the age of 65;
- (c) 10th March 1992 for the purposes of making claims for, and the determination of claims and questions relating to, disability working allowance;
- (d) 6th April for all remaining purposes.