EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order.)

This Order brings into operation on 30th November 1992 Articles 9 and 11(1)(d) of the Education Reform (Northern Ireland) Order 1989. Article 9 requires that grant-aided schools may not provide courses of study for pupils of compulsory school age which lead to qualifications authenticated by a person other than a member of staff of the school, unless the qualification, and either the syllabus or syllabus criteria are approved by the Department. Article 11(1)(d) requires Boards of Governors and Principals of grant-aided schools to secure that Article 9 is not contravened. This Order also brings into operation on 30th November 1992 the repeal of Article 13 of the 1987 Order. This Order also brings into operation on 1st April 1993 Article 56 of the 1989 Order which requires Education and Library Boards to make available a sum of money to Boards of Governors of special schools not covered by the scheme.
