- (2) The persons who may apply under this Article are—

- (5) Where at any time after giving a direction under paragraph (4)(b) for the summoning of meetings to consider a revised proposal the High Court is satisfied that the person who made the original proposal does not intend to submit a revised proposal, the Court shall revoke the direction and revoke or suspend any approval given at the previous meetings.
- (6) In a case where the High Court, on an application under this Article with respect to any meeting—
  - (a) gives a direction under paragraph (4)(b), or
  - (b) revokes or suspends an approval under paragraph (4)(a) or (5), the Court may give such supplemental directions as it thinks fit and, in particular, directions with respect to things done since the meeting under any voluntary arrangement approved by the meeting.

(7) Except in pursuance of the preceding provisions of this Article an approval given at a meeting summoned under Article 16 is not invalidated by any irregularity at or in relation to the meeting.

Implementation of proposal

  - (5) The High Court may, whenever-
  - (a) it is expedient to appoint a person to carry out the functions of the supervisor, and
  - (b) it is expedient, difficult or impracticable for an appointment to be made without the assistance of the Court, make an order appointing a person who is qualified to act as an insolvency practitioner in relation to the partnership, either in substitution for the existing supervisor or to fill a vacancy.

(6) The power conferred by paragraph (5) is exercisable so as to increase the number of persons exercising the functions of supervisor or, where there is more than one person exercising those functions, so as to replace one or more of those persons.".

  - (b) the member satisfies the Court that he is no longer under any liability in respect of the debts and obligations of the partnership.
- (8) Nothing in this Article nor in Articles 105, 241 and 242 prejudices the power of the High Court, in accordance with the rules, to authorise a creditor's petition to be amended by the omission of any creditor or debt and to be proceeded with as if things done for the purposes of those Articles had been done only by or in relation to the remaining creditors or debts."

Insolvency EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order.)

This Order revokes and replaces the Insolvent Partnerships Order (Northern Ireland) 1991 (S.R. 1991 No. 366) ("the 1991 Order"). Like the 1991 Order it provides a code for the winding up of insolvent partnerships, but it also introduces two new procedures — voluntary arrangements and administrations — for insolvent partnerships.

The Order differs in form from the 1991 Order in that, rather than making textual amendments to the provisions of the Insolvency (Northern Ireland) Order 1989 (S.I. 1989/2405 (N.I. 19)) ("the 1989 Order") applied by the Order with modifications, it sets the modified provisions out in full in the Schedules to the Order. In doing so, any of the provisions applying to partnerships, individual members and corporate members (as defined in Article 2) have been amalgamated.

The following are the main provisions of the Order, and the main changes made to the 1986 Order:—

- 1. Article 4 and Schedule 1 apply Part II of the 1989 Order (company voluntary arrangements) to insolvent partnerships for the first time, with appropriate modifications.
- 2. Article 6 and Schedule 2 apply Part III of the 1989 Order (administration orders) to insolvent partnerships for the first time, with appropriate modifications.
- 3. Where an insolvent partnership is wound up under Part VI of the 1989 Order as an unregistered company without involving the concurrent insolvency of any of its members, separate provision is now made depending on whether the winding up is on the petition of a creditor, a responsible insolvency practitioner or the Department of Economic Development (Article 7 and Schedule 3) or a member's petition (Article 9 and Schedule 5). A main change from the corresponding provisions in the 1991 Order is that the jurisdictional requirements of the 1991 Order have been modified so far as creditors' petitions are concerned. Under the 1991 Order the High Court in Northern Ireland only had jurisdiction if the partnership had a principal place of business in Northern Ireland. Under the Order, whilst that remains the case on a member's petition, the Court also has jurisdiction on a creditor's petition if the insolvent partnership has a place of business in Northern Ireland at which business is carried on in the course of which the petition debt arose (Schedule 3 paragraph 3; Schedule 5). Special rules apply for partnerships which also have a principal place of business in England and Wales or Scotland.
- 4. Where the winding up of an insolvent partnership involves the concurrent insolvency of its members, separate provision is now made depending on whether the appropriate petitions are presented by a creditor

(Article 8 and Schedule 4) or a member (Article 10 and Schedules 4 and 6). Other main changes from the 1991 Order are:—

- (a) on a creditor's petition, a minimum of one member (rather than two as previously) needs to be made insolvent concurrently with the partnership (Article 8(1));
- (b) the jurisdictional requirements are as set out in paragraph 3 of this Note (Schedule 4, paragraph 3; Schedule 6, paragraph 1);
- (c) the Order makes further modifications to Article 245 of the 1989 Order. The corresponding section 271 of the Insolvency Act 1986 (1986 c. 45) was the subject of a decision of the Court of Appeal in In Re Marr (A Bankrupt) (1990 2 WLR 1264) (Schedule 4, paragraph 9; Schedule 6, paragraph 2);
- (d) on the making of a bankruptcy order against an individual member the official receiver no longer becomes receiver and manager pending the appointment of a trustee, but becomes trustee unless and until another responsible insolvency practitioner (as defined in Article 2) is appointed in his place (Schedule 4, paragraph 12);
- (e) the Order removes the mandatory requirement under Article 116 of the 1989 Order as modified by the 1991 Order for the official receiver to summon a meeting of creditors to choose a person to be responsible insolvency practitioner in his place and replaces it with a discretion to do so, as is the case in Article 116 in unmodified form. The official receiver is however under a duty to consider the exercise of that discretion under Article 116A (Schedule 4, paragraph 12); and
- (f) Schedule 4, paragraphs 23 and 24 contain modified provisions on the order of priority of payment of expenses and debts out of the joint and separate estates. In particular, where the joint estate is not sufficient for the payment of the joint debts, it provides for the responsible insolvency practitioner to lodge a claim representing the aggregate value of the outstanding amount of those debts in the separate estate of each member against whom an insolvency order has been made.
- 5. Provision for the individual members of an insolvent partnership to present a joint petition for their bankruptcy (provided there are no corporate or limited partners) is now made by Article 11 and Schedule 7. Main changes from the 1991 Order are:—
  - (a) the court may issue a certificate of summary administration of the estate of any qualifying member (Schedule 7, paragraph 7); and
  - (b) Schedule 7, paragraph 21 contains modified provisions on the order of priority of payment of expenses and debts out of the joint and separate estates. In particular it makes provisions similar to those referred to in paragraph 4(f) above.
- 6. Article 16 and Schedule 8 apply specified provisions of the Companies (Northern Ireland) Order 1989 (S.I. 1989/2404 (N.I. 18)) relating to disqualification of unfit officers where an insolvent partnership is wound up as an unregistered company under Part VI of the 1989 Order.

- 7. The relevant forms for use in proceedings under the Order are contained in Schedule 9 (Article 17).
- 8. Article 18 and Schedule 10 specify the subordinate legislation which is to apply for the purposes of giving effect to the provisions of the 1989 Order and of the Companies (Northern Ireland) Order 1989 applied by the Order.
- 9. Article 19 of the Order contains supplemental and transitional provisions.
