Part II

Application for leave to present a petition for nullity

2.1.—(1) An application under Article 16(4) of the Order of 1978 for leave to institute proceedings for a decree of nullity after the expiration of 3 years from the date of the marriage shall be made to the court in which the applicant wishes to present the petition, by originating summons in Form M1.

- (a) the grounds of the application;
- (b) whether there has been any previous application under Article 16(4) of the Order of 1978;
- (c) the date of birth of each of the parties.

(3) When the summons is issued it shall be made returnable for a fixed date before the judge in chambers.

(4) Unless the court otherwise directs, the summons shall be served on the respondent at least 14 clear days before the return date.

(5) The respondent may be heard without filing an affidavit.

(6) This Part of these Rules shall, so far as applicable, apply with the necessary modifications, to the application as if the originating summons were a petition and the applicant a petitioner.

Discontinuance before service of petition

2.2. Before a petition is served on any person, the petitioner may file a notice of discontinuance and the cause shall thereupon stand dismissed.

Cause to be begun by petition

2.3.—(1) Every cause other than an application under Article 16(4) of the Order of 1978 shall be begun by petition.

(2) Where a petition for divorce, nullity or judicial separation discloses that there is a minor child of the family who is under the age of 16 years or who is over that age and is receiving instruction at an educational establishment or undergoing training for a trade, profession or vocation, the petition shall be accompanied by a statement signed by the petitioner personally containing the information required by Form M4, to which shall be attached a copy of any medical report mentioned therein.

Contents of petition

2.4.—(1) Unless the court otherwise directs, every petition shall contain the information required by Appendix 2.

(2) A petitioner who, in reliance on section 7 or 8 of the Civil Evidence Act (Northern Ireland) 1971(14), intends to adduce evidence that a person—

- (a) was convicted of an offence by or before a court in the United Kingdom or by a court-martial there or elsewhere, or must include in his petition a statement of his intention with particulars of—

- (i) the conviction, finding or adjudication and the date thereof,
- (ii) the court or court-martial which made the conviction, finding or adjudication and, in the case of a finding or adjudication the proceedings in which it was made, and
- (iii) the issue in the proceedings to which the conviction, finding or adjudication is relevant.

(3) In this rule “matrimonial proceedings” and “relevant proceedings” have the same meaning as in section 8(5) of the Civil Evidence Act (Northern Ireland) 1971.

(14) 1971 c. 36 (N.I.)

Signing of petition

2.5. Every petition shall be signed by counsel if settled by him or, if not, by the petitioner's solicitor in his own name or the name of his firm, or by the petitioner if he sues in person.

Presentation of petition

2.6.—(1) A petition may be presented to the High Court or, other than a petition under Article 21 of the Order of 1978, to any divorce county court.

(2) Unless the court otherwise directs on an application made ex parte, a certificate of the marriage to which the cause relates together with the certificates of birth of any child of the family under the age of 18 shall be filed with the petition.

(3) Where there is before the court a petition which has not been dismissed or otherwise disposed of by a final order, another petition by the same petitioner in respect of the same marriage shall not be presented without leave granted on an application made in the pending proceedings:

Provided that no such leave shall be required where it is proposed, after the expiration of the period of 2 years from the date of the marriage, to present a petition for divorce alleging such of the facts mentioned in Article 3(2) of the Order of 1978 as were alleged in a petition for judicial separation presented before the expiration of that period.

(4) Subject to paragraph (5), the petition shall be presented by filing it in the Matrimonial Office together with a notice in Form M5 with Form M6 attached addressed to the respondent and any co-respondent together with any statement and report required by rule 2.3(2).

(5) The petition and other documents specified in paragraph (4) may be presented at any county court office or at the office of the chief clerk at Enniskillen, for transmission to the Matrimonial Office for filing.

(6) C.C.R. Order 6, rule 10 (which deals with the service of petitions) shall not apply but on the filing of the petition the master shall—

- (a) affix thereto the seal of the Matrimonial Office,
- (b) enter the cause in the appropriate records, and
- (c) annex to every copy of the petition for service a notice in Form M5 with Form M6 attached and shall also annex to the copy petition for service on a respondent the copy of any statement and report filed pursuant to paragraph (4) of this rule.

Conciliation

2.7.—(1) Where—

- (a) a petition for divorce, nullity of marriage or judicial separation has been presented and service on the respondent of the petition has been effected or dispensed with, and
- (b) there are children of the family to whom Article 44 of the Order of 1978 applies;

the Master shall inform the Department with a view to a reference to a suitably qualified person (hereinafter called "the conciliator") to consider the possibility of conciliating the parties to the marriage.

(2) Where a reference is made under this rule the conciliator, subject to the approval of the Master, may inspect the court file.

(3) This rule shall not prejudice the right of any party to lodge a certificate of readiness.

Parties

2.8.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2), where a petition alleges that the respondent has committed adultery, the person with whom the adultery is alleged to have been committed shall be made a co-respondent in the cause unless—

- (a) that person is not named in the petition and, if the adultery is relied on for the purpose of Article 3(2)(a) of the Order of 1978, the petition contains a statement that his or her identity is not known to the petitioner, or
- (b) the court otherwise directs.

(2) Where a petition alleges that the respondent has been guilty of rape upon a person named, then, notwithstanding anything in paragraph (1), that person shall not be made a co-respondent in the cause unless the court so directs.

(3) Where a petition alleges that the respondent has been guilty of improper conduct (other than adultery) with a person named, the court may direct that the person named be made a co-respondent in the cause, and for that purpose the Master may cause notice to be given to the petitioner and to any other party who has given notice of intention to defend of a date and time when the court will consider giving such a direction.

(4) An application for directions under paragraph (1) may be made ex parte if no notice of intention to defend has been given.

(5) Paragraphs (1) and (3) of this rule do not apply where the person named has died before the filing of the petition.

Service of petition

2.9.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this rule and rules 6.4 and 7.3 a sealed copy of every petition shall be served personally or by post on every respondent or co-respondent together with a copy of the notice in Form M5 with Form M6 attached and with any statement and report required by rule 2.3(2).

(2) Personal service shall in no case be effected by the petitioner himself.

(3) An application for leave to substitute for the modes of service prescribed by paragraph (1) some other mode of service, or to substitute for service notice of the proceedings by advertisement or otherwise, shall be made ex parte by lodging with the Master an affidavit setting out the grounds on which the application is made.

(4) No order giving leave to substitute notice of the proceedings by advertisement shall be made unless it appears to the Master that there is a reasonable probability that the advertisement will come to the knowledge of the person concerned.

(5) Where leave is given to substitute for service notice of the proceedings by advertisement, the form of the advertisement shall be settled by the Master and copies of the newspapers containing the advertisement shall be filed.

(6) Where in the opinion of the Master it is impracticable to serve a party in accordance with any of the foregoing paragraphs or it is otherwise necessary or expedient to dispense with service of a copy of a petition on the respondent or on any other person, the Master may make an order dispensing with such service.

(7) An application for an order under paragraph (6) shall, if no notice of intention to defend has been given, be made in the first instance ex parte by lodging an affidavit setting out the grounds of the application, but the Master may, if he thinks fit, require the attendance of the petitioner on the application.

(8) Where the solicitor for the respondent or co-respondent signs a receipt that he accepts service of the petition on behalf of the party, the petition shall be deemed to have been duly served on that party and to have been so served on the date on which the receipt was signed.

Proof of service

2.10.—(1) A petition shall be deemed to be duly served if—

- (a) an acknowledgement of service in Form M6 is signed by the party to be served or by a solicitor on his behalf and is returned to the Matrimonial Office, and
- (b) where the form purports to be signed by the respondent, his signature is proved at the hearing.

(2) Where a copy of a petition has been sent to a party and no acknowledgement of service has been returned to the Matrimonial Office, the Master, if satisfied by affidavit or otherwise that the party has nevertheless received the document, may direct that the document shall be deemed to have been duly served on him.

(3) Where a copy of a petition has been served on a party personally and no acknowledgement of service has been returned to the Matrimonial Office, service shall be proved by filing an affidavit of service in Form M7 showing the server's means of knowledge of the identify of the party served.

(4) Where a solicitor has accepted service of a petition in accordance with rule 2.9(8), a copy of his receipt accepting service of the petition shall be lodged in the Matrimonial Office.

(5) Where an acknowledgement of service is returned to the Matrimonial Office, the proper officer shall send a photographic copy thereof to the solicitor for the petitioner or to the petitioner if he sues in person.

Notice of intention to defend

2.11.—(1) In these Rules any reference to a notice of intention to defend is a reference to an acknowledgement of service in Form M6 containing a statement to the effect that the person by whom or on whose behalf it is signed intends to defend the proceedings to which the acknowledgement relates, and any reference to giving notice of intention to defend is a reference to returning such a notice to the Matrimonial Office.

(2) In relation to any person on whom there is served a document requiring or authorising an acknowledgement of service to be returned to the Matrimonial Office references in these Rules to the time limited for giving notice of intention to defend are references to 14 days after service of the document, inclusive of the day of service, or such other time as may be fixed.

(3) Subject to paragraph (2), a person may give notice of intention to defend notwithstanding that he has already returned to the Matrimonial Office an acknowledgement of service not constituting such a notice.

Consent to the grant of a decree

2.12.—(1) Where, before the hearing of a petition alleging 2 years' separation coupled with the respondent's consent to a decree being granted, the respondent wishes to indicate to the court that he consents to the grant of a decree, he must do so by giving the Master a notice to that effect signed by the respondent personally.

For the purposes of this paragraph an acknowledgement of service containing a statement that the respondent consents to the grant of a decree shall be treated as such a notice if the acknowledgement is signed—

- (a) in the case of a respondent acting in person, by the respondent, or

(b) in the case of a respondent represented by a solicitor, by the respondent as well as by the solicitor.

(2) A respondent to a petition which alleges any such fact as is mentioned in paragraph (1) may give notice to the court either that he does not consent to a decree being granted or that he withdraws any consent which he has already given.

Where any such notice is given and none of the other facts mentioned in Article 3(2) of the Order of 1978 is alleged, the proceedings on the petition shall be stayed and the Master shall thereupon give notice of the stay to all parties.

Supplemental petition, pleadings and amendment of petition

2.13.—(1) A supplemental petition may be filed only with leave.

(2) A petition may be amended without leave before it is served but only with leave after it has been served.

(3) Subject to paragraph (4), an application for leave under this rule—

(a) may, if every opposite party consents in writing to the supplemental petition being filed or the petition being amended, be made ex parte by lodging in the Matrimonial Office the supplemental petition or a copy of the petition as proposed to be amended, together with the appropriate consent, and

(b) shall, in any other case, be made by summons to be served, unless the court otherwise directs, on every opposite party.

(4) The Master may, if he thinks fit, require an application for leave to be supported by an affidavit.

(5) An order granting leave shall—

(a) where any party has given notice of intention to defend, fix the time within which his answer must be filed or amended,

(b) where the order is made after the certificate of readiness has been lodged, provide for a stay of the hearing until after the certificate has been renewed.

(6) An amendment authorised to be made under this rule shall be made by filing a copy of the amended petition.

(7) Rules 2.5 and 2.8 shall apply to a supplemental or amended petition as they apply to the original petition.

(8) Unless the court otherwise directs, a copy of a supplemental or amended petition, together with a copy of the order (if any) made under this rule shall be served on every respondent and co-respondent named in the original petition or in the supplemental or amended petition.

(9) Rules 2.9 and 2.10 shall apply to a respondent or co-respondent named in the original petition or in the supplemental or amended petition as they apply in relation to a person required to be served with an original petition.

Filing of answer to petition

2.14.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2) and to rules 2.12, 2.16 and 2.35, a respondent or co-respondent who has given notice of intention to defend and who—shall within 21 days after the expiration of the time limited for giving notice of intention to defend, file an answer to the petition.

(2) An answer may be filed at any time before the certificate of readiness has been lodged, notwithstanding that the time for filing the answer has expired.

(3) Where in a cause in which relief is sought under Article 14(d) of the Order of 1978 the respondent files an answer containing no more than a simple denial of the facts stated in the petition, he shall, if he intends to rebut the charges in the petition, give the proper officer notice to that effect either when filing his answer or later by leave of the court.

(4) On the filing of an answer to a petition presented to a divorce county court the Master shall order the cause to be transferred to the High Court, unless it is a case to which paragraph (3) applies and the respondent has not given any such a notice as is mentioned in that paragraph.

Filing of reply and subsequent pleadings

2.15.—(1) A petitioner may file a reply to an answer within 14 days after he has received a copy of the answer pursuant to rule 2.19.

(2) If the petitioner does not file a reply to an answer, he shall, unless the answer prays for a decree, be deemed on lodging the certificate of readiness to have denied every material allegation of fact made in the answer.

(3) No pleadings subsequent to a reply shall be filed without leave.

Filing of pleadings after lodgment of certificate of readiness

2.16. No pleadings shall be filed without leave after the certificate of readiness has been lodged.

Contents of answer and subsequent pleadings

2.17.—(1) Where an answer, reply or subsequent pleading contains more than a simple denial of the facts stated in the petition, answer or reply, as the case may be, the pleading shall set out with sufficient particularity the facts relied on but not the evidence by which they are to be proved and, if the pleading is filed by the husband or wife, it shall in relation to those facts, contain the information required in the case of a petition by paragraph 1(m) of Appendix 2.

(2) Unless the court otherwise directs, an answer by a husband or wife who disputes any statement required by paragraph 1(f), (g) and (h) of Appendix 2 to be included in the petition shall contain full particulars of the facts relied on.

(3) Paragraph 4(a) of Appendix 2 shall, where appropriate, apply, with the necessary modifications, to a respondent's answer as it applies to a petition.

Provided that it shall not be necessary to include in the answer any claim for costs against the petitioner.

(4) Where an answer to any petition contains a prayer for relief, it shall contain the information required by paragraph 1(1) of Appendix 2 in the case of the petition insofar as it has not been given by the petitioner.

(5) Rule 2.4(2) shall apply, with the necessary modifications, to a pleading other than a petition as it applies to a petition.

(6) Where a party's pleading includes such a statement as is mentioned in rule 2.4(2), then if the opposite party—

- (a) denies the conviction, finding or adjudication to which the statement relates, or
- (b) alleges that the conviction, finding or adjudication was erroneous, or

(c) denies that the conviction, finding or adjudication is relevant to any issue in the proceedings, he must make the denial or allegation in his pleading.

(7) Rule 2.5 shall apply, with the necessary modifications, to a pleading other than a petition as it applies to a petition.

Allegation against third person in pleading

2.18.—(1) Rules 2.8, 2.9 and 2.10 shall apply, with the necessary modifications, to a pleading other than a petition as they apply to a petition, so however that for the references in those rules to a co-respondent there shall be substituted references to a party cited.

(2) Rule 2.14 shall apply, with the necessary modifications, to a party cited as it applies to a co-respondent.

Service of pleadings

2.19. A party who files an answer, reply or subsequent pleading shall within 7 days of filing it serve a copy thereof on every opposite party.

Supplemental answer and amendment of pleadings

2.20. Rule 2.13 shall apply, with the necessary modifications, to the filing of a supplemental answer, and the amendment of a pleading or other document not being a petition, as it applies to the filing of a supplemental petition and the amendment of a petition.

Service and amendment of pleadings

2.21. Pleadings in matrimonial proceedings may be served on any day except Sunday, Good Friday and Christmas Day and may be amended on any day on which the appropriate court office is open.

Particulars

2.22.—(1) A party on whom a pleading has been served may by notice request the party whose pleading it is to give particulars of any allegation or other matter pleaded and, if that party fails to give the particulars within a reasonable time the party requiring them may apply for an order that the particulars be given.

(2) A party giving particulars whether in pursuance of an order or otherwise shall at the same time file a copy of them.

Re-transfer of cause to divorce county court

2.23.—(1) Where a cause begun by petition has been transferred to the High Court under rule 2.14(4) and subsequently becomes undefended, the court shall order it to be re-transferred to a divorce county court, unless, (because of the proximity of the probable date of trial or for any other reason) the court thinks it desirable that the cause should be heard and determined in the High Court.

(2) Nothing in paragraph (1) shall require a case to be re-transferred at the time when it becomes undefended if in the opinion of the court the question whether it is desirable to retain it in the High Court cannot conveniently be considered until later.

Preparation for trial

Discovery of documents

2.24. A party to a cause may apply for an order for discovery and inspection of documents by an opposite party and R.S.C. Order 24 shall apply with the necessary modifications.

Discovery by interrogatories

(2) A copy of the proposed interrogatories shall be filed when the summons for an order is issued.

2.26.—(1) In proceedings for nullity on the grounds of incapacity to consummate the marriage the petitioner may apply to the Master to determine whether medical inspectors should be appointed to examine the parties.

(2) An application under paragraph (1) shall not be made in an undefended cause—

(a) if the husband is the petitioner, or

(b) if the wife is the petitioner and—

(i) it appears from the petition that she was either a widow or divorced at the time of marriage in question, or

(ii) it appears from the petition or otherwise that she has borne a child, or

(iii) a statement by the wife that she is not a virgin is filed, unless, in any such case, the petitioner is alleging his or her own incapacity.

(3) References in paragraph (1) and (2) to the petitioner shall, where the cause is proceeding only on the respondent's answer or where the allegation of incapacity is made only in the respondent's answer, be construed as references to the respondent.

(4) An application under paragraph (1) by the petitioner shall be made—

(a) where the respondent has not given notice of intention to defend, after the time limited for giving notice of intention to defend has expired;

(b) where the respondent has given notice of intention to defend, after the expiration of the time allowed for filing his answer or, if he has filed an answer, after it has been filed;

and any application under paragraph (1) by the respondent shall be made after he has filed an answer.

(5) Where the party required to make an application under paragraph (1) fails to do so within a reasonable time, the other party may, if he is prosecuting or defending the cause, make the application.

(6) In proceedings for nullity on the ground that the marriage has not been consummated owing to the wilful refusal of the respondent, either party may apply to the Master for the appointment of medical inspectors to examine the parties.

Where the medical inspection takes place in the Matrimonial Office the identification shall be conducted before the Master in such manner as he may direct.

(3) Every report made in pursuance of rule 2.26 shall be filed and either party shall be entitled to be supplied with a copy on payment of the prescribed fee.

(4) It shall not be necessary in any cause for the inspector or inspectors to attend or give evidence at the trial unless required either by the court of its own motion or by either party to do so after receiving appropriate notice.

(5) Where pursuant to paragraph (4) the evidence of the inspector or inspectors is not given at the trial, his or their report shall be treated as information furnished to the court by a court expert and be given such weight as the court thinks fit.

(2) A cause pending in a divorce county court may be heard at any county court sitting for any division but, subject to the provisions of rules 2.31 and 2.32, shall be heard at the place of trial requested in the certificate of readiness.

(3) Unless the judge otherwise directs, every cause listed for hearing and any issue arising therein shall be heard by a judge in chambers and adjourned into court for judgment.

2.31.—(1) A cause shall be deemed to have been set down as soon as the certificate of readiness has been lodged.

(2) Where a cause is set down for hearing in the High Court, the proper officer shall, as soon as practicable, fix the date of the hearing and give notice thereof to every party to the case.

(3) Where a cause is set down for hearing in a divorce county court, the proper officer shall forthwith send the file of the cause and the bundle of pleadings to the chief clerk.

(4) As soon as practicable after the chief clerk has received the file of the cause and the bundle of pleadings in accordance with paragraph (3), he shall fix the date and place of the hearing and give notice thereof to every party to the cause.

(5) Except with the consent of all parties or by leave of the judge, no cause shall be tried before the expiration of 10 days from the date of issue stamped on the notice of hearing.

Order for transfer of cause

2.32.—(1) A divorce county court may order that a cause pending therein be transferred to the High Court, if, having regard to all the circumstances including the difficulty or importance of the cause or of any issue arising therein, the court thinks it desirable that the cause should be heard and determined in the High Court.

(2) The court may, if it appears to it that a cause cannot conveniently be tried at the place of trial requested in accordance with rule 2.28(2), change the place of trial to another place within the same or another county court division.

(3) The power conferred by paragraph (2) may be exercised by the judge or Master of his own motion or on the application of a party, but before acting of his own motion the judge or Master shall give the parties an opportunity of being heard on the question of change, and for that purpose the chief clerk shall give the parties notice of the date and place at which the question will be considered.

Trial of issue

2.33. Where directions are given for the separate trial of any issue, the Master shall—

- (a) if the issue arises on an application for ancillary relief or on an application with respect to any child or alleged child of the family, proceed as if the issue were a question referred to a judge on an application for ancillary relief and rule 2.70 shall apply accordingly.
- (b) in any other case, cause the issue to be set down for trial.

Lists in the divorce county court

2.34.—(1) The chief clerk for each county court division shall maintain a list of the causes which are for the time being set down for trial in that division.

(3) The court may at any time order any party objecting to a claim for costs to file and serve on the party making the claim a written statement setting out the reasons for his objection.

(4) In proceedings after a decree nisi of divorce or a decree of judicial separation no order the effect of which would be to make a co-respondent or party cited liable for costs which are not directly referable to the decree shall be made unless the co-respondent or party cited is a party to such proceedings or has been given notice of the intention to apply for such an order.

Respondent's statement as to arrangements for children

2.36.—(1) A respondent on whom there is served a statement in accordance with rule 2.3(2) may file in the Matrimonial Office a written statement of his views on the present and proposed arrangements for the children, and on receipt of such a statement from the respondent the proper officer shall send a copy to the petitioner.

(2) Any such statement of the respondent's views shall, if practicable, be filed within the time limited for giving notice of intention to defend and in any event before the judge considers the arrangements or proposed arrangements for the children under Article 44 of the Order of 1978⁽¹⁶⁾.

- (a) there are no children of the family to whom Article 44 of the Order of 1978 applies, or
- (b) there are such children but the court need not exercise its powers under the Order of 1995 with respect to any of them or give any directions under Article 44 of the Order of 1978,

⁽¹⁶⁾ S.I. 1978/1045 (N.I. 5) as substituted by paragraph 95 of Schedule 9 to the Children (Northern Ireland) Order 1995 (S.I. 1995/755 (N.I. 2))

the judge shall certify accordingly and, in a case to which sub-paragraph (b) applies, the petitioner and the respondent shall each be sent a copy of the certificate by the Master.

(3) Where the judge is not satisfied as mentioned in paragraph (2) above he may, without prejudice to his powers under the Order of 1995 or Article 44 of the Order of 1978, give one or more of the following directions—

(2) If, while a cause is pending, proceedings relating to any child of the family are begun in any other court, a concise statement of the nature of the proceedings shall forthwith be filed by the person beginning the proceedings, or if he is not a party to the cause by the petitioner.

Restoration of matters adjourned, etc at the hearing

2.39.—(1) Where at the trial of a cause any application is adjourned by the judge it may be restored by any party or by the Master when in his opinion the matter ought to be further considered, by notice in Form M9 which shall be served on every party concerned and (when served by a party) on the proper officer or chief clerk, as the case may be.

(2) Where in proceedings for divorce, nullity of marriage or judicial separation the judge has made a direction under Article 44(2) of the Order of 1978, paragraph (1) shall, unless the judge otherwise directs, apply as if an application with respect to the arrangements for the care and upbringing of any such child had been adjourned.

Interpretation

6.1.—(1) In this Part—

⁽²²⁾ S.I. 1978/1045 (N.I. 15) as amended by Article 185(1) and paragraph 96 of Schedule 9 to the Children (Northern Ireland) Order 1995 (S.I. 1995/755 (N.I. 2))

“person under disability” means a person who is a minor or a person who by reason of mental disorder within the meaning of the Mental Health (Northern Ireland) Order 1986(23) is incapable of managing and administering his property and affairs.

(2) So far as they relate to minors who are the subject of applications the provisions of this Part shall not apply to proceedings which are specified proceedings within the meaning of Article 60(6) of the Order of 1995 and this Part shall have effect subject to the said Article 60(6) and Part IV.

(3) Rule 6.3 shall apply only to proceedings under the Order of 1995.

Person under disability must sue by next friend etc

6.2.—(1) A person under disability may begin and prosecute any family proceedings by his next friend and may defend any such proceedings by his guardian ad litem and, except as otherwise provided by this rule, it shall not be necessary for a guardian ad litem to be appointed by the court.

(2) No person’s name shall be used in any proceedings as next friend of a person under disability unless he is the Official Solicitor or the documents mentioned in paragraph (6) have been filed.

(3) Where the disability of a person who is entitled to defend any family proceedings is not solely due to minority, the Official Solicitor shall, if he consents, be guardian ad litem; but at any stage of the proceedings an application may be made (on not less than 4 days’ notice to the Official Solicitor, if he has consented to act) for the appointment of some other person as guardian; and there shall be filed in support of any application under this paragraph the documents mentioned in paragraph (6).

(4) Where a petition, answer, application or originating summons has been served on a person whom there is reasonable ground for believing to be a person under disability and no notice of intention to defend has been given or answer or affidavit in answer filed on his behalf, the party at whose instance the document was served shall, before taking any further step in the proceedings, apply to the Master for directions as to whether a guardian ad litem should be appointed to act for that person in the cause, and on any such application the Master may, if he considers it necessary in order to protect the interest of the person served, order that some proper person be appointed his guardian ad litem.

(5) No notice of intention to defend shall be given, or answer or affidavit in answer filed (by or on behalf of a person under disability) unless the person giving the notice or filing the answer or affidavit—

(a) is the Official Solicitor or, in a case in which paragraph (3) applies, is the Official Solicitor or has been appointed by the court to be guardian ad litem; or

(b) in any other case, has filed the documents mentioned in paragraph (6).

(6) The documents referred to in paragraphs (2), (3) and (5) are—

(a) a written consent to act by the proposed next friend or guardian ad litem;

(b) a certificate by the solicitor acting for the person under disability—

(i) that he knows or believes that the person to whom the certificate relates is a person under disability stating the grounds of his knowledge or belief, and

(ii) that the person named in the certificate as next friend or guardian ad litem has no interest in the cause or matter in question adverse to that of the person under disability and is a proper person to be next friend or guardian.

Certain minors may sue without next friend etc

6.3.—(1) Where a person entitled to begin, prosecute or defend any proceedings to which this rule applies, is a minor to whom this Part applies, he may subject to paragraph (3), begin, prosecute or defend, as the case may be, such proceedings without a next friend or guardian ad litem—

- (a) where he has obtained the leave of the court for that purpose; or
- (b) where a solicitor—
 - (i) considers that the minor is able, having regard to his understanding, to give instructions in relation to the proceedings; and
 - (ii) has accepted instructions from the minor to act for him in the proceedings and, where the proceedings have begun, is so acting.

(2) A minor shall be entitled to apply for the leave of the court under paragraph (1)(a) without a next friend or guardian ad litem either—

- (a) by filing a written request for leave setting out the reasons for the application, or
- (b) by making an oral request for leave at any hearing in the proceedings.

(3) On considering a request for leave filed under paragraph (2)(a), the court shall either—

- (a) grant the request, whereupon the proper officer or chief clerk shall communicate the decision to the minor and, where the leave relates to the prosecution or defence of existing proceedings, to the other parties to those proceedings, or
- (b) direct that the request be heard ex parte, whereupon the proper officer or chief clerk shall fix a date for such a hearing and give to the minor making the request such notice of the date so fixed as the court may direct.

(4) Where a minor has a next friend or guardian ad litem in proceedings and the minor wishes to prosecute or defend the remaining stages of the proceedings without a next friend or guardian ad litem, the minor may apply to the court for leave for that purpose and for the removal of the next friend or guardian ad litem; and paragraph (2) shall apply to the application as if it were an application under paragraph (1)(a).

(5) On considering a request filed under paragraph (2) by virtue of paragraph (4), the court shall either—

- (a) grant the request, whereupon the proper officer or chief clerk shall communicate the decision to the minor and next friend or guardian ad litem concerned and to all other parties to the proceedings, or
- (b) direct that the request be heard, whereupon the proper officer or chief clerk shall fix a date for such a hearing and give to the minor and next friend or guardian ad litem concerned such notice of the date so fixed as the court may direct;

provided that the court may act under sub-paragraph (a) only if it is satisfied that the next friend or guardian ad litem does not oppose the request.

(6) Where the court is considering whether to—

- (a) grant leave under paragraph (1)(a), or
- (b) grant leave under paragraph (4) and remove a next friend or guardian ad litem, it shall grant the leave sought and, as the case may be, remove the next friend or guardian ad litem if it considers that the minor concerned has sufficient understanding to participate as a party in the proceedings concerned or proposed without a next friend or guardian ad litem.

(7) Where a request for leave is granted at a hearing fixed under paragraph (3)(b) (in relation to the prosecution or defence of proceedings already begun) or (5)(b), the proper officer or chief clerk shall forthwith communicate the decision to the other parties to the proceedings.

(8) The court may revoke any leave granted under paragraph (1)(a) where it considers that the child does not have sufficient understanding to participate as a party in the proceedings concerned without a next friend or guardian ad litem.

(9) Without prejudice to any requirement of C.C.R. Order 43, rule 2 or R.S.C. Order 67, where a solicitor is acting for a minor in proceedings which the minor is prosecuting or defending without a next friend or guardian ad litem by virtue of paragraph (1)(b) and either of the conditions specified in the paragraph (1)(b)(i) and (ii) cease to be fulfilled, he shall forthwith so inform the court.

(10) Where—

- (a) the court revokes any leave under paragraph (8), or
- (b) either of the conditions specified in paragraph (1)(b)(i) and (ii) is no longer fulfilled, the court may, if it considers it necessary in order to protect the interests of the minor concerned, order that some proper person be appointed his next friend or guardian ad litem.

(11) Where a minor is of sufficient understanding to begin, prosecute or defend proceedings without a next friend or guardian ad litem—

- (a) he may nevertheless begin, prosecute or defend them by his next friend or guardian ad litem; and
- (b) where he is prosecuting or defending proceedings by his next friend or guardian ad litem, the respective powers and duties of the minor and next friend or guardian ad litem, except those conferred or imposed by this rule shall not be affected by the minor's ability to dispense with a next friend or guardian ad litem under the provisions of this rule.

Service on person under disability

6.4.—(1) Where a document to which rule 2.9 applies is required to be served on a person under disability it shall be served—

- (a) in the case of a minor who is not otherwise a person under disability, on his father or guardian or, if he has no father or guardian, on the person with whom he resides or in whose care he is;
- (b) in the case of any other person under disability—
 - (i) on the Official Solicitor if he has consented under rule 6.2(3) to be the guardian ad litem, or
 - (ii) if the Official Solicitor has not so consented, on the person with whom he resides or in whose care he is:

Provided that the court may order that a document which has been, or is to be, served on the person under disability or on a person other than one mentioned in sub-paragraph (a) or (b) shall be deemed to be duly served on the person under disability.

(2) Where a document is served in accordance with paragraph (1), it shall be indorsed with a notice in Form M22; and after service has been effected the person at whose instance the document was served shall, unless the Official Solicitor is the guardian ad litem of the person under disability or the court otherwise directs, file an affidavit by the person on whom the document was served stating whether the contents of the document were, or its purport was, communicated to the person under disability and, if not, the reasons for not doing so.

Petition for nullity on ground of insanity, etc

6.5.—(1) Where a petition for nullity has been presented on the ground that at the time of the marriage the respondent was suffering from mental disorder within the meaning of the Mental Health (Northern Ireland) Order 1986 of such a kind or to such an extent as to be unfitted for marriage, then, whether or not the respondent gives notice of intention to defend, the petitioner shall not proceed with the cause without the leave of the Master.

(2) The Master may make it a condition of granting leave that some proper person be appointed to act as guardian ad litem of the respondent.

Separate representation of children

6.6.—(1) Without prejudice to rule 2.59, if in any family proceedings it appears to the court that any child ought to be separately represented, the court may appoint—

- (a) the Official Solicitor, or
- (b) some other proper person

(provided, in either case, that he consents) to be the guardian ad litem of the child, with authority to take part in the proceedings on the child's behalf.

(2) An order under paragraph (1) may be made by the court of its own motion or on the application of a party to the proceedings or of the proposed guardian ad litem.

(3) The court may at any time direct that an application be made by a party for an order under paragraph (1) and may stay the proceedings until the application has been made.

(4) Unless the court otherwise directs, on making an application for an order under paragraph (1) the applicant shall—

- (a) unless he is the proposed guardian ad litem, file a written consent by the proposed guardian to act as such;
- (b) unless the proposed guardian ad litem is the Official Solicitor, file a certificate that the proposed guardian has no interest in the proceedings adverse to that of the child and is a proper person to be guardian.

(5) Unless the court otherwise directs, a person appointed under this rule or rule 2.59 to be the guardian ad litem of a child in any family proceedings shall be treated as a party for the purpose of any provision of these Rules requiring a document to be served on or notice to be given to a party to the proceedings.

Part VII

Procedure

Application

7.1. Except for rule 7.2, the provisions of this Part apply to all family proceedings, but have effect subject to the provisions of any other Part of these Rules.

Security for costs in a matrimonial cause

7.2.—(1) A wife who is petitioner in a cause or who has given notice of intention to defend may, after the certificate of readiness has been lodged or at an earlier stage of a cause with leave, lodge her bill of costs incurred to the date of such certificate for taxation against her husband. The taxing master on the taxation of such bill of costs shall if requested by the wife so to do ascertain what is a sufficient sum of money to cover the costs of the wife of and incidental to the trial or hearing of the cause, and the Master may, unless the husband shall prove that the wife has sufficient separate estate or show other good cause, order the husband within such time as the Master may fix to pay to the wife or into court the amount of such taxed costs and to pay into court or secure the sum ascertained as sufficient to cover the costs of and incidental to the trial or hearing and may direct a stay of the proceedings until the order is complied with.

(2) C.C.R. Order 4, rule 1 (which provides that a plaintiff may be required to give security for costs if he is not resident in Northern Ireland), shall not apply to matrimonial proceedings in a county court.

Service out of Northern Ireland

7.3.—(1) Any document in family proceedings may be served out of the jurisdiction without leave either in the manner prescribed by these Rules for service within the jurisdiction or in accordance with R.S.C. Order 11.

(2) Where a petition or notice of an application for ancillary relief is to be served out of the jurisdiction, the time limited for giving notice of intention to defend which is to be endorsed on the petition or contained in the notice shall be fixed having regard to the place where or country within which the petition or notice is to be served in accordance with the practice adopted under the said Order.

Service of documents

7.4.—(1) Where a document is required by these Rules to be sent to any person, it shall, unless otherwise directed, be sent by post—

- (a) if a solicitor is acting for him,
 - (i) to the solicitor's address; or
 - (ii) where that address includes a numbered box at a document exchange, at that document exchange or at a document exchange which transmits documents every business day to that document exchange; and any document which is left at a document exchange in accordance with this paragraph, shall unless the contrary is proved, be deemed to have been served on the second business day following the day on which it is left;
 - (iii) by sending a legible copy of the document by FAX (as defined by R.S.C. Order 1 rule 3(1)) in accordance with the provisions of R.S.C. Order 65 rule 5(2A) to the solicitor's office;
- (b) if he is acting in person, to the address for service given by him or, if he has not given an address for service his last known address, but if in the opinion of the Master the document would be unlikely to reach him if sent to that address, the Master may dispense with sending the document to him.

(2) Unless the court otherwise directs, service of any document in family proceedings shall, if no other mode of service is prescribed or ordered, be effected—

- (a) if a solicitor is acting for the person to be served by leaving the document at, or sending it by first class pre-paid post to, the solicitor's address;
- (b) if the person to be served is acting in person, by delivering the document to him or by leaving it at, or sending it by first class pre-paid post to, the address for service given by him or, if he has not given an address for service, his last known address;

Provided that where, in a case to which sub-paragraph (b) applies, it appears to the Master that it is impracticable to deliver the documents to the person to be served and that, if the document were left at, or sent by post to, the address specified in that sub-paragraph, it would be unlikely to reach him, the Master may dispense with service of the document.

Mode of making applications

7.5. Except where these Rules, or any rules applied by these Rules, otherwise provide, every application in family proceedings shall be made to a Master by summons.

No notice of intention to proceed after year's delay

7.6. No provision in the Rules of the Supreme Court (Northern Ireland) 1980, which requires a party to give notice of intention to proceed after a year's delay, shall apply to any family proceedings.

(2) Where a party against whom the order is made is acting by a solicitor, a copy may, if the Master thinks fit, be sent to that party as well as to his solicitor.

(3) It shall not be necessary for the person in whose favour the order was made to prove that a copy of the order has reached any other party to whom it is required to be sent.

(4) This rule is without prejudice to R.S.C. Order 45, rule 5 (which deals with the service of an order to do or abstain from doing an act), C.C.R. Order 57, rule 7 (which deals with orders enforceable by attachment), and any other rule or enactment for the purposes of which an order is required to be served in a particular way.

(3) The person who operated the recording machine shall, if it be the case, certify that the recording is a complete recording or a continuous part of a complete recording taken at the proceedings to which it relates.

(4) On being so directed a shorthand writer or other competent person shall furnish the Master with a transcript of the whole or such part as may be directed of the record.

(5) The shorthand writer or other competent person shall, if it be the case, certify the transcript to be a correct transcript of the record or such part of the record as may be requested.

(2) Except as provided by paragraph (1) of this rule no document filed or lodged in the court office other than a decree or order made in open court, shall be open to inspection by any person without the leave of the Master, and no copy of any such document, or of an extract from any such document, shall be taken by, or issued to, any person without such leave.

Where the Department requires a person mentioned in regulation 2(2) or (3) of the Child Support (Information, Evidence and Disclosure) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1992⁽²⁴⁾ to furnish information or evidence for a purpose mentioned in regulation 3 of those Regulations nothing in rule 7.12 shall prevent that person from furnishing the information or evidence sought or require him to seek the leave of the court before doing so.

Applications for relief which are precluded by the Order of 1991

7.14.—(1) Where an application is made for an order which in the opinion of the Master, the court would be prevented from making by Article 10 or 11 of the Order of 1991 the proper officer or chief clerk as the case may be, shall send a notice in Form M31 to the applicant and to the other parties.

(2) In the first instance, the Master shall consider the matter under paragraph (1), without holding a hearing.

(3) An applicant who has been sent a notice under paragraph (1) may within 14 days of receipt of the notice inform the proper officer or chief clerk, as the case may be, in writing, that he wishes to pursue his application and upon being so informed the proper officer shall act in accordance with paragraph (4) and the chief clerk shall refer the matter to the district judge who shall act in accordance with paragraph (4).

(4) Where the Master acts in accordance with this paragraph he shall fix an appointment for the matter to be heard and determined by the court and may direct that the hearing shall be ex parte.

(5) Where an appointment has been fixed in accordance with paragraph (4) the proper officer or chief clerk, as the case may be, shall give the applicant notice of the date and time of the appointment and in relation to the other parties—

(a) where the hearing is to be ex parte, inform them that the matter is being resolved ex parte and that they will be informed of the result in due course;

(b) where the hearing is to be inter partes, inform them of the date and time of the appointment.

(6) Where a notice is sent under paragraph (1) and the proper officer or chief clerk, as the case may be, is not informed under paragraph (3) the application shall be treated as having been withdrawn.

(24) S.R. 1992 No. 339

Additional requirement where application for child maintenance is combined with application for other relief

7.15. Where a notice is sent under rule 7.14(1) in respect of an application which is contained in a petition or other document (“the document”) which contains material intrinsic to the application—

- (a) the document shall, until the contrary is directed under sub-paragraph (c), be treated as if it did not contain the application in respect of which the notice was sent;
- (b) the proper officer or chief clerk shall, when he sends a copy of the notice under rule 7.14(1) to the parties, also send a notice informing them of the effect of sub-paragraph (a); and
- (c) where it is determined under rule 7.14 that the court would not be prevented by Article 10 or 11 of the Order of 1991 from making the order sought by the application, the court shall direct that the document shall be treated as if it contained the application, and it may give such directions as it considers appropriate for the conduct of the proceedings in consequence of that direction.

Disclosure of address

7.16.—(1) Subject to rule 2.4 nothing in these Rules shall be construed as requiring any party to reveal the address of their private residence (or that of any child) except by order of the court.

(2) Where a party declines to reveal an address in reliance upon paragraph (1) he shall give notice to the court in Form C5 and that address shall not be revealed to any person except by order of the court.

“government stock” means any stock issued by Her Majesty’s government in the United Kingdom or any funds of or annuity granted by that body;

“judgment creditor” means the person entitled to payments under an order;

“judgment debtor” means the person liable to make payments under an order.

Garnishee proceedings

Attachment of debt due to judgment debtor

8.2.—(1) On the application of the judgment creditor where there is an amount remaining unpaid by the judgment debtor under a matrimonial order and any other person within the jurisdiction (hereinafter referred to as “the garnishee”) is in debt to the judgment debtor, the court may, subject to the provisions of paragraph (2) and rules 8.3 to 8.8 and 8.10 and to any other statutory provision, order the garnishee to pay the judgment creditor the amount of any debt due or accruing to the judgment debtor from the garnishee, or so much thereof as is sufficient to satisfy the order and the costs of the garnishee proceedings.

(2) An order under this rule shall in the first instance be an order to show cause, specifying the time and place for further consideration of the matter, and in the meantime attaching such debt as is mentioned in paragraph (1), or so much thereof as may be specified in the order, to answer the order mentioned in that paragraph and the costs of the garnishee proceedings.

(3) In this rule “the garnishee” shall include a limited company having a place of business within the jurisdiction or a firm any member of which is resident within the jurisdiction and a garnishee order may be made against any firm in the name of the firm; and any appearance by any member then within the jurisdiction pursuant to an order made under this rule shall be a sufficient appearance by the firm.

Application for order

8.3. An application for an order under rule 8.2 must be made ex parte supported by an affidavit—

- (a) identifying the order to be enforced and stating the amount remaining unpaid under it at the time of the application;
- (b) stating that to the best of the information and belief of the deponent the garnishee (naming him) is within the jurisdiction and is indebted to the judgment debtor and stating the sources of the deponent’s information and the grounds for his belief; and
- (c) stating, where the garnishee is a bank having more than one place of business, the name and address of the branch at which the judgment debtor’s account is believed to be held or, if it be the case, that this information is not known to the deponent.

Service and effect of order to show cause

8.4.—(1) An order under rule 8.12 to show cause must, at least 7 days before the time appointed thereby for the further consideration of the matter, be served—

- (a) on the garnishee personally, and
- (b) unless the court otherwise directs, on the judgment debtor.

(2) Such an order shall bind in the hands of the garnishee as from the service of the order on him any debt specified in the order or so much thereof as may be so specified.

No appearance or dispute of liability by garnishee

8.5.—(1) Where on the further consideration of the matter the garnishee does not attend or does not dispute the debt due or claimed to be due from him to the judgment debtor, the court may, subject to rule 8.8 make an order absolute under rule 8.2 against the garnishee.

(2) An order absolute under rule 8.2 against the garnishee may be enforced as if judgment for the amount payable thereunder had been given against the garnishee.

Dispute of liability by garnishee

8.6. Where on the further consideration of the matter the garnishee disputes liability to pay the debt due or claimed to be due from him to the judgment debtor, the court may summarily determine the question at issue or order that any question necessary for determining the liability of the garnishee be tried in any manner in which any question or issue in an action may be tried.

Claims of third persons

8.7.—(1) If in garnishee proceedings it is brought to the notice of the court that some other person than the judgment debtor is or claims to be entitled to the debt sought to be attached or has or claims to have a charge or lien upon it, the court may order that person to attend before the court and state the nature of his claim with particulars thereof.

(2) After hearing any person who attends before the court in compliance with an order under paragraph (1), the court may summarily determine the questions at issue between the claimants or make such other order as it thinks just, including an order that any question or issue necessary for determining the validity of the claim of such other person as is mentioned in paragraph (1) be tried in such manner as is mentioned in rule 8.6.

Discharge of garnishee

8.8. Any payment made by a garnishee in compliance with an order absolute under these Rules, shall be a valid discharge of his liability to the judgment debtor to the extent of the amount paid notwithstanding that the garnishee proceedings are subsequently set aside or the judgment or order from which they arose is reversed.

Money in court

8.9.—(1) Where money is standing to the credit of the judgment debtor in court, the judgment creditor shall not be entitled to take garnishee proceedings in respect of that money but may apply to the court by summons for an order that the money or so much thereof as is sufficient to satisfy the order sought to be enforced and the costs of the application be paid to the judgment creditor.

(2) On issuing a summons under this rule the applicant must produce the summons at the Court Funds Office and leave a copy at that office, and the money to which the application relates shall not be paid out of court until after the determination of the application.

If the application is dismissed, the applicant must give notice of that fact to the Court Funds Office.

(3) Unless the court otherwise directs, the summons must be served on the judgment debtor at least 7 days before the day named therein for the hearing.

(4) The court hearing an application under the rule may make such order with respect to the money in court as it thinks just.

Costs

8.10. The costs of any application for an order under rule 8.2 to 8.9 and of any proceedings arising therefrom or incidental thereto, shall, unless the court otherwise directs, be retained by the judgment creditor out of the money recovered by him under the order and in priority to the judgment debt.

Charging orders, stop orders etc

Order imposing charge on securities

8.11.—(1) The court may for the purpose of enforcing a matrimonial order by order impose on any interest to which the judgment debtor is beneficially entitled in such of the securities to which this rule applies as may be specified in the order a charge for securing payment of the amount due under the order and interest thereon.

(2) Any such order shall in the first instance be an order to show cause, specifying the time and place for further consideration of the matter and imposing the charge until that time in any event.

(3) The securities to which this rule applies are—

- (a) any Government stock, and any stock of any company registered under the Companies (Northern Ireland) Order 1986(25) including any such stock standing in the name of the Accountant General, and
- (b) any dividend of or interest payable on such stock.

Application for order under rule 8.13

8.12. An application for an order under rule 8.13 must be made ex parte supported by an affidavit—

- (a) identifying the order to be enforced, stating the amount unpaid under it at the date of the application and showing that the applicant is entitled to enforce the order;
- (b) specifying the securities on the judgment debtor's interest in which it is sought to impose a charge and stating in whose name they stand;
- (c) stating that to the best of the information and belief of the deponent the judgment debtor is beneficially entitled to an interest in the securities in question, describing that interest and stating the sources of the deponent's information or the ground for his belief.

Service of notice of order to show cause

8.13.—(1) Unless the court otherwise directs, a copy of the order under rule 8.11 to show cause must, at least 7 days before the time appointed thereby for the further consideration of the matter, be served on the judgment debtor, and, if he does not attend on such consideration, proof of service must be given.

(2) Notice of the making of the order to show cause, with a copy of that order, must as soon as practicable after the making of the order be served—

- (a) where the order relates to Government stock, on the principal office in Belfast of the Bank of Ireland,
- (b) where the order relates to other stock, on the company concerned,
- (c) where the order relates to stock standing in the name of the Accountant General, on the proper officer of the Court Funds Office.

Effect of order to show cause

8.14.—(1) No disposition by the judgment debtor of his interest in any securities to which an order under rule 8.11 to show cause relates which is made after the making of that order shall, so long as that order remains in force, be valid as against the judgment creditor.

(2) Until such order is discharged or made absolute, the Bank of Ireland or, as the case may be, a company shall not permit any transfer of any such stock as is specified in the order or pay to any person any dividend thereof or interest payable thereon, except with the authority of the court.

(3) If, after the notice of the making of such order is served on the Bank of Ireland or a company, the Bank or company permits any transfer or makes any payment prohibited by paragraph (2), it shall be liable to pay the judgment creditor the value of the stock transferred or, as the case may be, the amount of the payment made or, if that value or amount is more than sufficient to satisfy the judgment or order to which such order relates, so much thereof as is sufficient to satisfy it.

Making and effect of charging order absolute

8.15.—(1) On the further consideration of the matter the court shall, unless it appears that there is sufficient cause to the contrary, make the order absolute with or without modifications.

(2) Where on the further consideration of the matter it appears to the court that the order should not be made absolute, it shall discharge the order.

(3) A charge imposed by an order under rule 8.11 made absolute under this rule shall have the same effect, and the judgment creditor in whose favour it is made shall, subject to paragraph (4), have the same remedies for enforcing it, as if it were a valid charge effectively made by the judgment debtor.

(4) No proceedings to enforce a charge imposed by an order made absolute under this rule shall be taken until after the expiration of 6 months from the date of the order to show cause.

Discharge, etc of charging order

8.16. The court, on the application of the judgment debtor or any other person interested in the securities to which an order under rule 8.11 relates, may at any time whether before or after the order is made absolute, discharge or vary the order on such terms (if any) as to costs as it thinks just.

Money in court: charging order

8.17.—(1) The court may for the purpose of enforcing a matrimonial order by order impose on any interest to which the judgment debtor is beneficially entitled in any money in court identified in the order a charge for securing payment of the amount due under the order and interest thereon.

(2) Any such order shall in the first instance be an order to show cause, specifying the time and place for the further consideration of the matter and imposing the charge until that time in any event.

(3) Rules 8.12 and 8.13 shall, with the necessary modifications, apply in relation to an application for an order under this rule and to the order as they apply in relation to an application for an order under rule 8.11 and to such order.

(4) Notice of the making of an order under this rule to show cause, with a copy of that order, must as soon as practicable after the making of the order, be served on the proper officer of the Court Funds Office.

(5) Rules 8.14(1), 8.15(1) and (2) and 8.16 shall, with the necessary modifications, apply in relation to an order under this rule as they apply in relation to an order under rule 112.

Jurisdiction of Master to grant injunction or appoint receiver to enforce charge

8.18. The Master shall have power to grant an injunction if, and only so far as, it is ancillary or incidental to an order under rule 8.11 or 8.17, and an application for an injunction under this rule may be joined with the application for the order under rule 8.11 or 8.17 to which it relates.

Funds in court: stop order

8.19.—(1) The court, on the application of the judgment creditor may without notice to the applicant make an order prohibiting the transfer, sale, delivery out or payment of, or other dealing with, funds in court or any part thereof or the income thereon in which the judgment debtor has an interest.

(2) An application for an order under this rule must be made by summons in the cause or matter relating to the funds in court.

(3) The summons must be served on every person whose interest may be affected by the order applied for and on the proper officer of the Court Funds Office but shall not be served on any other person.

(4) Without prejudice to the court's powers and discretion as to costs, the court may order the applicant for an order under this rule to pay the costs of any party to the cause or matter relating to the funds in question, or of any person interested in those funds, occasioned by the application.

Securities not in court: stop notice

8.20.—(1) A judgment creditor claiming to be beneficially entitled to an interest in any securities to which rule 8.11 applies, other than securities in court, who wishes to be notified of any proposed transfer or payment of those securities may avail himself of the provisions of this rule.

(2) A person claiming to be so entitled must file in the court office,

- (a) an affidavit identifying the securities in question and describing his interest therein by reference to the document under which it arises, and
- (b) a notice in Form M23, signed by the deponent to the affidavit, and annexed to it, addressed to the Bank of Ireland or, as the case may be, the company concerned and must serve an office copy of the affidavit and a copy of the notice sealed with the seal of the court on the Bank of that company.

(3) There must be indorsed on the affidavit filed under this rule a notice stating the address to which any such notice as is referred to in rule 8.21(1) is to be sent and, subject to paragraph (4), that address shall for the purpose of that rule be the address for service of the person on whose behalf the affidavit is filed.

(4) A person on whose behalf an affidavit under this rule is filed may change his address for service for the purpose of rule 8.21 by serving on the Bank of Ireland or, as the case may be, the company concerned, a notice to that effect, and as from the date of service of such a notice the address stating thereon shall for the purpose of that rule be the address for service of that person.

Effect of stop notice

8.21.—(1) Where a notice under rule 8.20 has been served on the Bank of Ireland or a company, then, so long as the notice is in force, the Bank or company shall not register a transfer of any stock or make a payment of any dividend or interest, being a transfer or payment restrained by the notice, without serving on the person on whose behalf the notice was filed at his address for service a notice informing him of the request for such transfer or payment.

(2) Where the Bank of Ireland or a company receives a request for such a transfer or payment as is mentioned in paragraph (1) made by or on behalf of the holder of the securities to which the notice under rule 8.20 relates, the Bank or company shall not by reason only of that notice refuse to register the transfer or make the payment for longer than 8 days after receipt of the request except under the authority of an order of the court.

Amendment of stop notice

8.22. If any securities are incorrectly described in a notice filed under rule 8.20, the person on whose behalf the notice was filed may file in the Matrimonial Office or county court office an amended notice and serve on the Bank of Ireland or, as the case may be, the company concerned a copy of that notice sealed with the appropriate seal and where he does so the notice under rule 8.20 shall be deemed to have been served on the Bank or company on the day on which the copy of the amended notice was served on it.

Withdrawal, etc of stop notice

8.23.—(1) The person on whose behalf a notice under rule 8.20 was filed may withdraw it by serving a request for its withdrawal on the Bank of Ireland or, as the case may be, the company on whom the notice was served.

(2) Such request must be signed by the person on whose behalf the notice was filed and his signature must be witnessed by a practising solicitor.

(3) The court, on the application of any person claiming to be beneficially entitled to an interest in the securities to which a notice under rule 8.20 relates, may by order discharge the notice.

(4) An application for an order under paragraph (3) must be made by summons, and the summons must be served on the person on whose behalf the notice under rule 8.20 was filed.

Receivers: equitable execution

Appointment of receiver by way of equitable execution

8.24. Where an application is made for the appointment of a receiver by way of equitable execution, the court in determining whether it is just or convenient that the appointment should be made shall have regard to the amount claimed by the judgment creditor, to the amount likely to be obtained by the receiver and to the probable costs of his appointment and may direct an inquiry on any of these matters or any other matter before making the appointment.

Master may appoint receiver, etc

8.25. The Master shall have power to make an order for the appointment of a receiver by way of equitable execution and to grant an injunction if, and only so far as, the injunction is ancillary or incidental to such an order.

Application of rules as to appointment of receiver, etc

8.26. An application for the appointment of a receiver by way of equitable execution shall be made by summons.

Attachment of earnings

8.27. Articles 73 to 79 of the Judgments Enforcement (Northern Ireland) Order 1981 and R.S.C. Order 105 (which deals with attachment of earnings) shall apply to the enforcement of orders made in matrimonial proceedings in a county court as if they were orders of the High Court.

Examination in aid of enforcement

Examination as to debts owing to judgment debtor, etc

8.28.—(1) Any party entitled to enforce an order made in matrimonial proceedings may issue and serve a summons on the judgment debtor liable under such order requiring him to attend before the court to be orally examined as to whether any and what debts are owing to the judgment debtor, and whether the judgment debtor has any and what other property or means of satisfying the order.

(2) The summons under paragraph (1) shall be in Form M24 or as near thereto as the circumstances of the case may render necessary and shall be served on the judgment debtor by recorded delivery or personally.

(3) If the judgment debtor shall fail to attend in pursuance of the summons the court may make an order for the attendance of the judgment debtor or any other person and for the production of any books or documents.

(4) An order for attendance under paragraph (3) shall be served personally on such person or persons and within such time as the court shall direct.

(5) Upon the examination the court may make any of the following orders:—

- (a) a conditional order of garnishee,
- (b) a charging order or stop order or any order ancillary thereto,
- (c) an order for the appointment of a receiver by way of equitable execution, under the preceding rules,
- (d) an attachment of earnings order under Article 73 of the Judgments Enforcement (Northern Ireland) Order 1981.

(6) The evidence given on the examination shall be taken down in writing, not ordinarily by question and answer, but so as to represent as nearly as may be the statement of the examinee. A copy of the note of such evidence shall, on payment of the appropriate fee, be made available to the parties to any such examination, but save as aforesaid no person shall, without leave of the court, be entitled to examine such note or obtain a copy thereof.

Judgment summonses

Application for issue of judgment summons

8.29.—(1) In this rule and in rules 8.30 and 8.31 unless the context otherwise requires—

“the Order” means the Judgments (Enforcement) (Northern Ireland) Order 1981⁽²⁶⁾,

“order” means an order made in matrimonial proceedings for the periodical payment of money or an order made by the Enforcement of Judgments Office for the payment by instalments of the amount due under an order made in matrimonial proceedings for payment of a lump sum or costs;

“judgment creditor” means a person entitled to enforce an order;

“debtor” means a person liable under an order;

“judgment summons” means a summons issued under Article 108 of the Order.

(2) An application for the issue of a judgment summons may be made—

- (a) in the case of an order of the High Court, to the Matrimonial Office;
- (b) in the case of an order of a county court to that court;

by filing an affidavit verifying the amount due under the order and showing how the amount is arrived at.

(3) A judgment summons shall not be issued without the leave of the judge if the debtor is in default under an order of committal made on a previous judgment summons in respect of the same order.

(4) Every judgment summons shall be in Form M25 and shall be served on the debtor personally not less than 10 clear days before the hearing and at the time of service there shall be paid or tendered to the debtor a sum reasonably sufficient to cover his expenses in travelling to and from the court.

(5) Where a judgment summons has not been served in due time, it may by leave of the registrar be reissued and, if necessary, amended from time to time within 6 months of the date of the original judgment summons.

(6) If the judge makes an order for committal, he may direct its execution to be stayed on terms that the debtor pays to the judgment creditor the amount due, together with the costs of the judgment summons, either at a specified time or by instalments, in addition to any sums accruing due under the original order.

(7) All payments under an order made under or an order of committal shall be made to the judgment creditor unless the judge otherwise directs.

(8) Where an order of committal is stayed on such terms as are mentioned in paragraph (9)—

(a) all payments thereafter made shall be deemed to be made, first, in or towards the discharge of any sums from time to time accruing due under the original order and, secondly, in or towards the discharge of the debt in respect of which the judgment summons was issued and the costs of the summons; and

(b) the said order shall not be issued until the judgment creditor has filed an affidavit of default on the part of the debtor.

(9) Where an order of committal has been made but execution of the order is stayed and the debtor subsequently desires to apply for a further stay, he shall attend at or write to the Matrimonial Office or the county court office, as the case may be, and apply for the stay he requires, stating the reasons for his inability to comply with the order, and the Master or chief clerk, as the case may be, shall fix a day for the hearing of the application by the judge and serve notice thereof on the judgment creditor and on the debtor by recorded delivery at least 3 clear days before the day fixed for the hearing.

(10) The judgment creditor shall serve notice by recorded delivery on the debtor of the terms of any order made under this rule whether or not the debtor has attended the hearing.

(11) An order for committal shall be directed to any police officer or other person as the court may direct for execution.

Further provisions as to judgment summonses

8.30.—(1) R.S.C. Order 38, rule 2(3) (which enables evidence to be given by affidavit in certain cases) shall apply to a judgment summons issued in the High Court or a county court as if it were an originating summons.

(2) Witnesses may be summoned to prove the means of the debtor in the same manner as witnesses are summoned to give evidence on the hearing of a cause, and writs of subpoena or witness summonses may be issued for that purpose.

(3) Where the debtor appears at the hearing, the travelling expenses paid to him may, if the judge so directs, be allowed as expenses of a witness, but if the debtor appears at the hearing and no order of commitment is made, the judge may allow to the debtor, by way of set-off or otherwise, his proper costs, including compensation for loss of time, as upon an attendance by a defendant at a trial in court.

Special provisions as to judgment summonses in divorce county courts

8.31. C.C.R. Order 40 (which deals with enforcement of decrees) shall not apply to a judgment summons issued in a county court.

Removal of divorce county court order into High Court

8.32.—(1) Any order made by a county court in matrimonial proceedings may, on an application made to the High Court ex parte by affidavit by the person entitled to enforce the order, be removed into the High Court by direction of the Master, if he is satisfied that the order cannot conveniently be enforced in the county court.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

Rule 2.6(4)

TAKE NOTICE that a petition for divorce (originating summons)⁽¹⁾ has been presented to the court. A sealed copy of it [and a copy of the petitioner's statement of arrangements regarding the children] [is] [are] delivered with this notice.

1. You must complete and detach the acknowledgement of service in Form M6 and send it so as to reach the Matrimonial Office, Royal Courts of Justice, Chichester Street, Belfast, within 14 days after you receive this notice, inclusive of the day of receipt. Delay in returning the form may add to the costs.

2. If you intend to instruct a solicitor to act for you, you should at once give him all documents which have been served on you, so that he may send the acknowledgement to the Matrimonial Office on your behalf. If you do not intend to instruct a solicitor, you should nevertheless give an address for service in the acknowledgement so that any documents affecting your interests which are sent to you will in fact reach you. Any change of address should be notified to the Matrimonial Office.

NOTES ON QUESTIONS IN FORM M6

3. If you answer Yes to Question [4 or 7]⁽¹⁾ you must within 35 days after you receive this notice, inclusive of the day of receipt, file in the Matrimonial Office, Royal Courts of Justice, Chichester Street, Belfast, an answer to the petition, and deliver a copy to every other party to the proceedings. The case will then be transferred to the High Court⁽²⁾.

4.⁽¹⁾ Before you answer Yes to Question 5 you should understand that—

- (a) you are under no obligation to answer this question but you may do so if you wish;
- (b) the answer Yes will be treated by the court as an admission on which the petitioner is entitled to rely and may result in an order for costs being made against you;
- (c) if you are in any doubt about the answer to give you should consult a solicitor.

5.⁽¹⁾ Before you answer Yes to Question 6 you should understand that—

- (a) if the petitioner satisfies the court that the petitioner and you have lived apart for 2 years immediately before the presentation of the petition and that you consent to a decree, the court will grant one unless it considers that the marriage has not broken down irretrievably;
- (b) a decree absolute of divorce will end your marriage so that—
 - (i) any right you may have to a pension which depends on the marriage continuing will be affected;
 - (ii) you will not be able to claim a State widow's pension when the petitioner dies;

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

- (c) once the court grants a decree absolute of divorce or a decree of judicial separation, you will lose your right to inherit from the petitioner if he or she dies without having made a will;
- (d) a decree may have other consequences in your case depending on your particular circumstances and if you are in any doubt about these you would be well advised to consult a solicitor.

6.⁽¹⁾ If after consenting you wish to withdraw your consent you must immediately inform the Matrimonial Office and give notice to the petitioner.

7.⁽¹⁾ The petitioner relies in support of the petition on the fact that the parties to the marriage have lived apart for at least 5 years. Article 12 of the Matrimonial Causes (Northern Ireland) Order 1978 provides that if in such a case the respondent applies to the court for it to consider the respondent's financial position after the divorce, a decree nisi based on 5 years' separation only cannot be made absolute unless the court is satisfied that the petitioner has made or will make proper financial provision for the respondent, or else that the petitioner should not be required to make any financial provision for the respondent. The petition will tell you whether the petitioner proposes to make any financial provision for you. It is important that you should consider this information carefully before answering Question 7 in the acknowledgement.

8.⁽¹⁾ If you answer Yes to Question 8 you must, before the decree is made absolute, make application to the court by filing and serving on the petitioner a notice in Form M14.

- 9.⁽¹⁾ (a) If you do not wish to defend the case but object to the claim for costs, you should answer Yes to Question 9 in the acknowledgement. You must state the grounds on which you object. An objection cannot be entertained unless grounds are given which, if established, would form a valid reason for not paying the costs. If such grounds are given, you will be notified of a date on which you must attend before the judge if you wish to pursue your objection.
- (b) If you do not object to the claim for costs but simply wish to be heard on the amount to be allowed, you should answer No to Question 9.
- (c) If you are ordered to pay costs, the amount will, unless agreed between the petitioner and yourself, be fixed by the court, or will be taxed by the taxing master, after lodgment of the petitioner's bill of costs. In the latter event, you will be sent a copy of the bill and will have the right to be heard about the amount before it is finally settled.

10. Please answer Question 10. If your answer to Question 10(b) is Yes make sure you sign the form at the end.

- 11. If you wish to make an application for
- a residence order
 - a contact order
 - a specific issue order
 - a prohibited steps order

in respect of a child you will have to make a separate application on Form C1. Before you apply for any of these orders or any other order which may be available to you under the Children (Northern Ireland) Order 1995 you are advised to see a solicitor.

12. If you wish to contest the petitioner's financial or property claim, you will have an opportunity of doing so when you receive a notice stating that the petitioner intends to proceed with the claim. You will then be required to file an affidavit giving particulars of your property and income and be notified of the date when the claim is to be heard.

13. If you wish to make some financial or property claim on your own account, you will have to make a separate application. If you are in doubt as to the consequences of divorce on your financial position, you should obtain legal advice from a solicitor.
