Deseasonalisation Premium (Protection of Payments) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1996

Recovery of premium

4. If at any time after a premium payment has been made it appears to the Department that any person—

- (a) in order to obtain the premium payment made a false statement; or
- (b) has, in relation to that premium payment, contravened or failed to comply with any requirement imposed by or under the Council Regulation, the Commission Regulation or these Regulations;

the Department may recover from him as a civil debt the whole or any part of the amount of the premium payment together with interest in respect of the period between the date on which any premium was paid and the date on which it was recovered calculated at a rate to be determined by the Department.
