(3) The policy of insurance or annuity contract contains provision to the effect that, or is endorsed so as to provide that—

- (a) except in the circumstances specified in paragraph (4), where a pension or annuity is in payment at the date of the beneficiary's death at least 50 per cent. of the annual rate attributable to pensions and accrued rights under the relevant scheme which was in payment at the date of death shall be payable to the beneficiary's widow or widower;

- (c) payments to a beneficiary's widow or widower under the policy or contract which derive from a pension or accrued rights under the relevant scheme shall be subject to the same rate of an annual increase and restrictions which would have applied as a consequence of Articles 51 (annual increase in rate of pension) and 52 (restriction on increase where member is under 55) had the discharge of liability not taken place;

  - (ii) Articles 51 and 52 and regulations made under those Articles, were applicable to them.

- (4) The circumstances referred to in paragraph (3)(a) are—

  - (c) that the beneficiary’s widow or widower is living together as husband and wife with another person to whom she or he is not married at the time of the member’s death.
- (5) For the purposes of paragraph (3)(d), “incapacity” and “serious ill-health” have the same meaning as in regulation 4(4).
- (6) For the purposes of paragraph (3)(e), the provisions of the Act and the Order shall be construed as if—

  - (b) the insurance company were the trustee of the relevant scheme;
  - (c) the beneficiary were the member of the relevant scheme; and
