
STATUTORY RULES OF NORTHERN IRELAND

1998 No. 359

Drinking Milk Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1998

Defence in relation to exports

7. In any proceedings for an offence under these Regulations it shall be a defence for the person charged to prove—

- (a) that the product in respect of which the offence is alleged to have been committed was intended for export to a country which has legislation analogous to these Regulations and that such product complies with that legislation; and
- (b) in the case of export to another member State, that the legislation complies with the Council Regulation.
