

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

SCHEDULE 2

REQUIREMENTS FOR SLURRY STORAGE SYSTEMS

11. In the case of a slurry storage tank with walls which are made of earth, the tank shall not be filled to a level which allows less than 750 millimetres of freeboard, and in all other cases the tank shall not be filled to a level which allows less than 300 millimetres of freeboard.