Complainant
of Defendant

} Petty Sessions District of
County Court Division of

WHEREAS the above-named defendant being a child having been born so far as can be ascertained on (date) , was on the (date) found guilty by a [youth] [magistrate's] court sitting at (place) of the following offence(s): (state shortly particulars of offence)

AND on the (date) , a youth court [having considered a pre-sentence report] is of the opinion that the offence or the combination of the offence and one or more other offences associated with it, is serious enough to warrant a reparation order.

AND the court also considered a report indicating the type of requirements that it would be appropriate to impose on the offender, and the attitude of the victim[s] of the offence to the requirements proposed to be included in the order.

AND the court has explained in ordinary language to the defendant:

- (a) why it is making this order;
- (b) the effect of this order and its requirements;
- (c) the consequences which may follow if he fails to comply with any of the requirements of the order (including the fact that he will then be liable to be re-sentenced for the offence in respect of which the order is made); and
- (d) that the court has power to review the order on the application of either the defendant or of the responsible officer (within the meaning of Article 36D(2) of the Criminal Justice (Children) (Northern Ireland) Order 1998).

And the defendant has consented to the making of this order.

[The person(s) to whom the offender is required to make reparation [has] [have] consented to the making of such reparation]

IT IS ORDERED that the defendant, who [resides] [will reside] in the petty sessions district of , shall within the period of six months beginning with the date of this order, be required to make reparation to [(name of victim or other person affected by the offence)] [the community at large] by way of (specify details of reparation) – for a period of (specify number of hours not exceeding 24) hours.

The responsible officer shall be (specify responsible officer) .

Defendant

} Petty Sessions District of
County Court Division of

WHEREAS the above-named defendant being a child having been born so far as can be ascertained on (date), was on the (date) found guilty by a [youth] [magistrates'] court sitting at (place) of the following offence(s): (state shortly particulars of offence)

AND on the (date), a youth court [having considered a pre-sentence report] is of the opinion that the offence or the combination of the offence and one or more other offences associated with it, is serious enough to warrant a Community Responsibility Order.

AND the court has explained in ordinary language to the defendant:

- (a) why it is making this order;
- (b) the effect of this order and its requirements;
- (c) the consequences which may follow if he fails to comply with any of the requirements of the order (including the fact that he will then be liable to be re-sentenced for the offence in respect of which the order is made); and
- (d) that the court has power to review the order on the application of either the defendant or of the responsible officer (within the meaning of Article 36E(4) of the Criminal Justice (Children) (Northern Ireland) Order 1998).

And the defendant has consented to the making of this order.

IT IS ORDERED that the defendant, who [resides] [will reside] in the petty sessions district of , shall within the period of six months beginning with the date of this order comply with the following requirements:

1. That he shall attend at (place) at such times as he may be instructed by the responsible officer namely (specify responsible officer) for (specify number of hours) relevant instruction in citizenship.
2. That he shall carry out (specify number of hours) of such practical activities as the responsible officer considers appropriate in light of that instruction, at such times as he may be so instructed to carry them out.
3. That he shall keep in touch with the responsible officer in accordance with such instructions as he may be given by that officer and notify him of any change of address.

[The court directs that such hours of instruction and activities shall be [concurrent with] [additional to] the hours specified in the community responsibility order(s) made on (date) for hours instruction and hours activities [respectively].]

Dated this day of 20 .

Resident Magistrate
[Clerk of Petty Sessions]

NOTE:

Instructions given by the responsible officer must, as far as practicable, be such to avoid –

- (a) any conflict with the defendant's religious beliefs or with the requirement of any order to which he may be subject; and
- (b) any interference with the times, if any, at which he normally works or attends school or any other educational establishment.
