
STATUTORY RULES OF NORTHERN IRELAND

2003 No. 63

The Social Security (Industrial Injuries) (Prescribed Diseases) (Amendment) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 2003

Transitional provision

- 3.—(1) Regulation 2(2) and (4) shall not apply –
- (a) to a period of assessment which relates to a claim which is made before the commencement date;
 - (b) to a period of assessment which relates to a claim which is made within 3 months after the commencement date in respect of a period which began before the commencement date; or
 - (c) where a person suffers from an attack of a disease and under regulation 7 of the Social Security (Industrial Injuries) (Prescribed Diseases) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1986 (recrudescence) the attack is a recrudescence of a disease for which a claim was made before the commencement date (or within 3 months after the commencement date in respect of a period which began before the commencement date).
- (2) For the purposes of this regulation –
- (a) “commencement date” means the date on which these Regulations come into operation;
 - (b) the date on which a claim is made is the date on which the claim is made or treated as made in accordance with the Social Security (Claims and Payments) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1987(1); and
 - (c) a period of assessment which begins on the day following the end of a preceding period of assessment, shall be treated as a continuation of the preceding period of assessment.
