EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations.)

These Regulations further amend the Health and Personal Social Services (Superannuation) Regulations (Northern Ireland 1995 (S.R. 1995 No. 95), “the principal Regulations”, which provide for the superannuation of persons engaged in the Health and Personal Social Services in Northern Ireland.

The Regulations shall have retrospective effect, as authorised by Article 14(1) of the Superannuation (Northern Ireland) Order 1972.

Regulations 1 and 2 provide the citation, commencement, retrospective effect and interpretation of the Regulations.

Regulation 3 amends regulation 5 of the principal Regulations (Meaning of qualifying service) and enables service which a member could count in a previous scheme and which has not been credited to the Scheme when the member transferred to it as a result of a transfer of an undertaking, to count as qualifying service. It also enables members employed on a casual basis to continue in qualifying service during short breaks in employment.

Regulations 4, 5 and 6 amend Part VI of the principal Regulations (Transfers and buy-outs), namely regulations 53, 54 and 58, so as to entitle members to a transfer payment where they leave after reaching age 60 as a result of a transfer of an undertaking, and to enable special terms to be applied where one member so transfers.

Regulations 7 to 8 make parallel amendments to regulations 60 and 63 of the principal Regulations (Transfers from other pension arrangements) so as to enable transfer payments to be accepted for members who have reached age 60 and payments to be accepted on special terms for a single member.
