
STATUTORY RULES OF NORTHERN IRELAND

2004 No. 179

Motor Cars (Driving Instruction)
Regulations (Northern Ireland) 2004

PART 6

SUPPLEMENTARY

Exemption from regulations

28.—(1) The Registrar may exempt from the condition specified in regulation 5(1)(a) a person who satisfies the Registrar that his name is in the corresponding register established under the law of Great Britain and that he is resident in Northern Ireland.

(2) A person whose name has been removed from the register under regulation 8(4) who applies for his name to be re-entered in the register shall be required again to pass the examination unless his application is made before the end of a period of one year from the date of removal of his name from the register.