2005 No. 547

Police Service of Northern Ireland Regulations 2005

PART II

Government

Personal records of member leaving the police service

17.—(1) Where a member ceases to be a member he shall, unless he transfers to another police force, be given a certificate showing his rank and setting out the period of his service in the police service, any period which he served as a police trainee and any period of service in any other police force.

(2) The Chief Constable may append to the certificate any recommendation which he feels justified in giving, such as that—

his conduct was exemplary;

his conduct was very good;

his conduct was good.

(3) Where a member ceases to be a member otherwise than by transferring to another police force, his personal records shall be kept for such time as the Chief Constable may think fit and shall then be destroyed.
