Amendments to the Schedules to the principal Regulations

3.—(1) In Schedule 1—

- (a) in rule 4(4)(d) for “on what grounds” substitute “the details of the grounds of such resistance”;
- (b) in rule 4(6)(a) and (7)(a), before the words “the grounds” insert “details of”;
- (c) in rule 7(4) after “reviewed under rule 29” insert “and of their right to appeal”;
- (d) in rule 9(2)(c) omit “or information”;
- (e) in rule 9(2)(d), for “disclose documents or information to a party or to allow a party to inspect such material as might be ordered by a county court” substitute “grant to a party such discovery or inspection (including the taking of copies) of documents as might be granted by a county court”;
- (f) in rule 9(5), for “material” substitute “documents”;
- (g) in rule 12(1)(b) –
 - (i) for “make an order to strike out” substitute “make a decision to strike out”;
 - (ii) for “order that a respondent” substitute “make a decision that a respondent”;
- (h) for rule 12(2) substitute—

“(2) A decision or order may also provide that unless the decision or order is complied with the tribunal or chairman may make a decision striking out the claim or, as the case may be, the response on the date of non-compliance without further consideration of the proceedings or the need to give notice under rule 18 or hold a pre-hearing review or a hearing under rule 22.”;
- (i) for rule 17(5) substitute—

“(5) Notwithstanding the preliminary or interim nature of a pre-hearing review, at a pre-hearing review the chairman may make a decision on any preliminary issue of substance relating to the proceedings. Decisions or orders made at a pre-hearing review may result in the proceedings being struck out or dismissed or otherwise determined with the result that a hearing under rule 22 is no longer necessary in those proceedings.”;
- (j) for rule 17(6) substitute—

“(6) Before a decision or order listed in paragraph (7) is made, notice must be given in accordance with rule 18. The decisions or orders listed in paragraph (7) may be made at a pre-hearing review or a hearing under rule 22 if one of the parties has so requested. If no such request has been made such decisions or orders may be made in the absence of the parties.”;
- (k) in rule 17(7) for “an order” in the first line substitute “a decision or order”;
- (l) for rule 18 substitute—

“18.—(1) Before a chairman or a tribunal makes a decision or order described in rule 17(7), except where the decision or order is one described in rule 12(2), the Secretary shall send notice to the party against whom it is proposed that the decision or order should be made. The notice shall inform him of the decision or order to be considered and give him the opportunity to give reasons why the decision or order should not be made. This paragraph shall not be taken to require the Secretary to send such notice to that party if the party has been given an opportunity to give reasons orally to the chairman or the tribunal as to why the decision or order should not be made.

(2) Where a notice required by paragraph (1) is sent in relation to a decision to strike out a claim which has not been actively pursued, unless the contrary is proved, the notice shall be treated as if it were received by the addressee if it has been sent to the address specified in the claim as the address to which notices are to be sent (or to any subsequent replacement for that address which has been notified to the Office of the Tribunals).”;

(m) for rule 21(4) substitute—

“(4) Where the whole or part of the claim is withdrawn, the proceedings or the relevant part of the proceedings so withdrawn are brought to an end against the respondent on that date and the tribunal or chairman shall dismiss the proceedings or the relevant part of the proceedings so withdrawn. The proceedings or the relevant part of the proceedings so withdrawn cannot be continued by the claimant (unless the decision to dismiss is successfully reviewed or appealed).”;

(n) omit rule 21(5);

(o) in rule 23(2) for “to call witnesses” substitute “to call and question witnesses”;

(p) in rule 31(2), after the words “in accordance with rule 30(3)” insert “and provide the details of the grounds so identified”.

(2) In Schedule 2, in rule 2(e), before the words “the grounds” insert “details of”.

(3) In Schedule 3, in rule 2(d), before the words “the grounds” insert “details of”.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations make a number of technical amendments to the Fair Employment Tribunal (Rules of Procedure) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 2005 (“the principal Regulations”). These are designed primarily to correct drafting errors in the principal Regulations. They also clarify existing powers of the Fair Employment Tribunal.

Paragraphs (1)(a), (b) and (p), (2) and (3) of regulation 3 amend the Schedules to the principal Regulations to make it clear that detailed grounds should be provided to assist the Office of Industrial Tribunals and the Fair Employment Tribunal in managing cases more effectively. Sub-paragraphs (g)-(l) of regulation 3(1) make amendments ensuring that a decision to strike out at a pre-hearing review is a final determination of proceedings. Regulation 3(1)(m) clarifies the position where part of a claim is withdrawn. Regulation 3(1)(o) clarifies the right to question witnesses.

Given that the changes introduced by these Regulations are not substantive, full Regulatory and Equality Impact Assessments have not been carried out in relation to them. No significant equality impact arises from implementation of the Regulations.
