Amendment of the Social Security (Overlapping Benefits) Regulations

2. In regulation 14 of the Social Security (Overlapping Benefits) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1979(a) (provisions for adjusting benefit for part of a week) for paragraph (1) substitute—

“(1) Where an adjustment falls to be made under these regulations for part of a week, benefit (whether under the Contributions and Benefits Act or otherwise) shall be deemed to be payable at a rate equal to one seventh of the appropriate weekly rate for each day of the week in respect of any such benefit.”.

Amendment of the Statutory Maternity Pay (General) Regulations

3.—(1) The Statutory Maternity Pay (General) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1987(b) shall be amended in accordance with paragraphs (2) to (4).

(2) For regulation 2(c) (the maternity pay period) substitute—

“The maternity pay period

2.—(1) Subject to paragraphs (3) to (5), where—

- (a) a woman gives notice to her employer of the date from which she expects his liability to pay her statutory maternity pay to begin; and
- (b) in conformity with that notice ceases to work for him in a week which is later than the 12th week before the expected week of confinement, the first day of the maternity pay period shall be the day on which she expects his liability to pay her statutory maternity pay to begin in conformity with that notice provided that day is not later than the day immediately following the day on which she is confined.

(2) The maternity pay period shall be a period of 39 consecutive weeks.

(3) In a case where a woman is confined—

- (a) before the 11th week before the expected week of confinement; or
- (b) after the 12th week before the expected week of confinement and the confinement occurs on a day which precedes that mentioned in a notice given to her employer as being the day on which she expects his liability to pay her statutory maternity pay to begin, section 161 of the Contributions and Benefits Act shall have effect so that the first day of the maternity pay period shall be the day following the day on which she is so confined.

(4) In a case where a woman is absent from work wholly or partly because of pregnancy or confinement on any day—

- (a) which falls on or after the beginning of the 4th week before the expected week of confinement; but
- (b) not later than the day immediately following the day on which she is confined, the first day of the maternity pay period shall be the day following the day on which she is so absent.

(5) In a case where a woman leaves her employment—

- (a) at any time falling after the beginning of the 11th week before the expected week of confinement and before the start of the maternity pay period; but
- (b) not later than the day on which she is confined, the first day of the maternity pay period shall be the day following the day on which she leaves her employment.”.

(a) S.R. 1979 No. 242; paragraph (1) was substituted by regulation 14(7)(a) of S.R. 1995 No. 150 and amended by regulation 11(5)(a) of S.R. 1996 No. 289

(b) S.R. 1987 No. 30; relevant amending Regulations are S.R. 1994 No. 191 and S.R. 2002 No. 354

(c) Regulation 2 was amended by regulation 2(2) of S.R. 1994 No. 191 and regulation 2(2) of S.R. 2002 No. 354

(3) After regulation 9 (no liability to pay statutory maternity pay) insert—

“Working for not more than 10 days in the maternity pay period

9A. In a case where a woman does any work under a contract of service with her employer on any day, but for not more than 10 days (whether consecutive or not), during her maternity pay period, statutory maternity pay shall continue to be payable to the employee by the employer.”.

(4) For regulation 28(a) (rounding to avoid fractional amounts) substitute—

“Rounding to avoid fractional amounts

28. Where any payment of statutory maternity pay is paid for any week or part of a week and the amount due includes a fraction of a penny, the payment shall be rounded up to the next whole number of pence.”.

Amendment of the Social Security (Maternity Allowance) Regulations

4.—(1) The Social Security (Maternity Allowance) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1987(b) shall be amended in accordance with paragraphs (2) and (3).

(2) In regulation 2 (disqualification for the receipt of a maternity allowance), for paragraph (a) substitute—

“(a) during the maternity allowance period she does any work in employment as an employed or self-employed earner, for more than 10 days, whether consecutive or not, falling within that period and the disqualification shall be for such part of the maternity allowance period as may be reasonable in the circumstances, provided that the disqualification shall, in any event, be for the number of days on which she so worked in excess of 10 days;”.

(3) In regulation 3(2A)(c) (modification of the maternity allowance period) for “26 weeks commencing with the week following that in which she stopped work” substitute “39 weeks commencing no earlier than the day she becomes entitled to maternity allowance and no later than the day following the day on which she is confined”.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations amend the Social Security (Overlapping Benefits) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1979 (“the Overlapping Benefits Regulations”), the Statutory Maternity Pay (General) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1987 (“the Statutory Maternity Pay Regulations”) and the Social Security (Maternity Allowance) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1987 (“the Maternity Allowance Regulations”).

Regulation 2 amends the Overlapping Benefits Regulations to provide for adjustments of all benefits at a rate of one seventh of the appropriate weekly rate for each day of the week.

Regulation 3 amends the Statutory Maternity Pay Regulations to—provide for a woman’s maternity pay period (“MPP”) to begin in accordance with a notice to her employer stating the day she expects his liability to pay her statutory maternity pay (“SMP”) to begin, if that day is 11 weeks or less before her expected week of confinement (“EWC”) and not later than the day after she gives birth;

establish that the MPP is 39 consecutive weeks;

provide for a woman’s MPP to begin the day after she gives birth if that day is before the 11th week before her EWC or, if it is after the 12th week before her EWC and she gives birth before the day specified in a notice to her employer stating the day she expects his liability to pay her SMP to begin;

provide for a woman’s MPP to begin the day after her absence from work where she is absent because of pregnancy or confinement on a day four weeks or less before her EWC and before her actual confinement;

provide for a woman’s MPP to begin the day after she leaves her employment where she leaves 11 weeks or less before her EWC, before the start of the MPP and before her actual confinement;

provide for SMP to continue to be paid where a woman works for her employer for not more than 10 days within her MPP; and allow payments of SMP for a week or part of a week to be rounded up to the next penny.

Regulation 4 amends the Maternity Allowance Regulations to—provide for a woman to be subject to disqualification from maternity allowance if she works as an employed or self-employed earner for more than 10 days in the maternity allowance period (“MAP”); and extend the MAP to 39 weeks and to allow the MAP to commence no earlier than the day a woman becomes entitled to maternity allowance and no later than the day after which she is confined in specified circumstances.

Regulation 5 makes consequential revocations.

Article 63 of the Social Security (Northern Ireland) Order 1998, by virtue of, or consequential upon, which regulation 2 is made, is brought into operation on 1st October 2006, by the Social Security (1998 Order) (Commencement No. 13) Order (Northern Ireland) 2006 (S.R. 2006 No. 360 (C. 20)). Article 3 of, and paragraphs 5 and 6 of Schedule 1 to, the Work and Families (Northern Ireland) Order 2006, by virtue of, or consequential upon, which regulations 3 and 4 are made, were brought into operation on 1st September 2006 (in relation to paragraph 6 of Schedule 1, for the purpose only of authorising the making of regulations) by the Work and Families (Northern Ireland) Order 2006 (Commencement No. 1) Order (Northern Ireland) 2006 (S.R. 2006 No. 344 (C. 17)). As the Regulations are made before the end of the period of 6 months from the commencement of those provisions, they are, accordingly, exempt, by virtue of section 150(5)(b) of the Social Security Administration (Northern Ireland) Act 1992, from reference to the Social Security Advisory Committee.

An assessment of the cost to business was made in accordance with the Work and Families (Northern Ireland) Order 2006.
