New Rule 149C(8) provides that the clerk of petty sessions shall notify the parties of the decision of the court and, where leave is granted, prescribes certain information which shall be set out in that notification.

New Rules 149(9) provides that when dealing with an application for a witness outside the United Kingdom to give evidence by live link, the court may specify, as a condition of granting leave, that the witness should give evidence in the presence of a particular person who is able to answer under oath or affirmation any questions the court may put as to the circumstances in which the evidence is given.

New Rule 149C(10) provides that the court may extend any time limit for the service of a notice required under the Rule.

New Rule 149D provides that the court may abridge the time for service of an application under New Rule 149C. New Rules 149D(1) and (2) prescribe the form of an application for abridgement.

New Rule 149D(3) provides that an application for abridgement may be determined by a resident magistrate without hearing. New Rule 149D(4) provides that, where an application for abridgement of time is granted, direction also be given by the resident magistrate as to the period within which notice of opposition to an application under New Rule 149C(4) should be given.

New Rule 149D(5) provides that the clerk of petty sessions shall notify the parties of the decision of the court.
