(2) Where the Department, in any particular case, directs that the person making the claim approves a written statement of his circumstances, provided for the purpose by the Department, a telephone claim is not a valid claim unless the person complies with the direction.

(3) A telephone claim is defective unless the Department is provided, during that telephone call, with all the information it requires to determine the claim.

(4) Where a telephone claim is defective, the Department shall advise the person making it of the defect and of the relevant provisions of regulation 6(1D) relating to the date of claim.

(5) If the person corrects the defect within one month, or such longer period as the Department considers reasonable, of the date it last drew attention to the defect, the Department shall treat the claim as if it had been properly made in the first instance.

Making a claim for employment and support allowance in writing

4G.—(1) A claim (“a written claim”) for employment and support allowance need only be made in writing if the Department so directs in any particular case but a written claim may be made whether or not a direction is issued.

(2) A written claim must be made on a form approved for the purpose by the Department and be made in accordance with the instructions on the form.

(3) A claim in writing may also be made at an office of—

- (a) an authority administering housing benefit;
- (b) a person providing to such an authority services relating to housing benefit; or
- (c) a person authorised to exercise any function of such an authority relating to housing benefit, if the Department has arranged with the authority or person specified in sub-paragraph (b) or (c) for them to receive claims in accordance with this paragraph.

(4) Where a written claim is made in accordance with paragraph (3), on receipt of that claim the authority or other person specified in that paragraph—

- (a) shall forward the claim to the Department as soon as reasonably practicable;
- (b) may receive information or evidence relating to the claim supplied by—
  - (i) the person making, or who has made, the claim, or
  - (ii) other persons in connection with the claim,and shall forward it to the Department as soon as reasonably practicable;
- (c) may obtain information or evidence relating to the claim from the person who has made the claim, but not any medical information or evidence except for that which the claimant must provide in accordance with instructions on the form, and shall forward the information or evidence to the Department as soon as reasonably practicable;
- (d) may record information or evidence relating to the claim supplied or obtained in accordance with sub-paragraph (b) or (c) and may hold the information or evidence (whether as supplied or obtained or as recorded) for the purpose of forwarding it to the Department; and
- (e) may give information and advice with respect to the claim to the person who makes, or who has made, the claim.

(5) Paragraph (4)(b) to (e) applies in respect of information, evidence and advice relating to any claim whether the claim is made in accordance with paragraph (3) or otherwise.

(6) Where a written claim is defective when first received, the Department is to advise the person making it of the defect and of the provisions of regulation 6(1D) relating to the date of claim.

(7) If that person corrects the defect so that the claim then satisfies the requirements of paragraph (2) and does so within one month, or such longer period as the Department considers reasonable, of the date it last drew attention to the defect, the claim shall be treated as having been properly made in the first instance.

Claims for employment and support allowance: supplemental

4H.—(1) Where a person who is a member of a couple may be entitled to an income-related employment and support allowance the claim for an employment and support allowance shall be made by whichever member of the couple they agree should claim or, in default of agreement, by such one of them as the Department may choose.

(2) Where one member of a couple (“the former claimant”) is entitled to an income-related employment and support allowance under an award but a claim for an employment and support allowance is made by the other member of the couple and the Department considers that the other member is entitled to an income-related employment and support allowance, then, if both members of the couple confirm in writing that they wish the claimant to be the other member, the former claimant’s entitlement shall terminate on the day the partner’s claim is actually made or, if earlier, is treated as made.

(3) In calculating any period of one month for the purposes of regulations 4F and 4G, any period commencing on a day on which a person is first notified of a decision in connection with his failure to take part in a work-focused interview and ending on a day on which he was notified that that decision has been revised so that the decision as revised is that he did take part is to be disregarded.

(4) Employment and support allowance is a relevant benefit for the purposes of section 5A of the Administration Act.”.

(6) In regulation 6 (date of claim) after paragraph (1C)(a) insert—

“(1D) For employment and support allowance—

- (a) in the case of a telephone claim made in accordance with regulation 4F(1) the date of claim is the date of the telephone call or the first day in respect of which the claim is made, if later;
- (b) subject to sub-paragraph (c), in the case of a written claim which meets the requirements of regulation 4G(2) the date of claim is the date the claim form was received in an appropriate office or office mentioned in regulation 4G(3) or the first day in respect of which the claim is made, if later;
- (c) where the claimant notifies the Department (by whatever means) of his intention of making a claim and, within one month of first notification or such longer period as the Department considers reasonable, a claim mentioned in sub-paragraph (b) is received, in an office mentioned in that sub-paragraph, the date of claim is the date notification was made or the first day in respect of which the claim is made, if later.”.

“SCHEDULE 2C

Date from which change of circumstances takes effect where a claimant is entitled to employment and support allowance

1. Subject to paragraphs 2 to 7, where the amount of an employment and support allowance payable under an award is changed by a superseding decision made on the ground of a change of circumstances, that superseding decision shall take effect from the first day of the benefit week in which the relevant change of circumstances occurs or is expected to occur.
2. In the cases set out in paragraph 3, the superseding decision shall take effect from the day on which the relevant change of circumstances occurs or is expected to occur.
3. The cases referred to in paragraph 2 are where—
  - (a) entitlement ends, or is expected to end, for a reason other than that the claimant no longer satisfies the provisions of paragraph 6(1)(a) of Schedule 1 to the Welfare Reform Act;
  - (b) a child or young person referred to in regulation 156(6)(d) or (g) of the Employment and Support Allowance Regulations lives, or is expected to live, with the claimant for part only of the benefit week;
  - (c) a person referred to in paragraph 12 of Schedule 5 to the Employment and Support Allowance Regulations—
    - (i) ceases, or is expected to cease, to be a patient, or
    - (ii) a member of the person’s family ceases, or is expected to cease, to be a patient,in either case for a period of less than a week;
  - (d) a person referred to in paragraph 3 of Schedule 5 to the Employment and Support Allowance Regulations—
    - (i) becomes a prisoner, or
    - (ii) ceases to be a prisoner;
  - (e) during the currency of the claim a claimant makes a claim for a relevant social security benefit—
    - (i) the result of which is that his benefit week changes, or
    - (ii) in accordance with regulation 13 of the Claims and Payments Regulations and an award of that benefit on the relevant day for the purposes of that regulation means that his benefit week is expected to change.
4. A superseding decision made in consequence of a payment of income being treated as paid on a particular day under regulation 93 of the Employment and Support Allowance Regulations shall take effect from the day on which that payment is treated as paid.
5. Where—
  - (a) it is decided upon supersession on the ground of a relevant change of circumstances or change specified in paragraphs 9 and 10 that the amount of an employment and support allowance is, or is to be, reduced; and
  - (b) the Department certifies that it is impracticable for a superseding decision to take effect from the day prescribed in paragraph 9 or the preceding paragraphs (other than where paragraph 3(e) or 4 applies), that superseding decision shall take effect—

- (i) where the relevant change has occurred, from the first day of the benefit week following that in which that superseding decision is made, or
- (ii) where the relevant change is expected to occur, from the first day of the benefit week following that in which that change of circumstances is expected to occur.

6. Where—

- (a) a superseding decision (“the former supersession”) was made on the ground of a relevant change of circumstances in the cases set out in paragraph 3(b) to (e); and
- (b) that superseding decision is itself superseded by a subsequent decision because the circumstances which gave rise to the former supersession cease to apply (“the second change”), that subsequent decision shall take effect from the date of the second change.

7. In the case of an employment and support allowance decision where there has been a limited capability for work determination, where—

- (a) the Department is satisfied that, in relation to a limited capability for work determination, the claimant or payee failed to notify an appropriate office of a change of circumstances which regulations under the Administration Act required him to notify; and
- (b) the claimant or payee, as the case may be, could reasonably have been expected to know that the change of circumstances should have been notified, the superseding decision shall take effect—
  - (i) from the date on which the claimant or payee, as the case may be, ought to have notified the change of circumstances, or
  - (ii) if more than one change has taken place between the date from which the decision to be superseded took effect and the date of the superseding decision, from the date on which the first change ought to have been notified.

8. Where—

- (a) the Department supersedes a decision made by an appeal tribunal or a Commissioner on the grounds specified in regulation 6(2)(c)(i);
- (b) the decision to be superseded was more advantageous to the claimant because of the ignorance or mistake than it would otherwise have been; and
- (c) the material fact—
  - (i) does not relate to the limited capability for work determination embodied in or necessary to the decision, or
  - (ii) relates to a limited capability for work determination embodied in or necessary to the decision and the Department is satisfied that at the time the decision was made the claimant or payee, as the case may be, knew or could reasonably have been expected to know of it and that it was relevant, the superseding decision shall take effect from the first day of the benefit week in which the decision of the appeal tribunal or the Commissioner took effect or was to take effect.

9. Where an amount of an employment and support allowance payable under an award is changed by a superseding decision specified in paragraph 10 the superseding decision shall take effect from the day specified in paragraph 1 for a change of circumstances.

10. The following are superseding decisions for the purposes of paragraph 9—

- (a) a decision which supersedes a decision specified in regulation 6(2)(b) and (d) to (ee); and

- (b) a superseding decision which would, but for paragraph 9, take effect from a date specified in regulation 7(6), (7), (12), (13), (17D) to (17F) and (32).”
