
STATUTORY RULES OF NORTHERN IRELAND

2008 No. 427

Juvenile Justice Centre Rules (Northern Ireland) 2008

PART 4

HEALTHCARE

Medical examination

29.—(1) A healthcare officer shall separately examine each child upon reception, or if this is not possible, within 24 hours, and shall record the result.

(2) If a child has any medicine in his possession on reception it shall be for a healthcare officer to decide on its use, retention or disposal.

(3) If a child is found to have any infectious disease or to be in any condition which may threaten the health and well-being of himself or others, a healthcare officer shall take the necessary action for the child to receive appropriate treatment and report the matter to the director.
