2009 No. 373

The Education (Student Support) ( No. 2)
Regulations (Northern Ireland) 2009

PART 10

SUPPORT FOR FULL-TIME DISTANCE LEARNING COURSES

Eligible distance learning students

105.—(1) An eligible distance learning student qualifies for support in connection with the student undertaking a designated distance learning course subject to and in accordance with this Part.

(2) Subject to paragraph (3), a person is an eligible distance learning student in connection with a designated distance learning course if in assessing the person’s application for support the Department determines that the person falls within one of the categories set out in Part 2 of Schedule 2.

(3) A person (“A”) is not an eligible distance learning student if—

- (a) [<sup>F1</sup>A is eligible to apply for,] in connection with the distance learning course—
  - (i) a healthcare bursary whether or not the amount of such bursary is calculated by reference to the person’s income; or
  - (ii) any allowance under the Nursing and Midwifery Student Allowances (Scotland) Regulations 2007(1);
- (b) A is in breach of any obligation to repay any loan;
- (c) A has reached the age of 18 and has not ratified any agreement for a loan A made when A was under the age of 18;
- (d) A has, in the opinion of the Department, shown by A’s conduct that A is unfitted to receive support; or
- (e) subject to paragraph (5), A is a prisoner.

(5) Paragraph (3)(e) does not apply in respect of an academic year during which the student enters prison or is released from prison.

(6) For the purposes of paragraphs (3)(b) and (3)(c), “loan” means a loan made under any provision of the student loans legislation.

(7) In a case where the agreement for a loan is subject to the law of Scotland, paragraph (3)(c) only applies if the agreement was made—

- (a) before 25th September 1991; and

- (b) with the concurrence of the borrower's curator or at a time when the borrower had no curator.
- (8) Subject to paragraphs (11) to (13), if a person satisfies the conditions in paragraph (9) or (10)—
- (a) paragraphs (2) and (3) do not apply to that person; and
- (b) that person is an eligible distance learning student for the purposes of this Part.
- (9) The conditions in this paragraph are—
- (a) the person qualified as an eligible distance learning student in connection with an earlier academic year of the current designated distance learning course pursuant to regulations made by the Department under Article 3 of the Order; and
- (b) the person's status as an eligible distance learning student has not terminated.
- (10) The conditions in this paragraph are—
- (a) the Department has previously determined that the person is—
- (i) an eligible student in connection with a designated course;
- (ii) an eligible distance learning student in connection with a designated distance learning course other than the current distance learning course; or
- (iii) an eligible part-time student in connection with a designated part-time course;
- (b) the person's status as an eligible student, eligible distance learning student or as an eligible part-time student in connection with the course referred to in sub-paragraph (a) has been converted or transferred from that course to the current designated distance learning course as a result of one or more conversions or transfers in accordance with regulations made by the Department under Article 3 of the Order; and
- (c) the person's status as an eligible distance learning student has not terminated.
- (11) Where—
- (a) the Department determined that, by virtue of being a refugee or the spouse, civil partner, child or step-child of a refugee, a person ("A") was an eligible distance learning student in connection with an application for support for an earlier year of the current distance learning course or an application for support in connection with a designated course, designated part-time course or other distance learning course from which A's status as an eligible student, eligible part-time student or eligible distance learning student has been transferred to the current distance learning course; and
- (b) as at the day before the academic year in respect of which A is applying for support begins, the refugee status of A or of A's spouse, civil partner, parent or step-parent, as the case may be, has expired and no further leave to remain has been granted and no appeal is pending (within the meaning of section 104 of the Nationality, Immigration and Asylum Act 2002<sup>(2)</sup>),

A's status as an eligible distance learning student terminates immediately before the first day of the academic year in respect of which A is applying for support.

- (12) Where—
- (a) the Department determined that, by virtue of being a person with leave to enter or remain or the spouse, civil partner, child or step-child of such a person, a person ("A") was an eligible distance learning student in connection with an application for support for an earlier year of the current distance learning course or an application for support in connection with a designated course, designated part-time course or other distance learning

(2) 2002 c.41. Section 104 was amended by the Asylum and Immigration \(Treatment of Claimants, etc\) Act 2004 \(c. 19, Schedules 2 and 4 and the Immigration, Asylum and Nationality Act 2006 \(c. 13\), section 9

Designated distance learning courses

107.—(1) A course is designated for the purposes of Article 3(1) of the Order and regulation 105 if it is designated by the Department under this regulation.

(2) Subject to paragraph (4), the Department may designate a course under this regulation if in the Department’s opinion—

- (a) the course is mentioned in Schedule 3 other than a course for the initial training of teachers;
- (b) the course is a full-time course;
- (c) the course is of at least one academic year’s duration; and
- (d) students undertaking the course in the United Kingdom are not required to be in attendance on it by the institution or institutions providing the course.

(3) For the purposes of determining whether the requirement in paragraph (2)(d) is satisfied the Department may disregard—

- (a) any requirement imposed by the institution or institutions providing the course to attend any institution for the purposes of—
  - (i) registration or enrolment;
  - (ii) an examination;
- (b) any requirement imposed by the institution or institutions providing the course to attend any institution on a weekend or during any vacation;
- (c) any period of attendance at the institution or institutions providing the course which a student may but is not required to complete by that institution or those institutions.

(4) The Department may not designate a course as a designated distance learning course if—

- (a) it falls within paragraph 7 or 8 of Schedule 3; and
- (b) the governing body of a school has arranged for the provision of the course to a pupil of the school.

(5) A first degree course is not a designated course where—

- (a) it leads to the award of a professional qualification;
- (b) a first degree (or equivalent qualification) would normally be required for entry to a course leading to the award of that professional qualification; and
- (c) the current course begins on or after 1st September 2009.

Period of eligibility

108.—(1) A student’s status as an eligible distance learning student is retained in connection with a designated distance learning course until the status terminates in accordance with this regulation or regulation 105.

(2) The period for which an eligible distance learning student retains that status is the “period of eligibility”.

(3) Subject to the following paragraphs and regulation 107, the period of eligibility terminates at the end of the academic year in which the eligible distance learning student completes the designated distance learning course.

(4) The period of eligibility terminates when the eligible distance learning student (“A”)—

Status: Point in time view as at 27/09/2017.

Changes to legislation: There are outstanding changes not yet made by the legislation.gov.uk editorial team to The Education (Student Support) (No. 2) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 2009. Any changes that have already been made by the team appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) withdraws from A's designated distance learning course in circumstances where the Department has not transferred or converted or will not transfer or convert A's status under regulation 116, 117, 118 or 135; or
  - (b) abandons or is expelled from A's designated distance learning course.
- (5) The Department may terminate the period of eligibility where A has shown by A's conduct that A is unfitted to receive support.
- (6) If the Department is satisfied that an eligible distance learning student has failed to comply with any requirement to provide information under this Part or has provided information which is inaccurate in a material particular, the Department may take such of the following actions as the Department considers appropriate in the circumstances—
- (a) terminate the period of eligibility;
  - (b) determine that the student no longer qualifies for any particular support or particular amount of support;
  - (c) treat any support paid to the student as an overpayment which may be recovered under regulation 121 [<sup>F6</sup>or 121A].
- (7) Where the period of eligibility terminates before the end of the academic year in which the eligible distance learning student completes the designated distance learning course the Department may, at any time, renew or extend the period of eligibility for such period as the Department determines.

109.—(1) For the purposes of this regulation, the support available is—

- (a) a grant in respect of fees not exceeding the lesser of the following amounts—
  - (i) £1,230; and
  - (ii) the “actual fees”, being the amount of fees charged to the student in respect of an academic year of the designated distance learning course; <sup>F7</sup>...
- [<sup>F8</sup>(aa) a distance learning fee loan, where—
  - (i) the fees charged by the academic authority in respect of an academic year of the designated distance learning course exceed the grant mentioned in sub-paragraph (a), the amount of which has been determined in accordance with regulation 110; or
  - (ii) it has been determined in accordance with regulation 110 that no grant is payable under sub-paragraph (a); or
  - (iii) the eligible distance learning student does not apply for the grant mentioned in sub-paragraph (a); and]
- (b) a grant not exceeding £265 for books, travel and other expenditure in connection with the designated distance learning course.

(2) An eligible distance learning student does not qualify for support under paragraph (1)(b) if the only paragraph in Part 2 of Schedule 2 into which the student falls is paragraph 9.

[<sup>F11</sup>(4) An eligible distance learning student does not qualify for support under this regulation unless the Department considers that the student is undertaking the designated distance learning course in Northern Ireland on the first day of the first academic year. ]

[<sup>F12</sup>(4A) A student undertaking a designated distance learning course will no longer qualify for support in respect of that course if, after the first day of the first academic year, the Department considers that the student is undertaking the course outside the United Kingdom.]

[<sup>F13</sup>(4B) Paragraphs (4) and (4A) do not apply to a person who is treated as being ordinarily resident in the United Kingdom by virtue of paragraph 1(4) of Schedule 2 on the basis of temporary employment falling within paragraph 1(5)(a) of that Schedule.]

(5) An eligible distance learning student does not qualify for support [<sup>F14</sup>under paragraphs (1) (a) or (b)] if the student has undertaken one or more distance learning courses for eight academic years in aggregate and the student has received in respect of each of those academic years a loan or a grant of the kind described in paragraph (6).

(6) The loans and grants are—

- (a) a loan, a grant in respect of fees or a grant for books, travel and other expenditure each made in respect of an academic year of a distance learning course pursuant to regulations made under Article 3 of the Order;
- (b) a loan, a grant in respect of fees or a grant for books, travel and other expenditure each made in respect of an academic year of a distance learning course pursuant to regulations made under section 22 of the 1998 Act<sup>(3)</sup>; or
- (c) a loan in respect of an academic year of a distance learning course made pursuant to regulations made under sections 73(f), 73B and 74(1) of the Education (Scotland) Act 1980<sup>(4)</sup>.

[<sup>F15</sup>(6A) An eligible distance learning student does not qualify for a distance learning fee loan under paragraph (1)(aa) if—

- (a) the student has undertaken one or more distance learning courses for sixteen years in aggregate; and
- (b) the student received in respect of each of those academic years a loan or a grant of the kind described in paragraph (6).]

(7) Subject to paragraphs (8) and (9), an eligible distance learning student does not qualify for support under this regulation if—

- (a) the current distance learning course leads to an equivalent or lower qualification, where the student begins the course on or after 1st September 2009; or
- (b) the student has an honours degree from an educational institution in the United Kingdom or from a relevant institution of higher education in the Republic of Ireland for which he

[<sup>F19</sup>Amount of the distance learning fee loan under regulation 109(1)(aa)]

110A.—(1) The maximum amount of distance learning fee loan in respect of an academic year of a designated distance learning course must not exceed the lesser of—

- (a) £3,022.50; and
- (b) the fees payable by the student in connection with that year.

(2) Subject to paragraphs (3) and (6), the distance learning fee loan to which an eligible distance learning student is entitled is calculated as follows—

DFC—DFG

where

DFC is the amount determined in accordance with paragraph (1);

DFG is the grant paid under regulation 109(1)(a), if any.

(3) If a student's status as an eligible distance learning student is transferred from one designated distance learning course to another under this Part and the circumstances in paragraph (4) apply, the student may apply to the Department to borrow an additional amount by way of distance learning fee loan in respect of the academic year of the course to which that student transfers.

- (4) The circumstances are—

- (a) the fees payable in respect of the academic year of the course to which the eligible distance learning student transfers exceed the fees payable in respect of the academic year of the course from which the student is transferring; and
- (b) the academic year of the course to which the eligible distance learning student transfers does not begin on a later date than the academic year of the course from which the student is transferring.

(5) Where the circumstances in paragraph (4) apply, the maximum additional amount that the eligible distance learning student may borrow in respect of the academic year to which that student transfers, provided that the student qualifies for a distance learning fee loan in respect of that year, is determined by deducting the amount of any distance learning fee loan the student has taken out under this Part in respect of the academic year from which the student is transferring from the lesser of—

- (a) the amount specified in paragraph (1)(a); and
- (b) the fees payable by the student in respect of the academic year to which the student is transferring, minus any grant paid under regulation 109(1)(a) in respect of the academic year from which the student is transferring.

(6) If a student's status as an eligible distance learning student is transferred from one designated distance learning course to another under this Part and the circumstances in paragraph (7) apply, the student may apply to the Department for a distance learning fee loan in respect of the academic year of the course to which the student transfers.

(7) The circumstances are that the academic year of the course to which the student transfers begins on a later date than the academic year of the course from which that student is transferring.

(8) Where the circumstances in paragraph (7) apply, the maximum amount of distance learning fee loan that the eligible student may borrow in respect of the academic year to which that student transfers, provided that the student qualifies for a distance learning fee loan in respect of that year, is the lesser of—

- (a) the amount specified in paragraph (1)(a); and
- (b) the fees payable by the student in connection with that year;

minus any grant paid under regulation 109(1)(a) in connection with that year.

(9) Where an eligible distance learning student has applied for a distance learning fee loan of less than the maximum amount available in relation to an academic year, that student may apply to borrow an additional amount which when added to the amount already applied for does not exceed the maximum amount calculated in accordance with paragraph (2) or determined in accordance with paragraphs (5) or (8), whichever is applicable.]

Interpretation of regulation 110

111.—(1) For the purposes of regulation 110—

- (a) subject to sub-paragraph (b), “partner” means any of the following—
  - (i) the spouse of an eligible distance learning student;
  - (ii) the civil partner of an eligible distance learning student;

Status: Point in time view as at 27/09/2017.

Changes to legislation: There are outstanding changes not yet made by the legislation.gov.uk editorial team to The Education (Student Support) (No. 2) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 2009. Any changes that have already been made by the team appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (iii) a person ordinarily living with an eligible distance learning student as if that person were the student's spouse where an eligible distance learning student is aged 25 or over on the first day of the academic year in respect of which that student is being assessed for support and where that student began the specified designated distance learning course before 1st September 2005;
  - (iv) a person ordinarily living with an eligible distance learning student as if that person were the student's spouse or civil partner where an eligible distance learning student begins the specified designated distance learning course on or after 1st September 2005;
- (b) a person who would otherwise be a partner under sub-paragraph (a) is not to be treated as a partner if—
- (i) in the opinion of the Department, that person and the eligible distance learning student are separated; or
  - (ii) the person is ordinarily living outside the United Kingdom and is not maintained by the eligible distance learning student;
- (c) “relevant income” has the meaning given in paragraph (2).
- (2) Subject to paragraph (3), an eligible distance learning student's relevant income is equal to the student's financial resources in the preceding financial year less—
- (i) £2,000 in respect of the student's partner;
  - (ii) £2,000 in respect of the only or eldest child who is dependent on the student or the student's partner; and
  - (iii) £1,000 in respect of each other child who is dependent on the student or the student's partner.
- (3) Where the Department is satisfied that an eligible distance learning student's financial resources in the preceding financial year are greater than the student's financial resources in the current financial year and that the difference between the two amounts is £1,000 or more, the Department may assess that student's financial resources by reference to those resources in the current financial year.
- (4) In this regulation—
- (a) “child” in relation to an eligible distance learning student includes any child of the student's partner and any child for whom the student has parental responsibility;
  - (b) “current financial year” means the financial year which includes the first day of the academic year in respect of which a person is being assessed for support;
  - (c) “dependent” means wholly or mainly financially dependent;
  - (d) “financial year” means the period of twelve months for which the income of the eligible distance learning student is computed for the purposes of the income tax legislation which applies to it;
  - (e) “financial resources in a financial year” means the aggregate of the student's income for that year together with the aggregate of the income for that year of any person who at the date of the application for support is the student's partner.
  - (f) “income” means gross income from all sources excluding any tax credits awarded pursuant to any claims under section 3 of the Tax Credits Act 2002<sup>(9)</sup>;
  - (g) “preceding financial year” means the financial year immediately preceding the current financial year;

Changes to legislation: There are outstanding changes not yet made by the legislation.gov.uk editorial team to The Education (Student Support) (No. 2) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 2009. Any changes that have already been made by the team appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (h) “specified designated distance learning course” means the course in respect of which the person is applying for support or, where the student’s status as an eligible distance learning student has been transferred to the current designated distance learning course as a result of one or more transfers of that status by the Department from a distance learning course (the “initial course”) in connection with which the Department determined the student to be an eligible distance learning student pursuant to regulations made under Article 3 of the Order, the specified designated distance learning course means the initial course.

Disabled distance learning students’ allowance

112.—(1) An eligible distance learning student qualifies in accordance with this Part for a grant to assist with the additional expenditure which the Department is satisfied the student is obliged to incur by reason of a disability to which the student is subject in respect of undertaking a designated distance learning course.

(2) An eligible distance learning student does not qualify for the grant under this regulation if the only paragraph in Part 2 of Schedule 2 into which the student falls is paragraph 9.

(4) An eligible distance learning student does not qualify for the grant under this regulation unless the Department considers that the student is undertaking the designated distance learning course in Northern Ireland [<sup>F21</sup>on the first day of the first academic year] .

[<sup>F22</sup>(4A) A student qualifying for a grant under this regulation will no longer qualify for the grant if the Department considers that the student is undertaking the course outside the United Kingdom.]

[<sup>F23</sup>(4B) Paragraphs (4) and (4A) do not apply to a person who is treated as being ordinarily resident in the United Kingdom by virtue of paragraph 1(4) of Schedule 2 on the basis of temporary employment falling within paragraph 1(5)(a) of that Schedule.]

(5) Subject to the following paragraphs, the amount of grant under this regulation is the amount that the Department considers appropriate in accordance with the student’s circumstances.

(6) The amount of the grant under this regulation must not exceed—

- (a) £20,938 in respect of an academic year for expenditure on a non-medical personal helper;
- (b) £5,266 in respect of all the academic years during the period of eligibility for expenditure on major items of specialist equipment;
- (c) the additional expenditure incurred—
  - (i) within the United Kingdom for the purpose of attending the institution;
  - (ii) within or outside the United Kingdom for the purpose of attending, as a part of the course, any period of study at an overseas institution or for the purpose of attending the Institute;
- (d) £1,759 in respect of an academic year for any other expenditure including expenditure incurred for the purposes referred to in sub-paragraph (a) or (b) which exceeds the specified maxima.

[<sup>F24</sup>(7) Subject to paragraph (8), the grant under this regulation is payable in respect of the four quarters of the academic year, except where it is used for expenditure on major items of specialist equipment.

Applications for support

113.—(1) A person (the “applicant”) must apply for support in connection with each academic year of a designated distance learning course by completing and submitting to the Department an application in such form as the Department may require.

(2) The application must be accompanied by—

- (a) a declaration under regulation 114 completed by the academic authority; and
- (b) such additional documentation as the Department may require.

(3) The Department may take such steps and make such inquiries as the Department considers necessary to determine whether the applicant is an eligible distance learning student, whether the applicant qualifies for support and the amount of support payable, if any.

(4) The Department must notify the applicant of whether the applicant qualifies for support and, if the applicant does qualify, the amount of support payable in respect of the academic year, if any.

(5) The general rule is that the application must reach the Department within a period of [<sup>F25</sup>nine] months beginning with the first day of the academic year of the course in respect of which it is submitted.

(6) The general rule does not apply where—

- (a) one of the events listed in paragraph (4) of regulation 106 occurs after the first day of the academic year in respect of which the applicant is applying for support, in which case the application must reach the Department not later than the end of the [<sup>F26</sup>ninth] month beginning with the day on which the relevant event occurred;

[<sup>F27</sup>(aa) the applicant is applying for an additional amount of the distance learning fee loan under regulation 110A(3) or (9), in which case the application must reach the Department not later than one month before the end of the academic year to which the application relates;]

(2) The grounds for transfer are—

- (a) the eligible distance learning student starts to undertake another designated distance learning course at the institution;
- (b) the eligible distance learning student starts to undertake a designated distance learning course at another institution; or
- (c) after commencing a designated distance learning course for a first degree (other than an honours degree) the eligible distance learning student is, before the completion of that course, admitted to a designated distance learning course for an honours degree in the same subject or subjects at the institution.

(3) Subject to paragraph (4), an eligible distance learning student who transfers under paragraph (1) is entitled to receive in connection with the academic year of the course to which the student transfers the remainder of the support for which the Department has determined the student qualifies in respect of the academic year of the course from which the student transfers.

(4) The Department may re-assess the amount of support payable after the transfer.

(5) An eligible student who transfers under paragraph (1) after the Department has determined the student's support in connection with the academic year of the course from which the student

Conversion of status – eligible students transferring to designated distance learning courses

117.—(1) Where an eligible student ceases to undertake a designated course and transfers to a designated distance learning course at the same or at another institution, the Department must convert the student's status as an eligible student to that of an eligible distance learning student in connection with the course to which [<sup>F35</sup>the] eligible student is transferring where—

- (a) the Department receives a request from the eligible student to do so; and
  - (b) the period of eligibility has not terminated.
- (2) The following applies to a student who transfers under paragraph (1)—
- (a) where the Department has determined to pay an amount of disabled students' allowance to the student under Chapter 3 of Part 5 in periodic instalments, no payment in respect of that amount of grant must be made in respect of any instalment period beginning after the date on which the student becomes an eligible distance learning student;
  - (b) the maximum amount of disabled distance learning students' allowance to which the student would, apart from this regulation, be entitled in connection with undertaking a designated distance learning course in respect of that academic year is reduced by one third where the student became an eligible distance learning student in the second quarter of the academic year and by two thirds where the student became such a student in a later quarter of that year;
  - (c) where an amount of disabled students' allowance for any purpose has been paid to the student under Chapter 3 of Part 5 in a single instalment, the maximum amount of disabled distance learning students' allowance payable for that purpose is reduced (or, where subparagraph (b) applies, further reduced) by the amount of grant paid to the student for that purpose pursuant to Chapter 3 of Part 5, and where the resulting amount is nil or a negative amount that amount is nil; and

118A.—(1) The Department may make it a condition of entitlement to payment of the distance learning fee loan or any instalment of the distance learning fee loan that the eligible distance learning student must provide the Department with the student's United Kingdom national insurance number.

(2) Where the Department has imposed a condition under paragraph (1), the Department must not make any payment of the distance learning fee loan or any instalment of the distance learning fee loan to the eligible distance learning student before the Department is satisfied that the student has complied with that condition.

(3) Despite paragraph (2), the Department may make a payment of distance learning fee loan to an eligible distance learning student if the Department is satisfied that owing to exceptional circumstances it would be appropriate to make such a payment without the eligible distance learning student having complied with the condition imposed under paragraph (1).]

Payment of grants for fees

119.—(1) Subject to paragraphs (2) and (3), the Department must pay the grant in respect of fees for which the student qualifies to the appropriate academic authority after a valid request for payment has been received.

(2) The Department may make payments under paragraph (1) at such times and in such instalments as the Department sees fit.

(3) The Department may make provisional payments under paragraph (1) in such cases as the Department deems appropriate.

(3) The Department must not pay the distance learning fee loan or first instalment of the distance learning fee loan before the Department has received from the academic authority—

- (a) a request for payment; and
- (b) confirmation (in such form and at such times as may be required by the Department) of the student's undertaking the designated distance learning course for the period to which the instalment relates.

(4) The academic authority must inform the Department when a student ceases to undertake the designated distance learning course during the academic year.

(5) No payment of distance learning fee loan or instalment of distance learning fee loan can be made in respect of a designated distance learning course once the academic authority has informed the Department that the student has ceased to undertake the course during the academic year.

(6) In this regulation, "confirmation of the student's undertaking" means confirmation from the academic authority that the student—

- (a) has enrolled for the academic year and has begun to undertake the course for that academic year, where the confirmation relates to payment of the distance learning fee loan or the first instalment of the distance learning fee loan for the academic year; or
- (b) remains enrolled and continues to undertake the course, where the confirmation relates to payment of an instalment of the distance learning fee loan other than the first instalment.]

Payment of grants for books, travel and other expenditure and disabled distance learning students' allowance

120.—(1) Payments of the grant for books, travel and other expenditure and the disabled distance learning students' allowance may be made in such manner as the Department considers appropriate and the Department may make it a condition of entitlement to payment that the eligible distance learning student must provide the Department with particulars of a bank or building society account in the United Kingdom into which payments may be made by electronic transfer.

(2) Where the Department cannot make a final assessment on the basis of the information provided by the student, the Department may make a provisional assessment and payment of the grant for books, travel and other expenditure and the disabled distance learning students' allowance.

(3) The Department may pay the grant for books, travel and other expenditure and the disabled distance learning students' allowance in instalments.

(4) Subject to paragraph (5), the Department may pay the grant for books, travel and other expenditure and the disabled distance learning students' allowance at such times as the Department considers appropriate.

(5) The Department must not pay the first instalment or, where it has been determined not to pay support in instalments, make any payment of the grant for books, travel and other expenditure or the disabled distance learning students' allowance before the Department has received a declaration under regulation 114 unless an exception applies.

- (6) An exception applies if—
  - (a) a disabled distance learning students' allowance is payable in which case that particular grant may be paid before the Department has received a declaration;

- (b) the Department has determined that owing to exceptional circumstances it would be appropriate to make a payment without receiving a declaration.

121.—[<sup>F41</sup>(1) Any overpayment of a grant in respect of fees is recoverable by the Department from—

- (a) the academic authority; or
(b) the student in respect of whom the payment of a grant in respect of fees was made.]

(2) [<sup>F42</sup>A] distance learning student must, if so required by the Department, repay any amount paid to the student [<sup>F43</sup>, or in respect of the student,] under this Part which for whatever reason exceeds the amount of grant to which the student is entitled under this Part.

(3) The Department must recover an overpayment of grant for books, travel and other expenditure and disabled distance learning students' allowance unless the Department considers that it is not appropriate to do so.

(4) The methods of recovery are—

- (a) subtracting the overpayment from any kind of grant [<sup>F44</sup>or loan] payable to the student [<sup>F45</sup>, or in respect of the student,] from time to time pursuant to regulations made by the Department under Article 3 of the Order;
(b) taking such other action for the recovery of an overpayment as is available to the Department.

(5) A payment of the disabled distance learning students' allowance made before the relevant date is an overpayment if the student withdraws from the course before the relevant date unless the Department decides otherwise.

(6) In this regulation, the "relevant date" is the date on which the first term of the academic year in question actually begins.

(7) In the circumstances set out in paragraph (8) or (9), there is an overpayment of the disabled distance learning students' allowance unless the Department decides otherwise.

(8) The circumstances are—

- (a) the Department applies all or part of the disabled distance learning students' allowance to the purchase of specialist equipment on behalf of the <sup>F46</sup>... distance learning student;
(b) the student's period of eligibility terminates after the relevant date; and
(c) the equipment has not been delivered to the student before the period of eligibility terminated.

(9) The circumstances are—

- (a) the <sup>F47</sup>... distance learning student's period of eligibility terminates after the relevant date; and
(b) a payment of the disabled distance learning students' allowance in respect of specialist equipment is made to the student after the period of eligibility terminated.
