

---

STATUTORY RULES OF NORTHERN IRELAND

---

2012 No. 192

The Building Regulations (Northern Ireland) 2012

PART L

Combustion appliances and fuel storage systems

Provision of information

74. Where a hearth, fireplace, flue or chimney is provided or extended, a durable notice containing information on its performance capabilities shall be affixed to a suitable place in the building for the purpose of enabling a compatible combustion appliance to be safely connected to that hearth, fireplace, flue or chimney.

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the The Building Regulations (Northern Ireland) 2012, Section 74.