Costs in Aarhus Convention cases

3. (1) These Regulations shall not apply where the applicant—

- (a) has not stated in the application that it is an Aarhus Convention case; or
- (b) has stated in the application that the applicant does not wish these Regulations to apply.

[F5(2) Subject to paragraphs (3) and (7), in an Aarhus Convention case, the court shall order that any costs recoverable from an applicant shall not exceed £5,000 where the applicant is an individual and £10,000 where the applicant is a legal person or an individual applying in the name of a legal entity or unincorporated association.

(3) The court may decrease the amount specified in paragraph (2) if it is satisfied that not doing so would make the costs of the proceedings prohibitively expensive for the applicant.

(4) Subject to paragraph (5) and regulation 4(3), in an Aarhus Convention case, the court shall order that the costs recoverable from a respondent shall not exceed £35,000.

(5) The court may increase the amount specified in paragraph (4) if it is satisfied that not doing so would make the costs of the proceedings prohibitively expensive for the applicant.

(6) The court may exercise its powers under paragraphs (3) and (5) on an application brought by an applicant.

(7) Where the applicant is or was represented by a legal representative and this representation is or was provided free of charge, in whole or in part, even if the applicant is or was also represented by a legal representative not acting free of charge, the court shall order the respondent to make a payment in respect of such part of the recoverable costs as it considers just to the Law Society of Northern Ireland, the Bar of Northern Ireland or both, as the court considers appropriate, to support the provision of free legal services.

(8) The amount payable under paragraph (7) shall not exceed the amount which an applicant would have recovered under paragraph (4) or an order made under paragraph (5) had the representation of the applicant not been provided free of charge.

(9) Where the court makes an order under paragraph (7) the applicant shall send a copy of the order to the Law Society of Northern Ireland and, or the Bar of Northern Ireland as is appropriate within 7 days of receipt of the order.

(10) The amounts specified in paragraphs (2) and (4) do not include value added tax.]

Textual Amendments

F5 Reg. 3(2)-(10) substituted for reg. 3(2)-(9) (14.2.2017) by The Costs Protection \(Aarhus Convention\) \(Amendment\) Regulations \(Northern Ireland\) 2017 \(S.R. 2017/27\), regs. 1, 3(3)

3A.—(1) Upon any appeal of a decision in an Aarhus Convention case, the court shall, subject to paragraph (2), order that the costs in respect of the appeal recoverable from an applicant or a respondent shall not exceed the amounts specified in regulation 3(2) and (4).

(2) The court shall have the same powers as those of the original court under regulation 3(3), (5) and (7).

(3) Nothing in this regulation shall affect the power of the court to make an order as to the costs of the proceedings in the original court but those costs shall not exceed the amounts specified in regulation 3(2), (4) or in any order of that court made under regulation 3(3) or (5).

(4) In this regulation—

- (a) “applicant” means the applicant in the original court;
- (b) “respondent” means the respondent in the original court; and
- (c) “the court” means the Court of Appeal.]

Textual Amendments

Challenging whether the case is an Aarhus Convention case

4.—(1) If the applicant has stated in the application that it is an Aarhus Convention case, regulation 3 applies unless—

- (a) the respondent has:
  - (i) stated that the case is not an Aarhus Convention case; and

- (ii) set out the respondent's grounds for arguing that the case is not an Aarhus Convention case; and
  - (b) the court is satisfied that the case is not an Aarhus Convention case.
- (2) Where the respondent argues that the case is not an Aarhus Convention case, the court shall determine that issue at the earliest opportunity.
- (3) In any proceedings, including any appeal, in relation to the question whether the case is an Aarhus Convention case—
- (a) if the court is satisfied that the case is not an Aarhus Convention case, it shall normally make no order for costs in relation to those proceedings;
  - (b) if the court is satisfied that the case is an Aarhus Convention case, it shall normally order the respondent to pay the applicant's costs of those proceedings on the indemnity basis, and those costs shall be payable notwithstanding that this would increase the costs payable by the respondent beyond those specified in [<sup>F7</sup>regulation 3(4) or in any order made under regulation 3(5)] .
- (4) An appeal of a decision on whether the case is an Aarhus Convention case shall lie to the Court of Appeal and the notice of appeal shall be served within 21 days from the date the decision was filed.

Textual Amendments

- F7 Words in reg. 4(3)(b) substituted (14.2.2017) by The Costs Protection \(Aarhus Convention\) \(Amendment\) Regulations \(Northern Ireland\) 2017 \(S.R. 2017/27\), regs. 1, 3(5)

Injunctions

- 5. If in an Aarhus Convention case the court is satisfied that an injunction is necessary to prevent significant environmental damage and to preserve the factual basis of the proceedings, the court shall, in considering both whether to require an undertaking by the applicant to pay any damages which the respondent or any other person may sustain as a result and the terms of any such undertaking—
- (a) have particular regard to the need for the terms of the order overall not to be such as would make continuing with the case prohibitively expensive for the applicant; and
  - (b) make such directions as are necessary to ensure that the case is heard at the earliest opportunity.

[<sup>F8</sup>Determination of prohibitive expense

- 6. Proceedings are to be considered prohibitively expensive for the purpose of these Regulations if, having regard to any court fee an applicant is liable to pay, their likely costs either—
- (a) exceed the financial means of the applicant; or
  - (b) are objectively unreasonable having regard to—
    - (i) the situation of the parties;
    - (ii) whether the applicant has a reasonable prospect of success;
    - (iii) the importance of what is at stake for the applicant;
    - (iv) the importance of what is at stake for the environment;
    - (v) the complexity of the relevant law and procedure; and
    - (vi) whether the case is frivolous.]
