EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of these Regulations)

These Regulations amend the date by which a district council must make their district rate for a forthcoming rating year from 15th February to 1st March.

The change is made in order to allow district councils more time to address financial planning considerations arising from the Covid-19 pandemic.

Article 1 provides for citation and commencement.

Article 2 makes an amendment to the Rates Regulations (Northern Ireland) 2007 to amend the date by which a district council must make the district rates from 15th February to 1st March.
