If the application is not dismissed the court shall fix a date for the hearing to be heard, and give notice to the relevant person accordingly.

If such a report is filed, a copy of it shall be sent by the postal administrator to the relevant person, not later than 5 business days before the hearing.

(6) Sealed copies of any order made on the application shall be sent by the court to the relevant person and the postal administrator.

The application shall be supported by written evidence in the form of an affidavit.

(6) The applicant shall give the postal administrator notice of the application at least 3 business days before the hearing.

(7) The court may make any order for disclosure subject to any conditions as to confidentiality, duration, the scope of the order in the event of any change of circumstances, or other matters as it sees just.

(8) If there is a material change in circumstances rendering the limit on disclosure or any part of it unnecessary, the postal administrator shall, forthwith after the change, apply to the court for the order or any part of it to be rescinded.

(9) The postal administrator shall, forthwith after the making of an order under paragraph (8) of this Rule, send to the persons specified in paragraph 50(4) a copy of the statement under paragraph 50 to the extent provided by the order.

(10) The Rules of Court of Judicature do not apply to an application under this Rule.

PART 4

MEETINGS AND REPORTS

CHAPTER 1

Creditors Meetings

Creditors' meetings generally

22.—(1) This Rule applies to creditors' meetings summoned by the postal administrator under paragraph 63 (general power to summon meetings of creditors).

(2) Notice of any meeting referred to in paragraph (1) of this Rule shall be in Form PA9.

(3) In fixing the venue for the meeting, the postal administrator shall have regard to the convenience of creditors and the meeting shall be summoned for commencement between 10.00 and 16.00 hours on a business day, unless the court otherwise directs.

(4) Subject to paragraphs (6) and (7) of this Rule, at least 14 days' notice of the meeting shall be given to all creditors who are known to the postal administrator and had claims against the company at the date when the company entered postal administration unless that creditor has subsequently been paid in full; and the notice shall—

(a) specify the purpose of the meeting;

(b) contain a statement of the effect of Rule 26 (entitlement to vote); and

(c) contain the forms of proxy.

(5) Forthwith, after notice of the meeting has been given, the postal administrator shall have gazetted a notice which, in addition to the standard contents, shall state—

- (a) that a creditors' meeting is to take place;
- (b) the venue fixed for the meeting;
- (c) the purpose of the meeting; and
- (d) a statement of the effect of Rule 26 (entitlement to vote).

(6) If within 30 minutes from the time fixed for commencement of the meeting there is no person present to act as chair, the meeting stands adjourned to the same time and place in the following week or, if that is not a business day, to the business day immediately following.

(7) If within 30 minutes from the time fixed for the commencement of the meeting those persons attending the meeting do not constitute a quorum, the chair may adjourn the meeting to such time and place as the chair may appoint.

(8) Once only in the course of the meeting the chair may, without an adjournment, declare the meeting suspended for any period up to 1 hour.

(9) The chair may, and shall if the meeting so resolves, adjourn the meeting to such time and place as seems to the chair to be appropriate in the circumstances. An adjournment under this paragraph shall not be for a period of more than 14 days, subject to the direction of the court.

(10) If there are subsequently further adjournments, the final adjournment shall not be to a day later than 14 days after the date on which the meeting was originally held.

(11) Where a meeting is adjourned under this Rule, proofs and proxies may be used if lodged at any time up to 12.00 hours on the business day immediately before the adjourned meeting.

(12) Paragraph (3) of this Rule applies with regard to the venue fixed for a meeting adjourned under this Rule.

The chair at meetings

23.—(1) At any meeting of creditors summoned by the postal administrator, either the postal administrator shall be chair, or a person nominated by the postal administrator in writing to act in their place.

(2) A person so nominated shall be either—

- (a) one who is qualified to act as an insolvency practitioner in relation to the company; or
- (b) an employee of the postal administrator or the postal administrator's firm who is experienced in insolvency matters.

(3) Where the chair holds a proxy which includes a requirement to vote for a particular resolution and no other person proposes that resolution—

- (a) the chair shall propose it unless the chair considers that there is good reason for not doing so, and
- (b) if the chair does not propose it, the chair shall forthwith after the meeting notify the principal of the reason why not.

Creditors' meeting for nomination of alternative liquidator

24.—(1) Where under Rules 20(4) or 33(2)(g) the postal administrator has proposed that the company enter creditors' voluntary liquidation once the postal administration has ended, the postal administrator shall, in the circumstances detailed in paragraph (2) of this Rule, call a meeting of creditors for the purpose of nominating a person other than the person named as proposed liquidator in the postal administrator's proposals or revised proposals.

(2) The postal administrator shall call a meeting of creditors where such a meeting is requested by creditors of the company whose debts amount to at least 10 per cent of the total debts of the company.

(3) The request for a creditors' meeting for the purpose set out in paragraph (1) of this Rule shall be in Form PA10. A request for such a meeting shall be made within 8 business days of the date on which the postal administrator's statement of proposals is sent out.

(4) A request under this Rule shall include—

(a) a list of creditors concurring with the request, showing the amounts of the respective debts in the postal administration; and

(b) from each creditor concurring, written confirmation of the creditor's concurrence;

but this paragraph does not apply if the requesting creditor's debt is alone sufficient without the concurrence of other creditors.

(5) A meeting requested under this Rule shall be held within 28 days of the postal administrator's receipt of the notice requesting the meeting.

Notice of meetings by advertisement only

25.—(1) The court may order that notice of any meeting be given by advertisement and not by individual notice to the persons concerned.

(2) In considering whether to act under this Rule, the court shall have regard to the cost of advertisement, the amount of assets available and the extent of the interest of creditors, members or any particular class of either.

Entitlement to vote

26.—(1) Subject as follows, at a meeting of creditors in postal administration proceedings a person is entitled to vote only if—

(a) they have given to the postal administrator, not later than 12.00 hours on the business day before the day fixed for the meeting, details in writing of the debt which they claim to be due to them from the company;

(b) the claim has been duly admitted under Rule 27 or this Rule; and

(c) there has been lodged with the postal administrator any proxy which they intend to be used on their behalf, and details of the debt shall include any calculation for the purposes of Rules 28 to 30.

(2) The chair of the meeting may allow a creditor to vote, notwithstanding that the creditor has failed to comply with paragraph (1)(a) of this Rule, if satisfied that the failure was due to circumstances beyond the creditor's control.

(3) The chair of the meeting may call for any document or other evidence to be produced to them, where the chair thinks it necessary for the purpose of substantiating the whole or any part of the claim.

(4) Votes are calculated according to the amount of a creditor's claim as at the date on which the company entered postal administration, less any payments that have been made to them after that date in respect of their claim and any adjustment by way of set-off in accordance with Rule 55 as if that Rule were applied on the date that the votes are counted.

(5) A creditor shall not vote in respect of a debt for an unliquidated amount, or any debt whose value is not ascertained, except where the chair agrees to put upon the debt an estimated minimum value for the purpose of entitlement to vote and admits the claim for that purpose.

(6) No vote shall be cast by virtue of a claim more than once on any resolution put to the meeting.

Admission and rejection of claims

27.—(1) At any creditors' meeting the chair has power to admit or reject a creditor's claim for the purpose of their entitlement to vote; and the power is exercisable with respect to the whole or any part of the claim.

(2) The chair's decision under this Rule, or in respect of any matter arising under Rule 26, is subject to appeal to the court by any creditor.

(3) If the chair is in doubt whether a claim should be admitted or rejected, the chair shall mark it as objected to and allow the creditor to vote, subject to their vote being subsequently declared invalid if the objection to the claim is sustained.

(4) If on an appeal the chair's decision is reversed or varied, or a creditor's vote is declared invalid, the court may order that another meeting be summoned, or make such other order as it thinks just.

(5) An application to the court by way of appeal under this Rule against a decision of the chair shall be made not later than 21 days after the date of the meeting.

(6) Neither the postal administrator nor any person nominated by the postal administrator to be chair is personally liable for costs incurred by any person in respect of an appeal to the court under this Rule, unless the court makes an order to that effect.

Secured creditors

28. At a meeting of creditors a secured creditor is entitled to vote only in respect of the balance (if any) of their debt after deducting the value of their security as estimated by them.

Holders of negotiable instruments

29. A creditor shall not vote in respect of a debt on, or secured by, a current bill of exchange or promissory note, unless the creditor is willing—

- (a) to treat the liability to them on the bill or note of every person who is liable on it antecedently to the company, and against whom a bankruptcy order has not been made (or, in the case of a company, which has not gone into liquidation), as a security in their hands; and
- (b) to estimate the value of the security and, for the purpose of their entitlement to vote (but not for dividend), to deduct it from their claim.

Hire-purchase, conditional sale and chattel leasing agreements

30.—(1) Subject as follows, an owner of goods under a hire-purchase or chattel leasing agreement, or a seller of goods under a conditional sale agreement, is entitled to vote in respect of the amount of the debt due and payable to them by the company on the date that the company entered postal administration.

(2) In calculating the amount of any debt for this purpose, no account shall be taken of any amount attributable to the exercise of any right under the relevant agreement, so far as the right has become exercisable solely by virtue of the making of a postal administration application or any matter arising as a consequence, or of the company entering postal administration.

Resolutions

31.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2) of this Rule, at a creditors' meeting in postal administration proceedings, a resolution is passed when a majority (in value) of those present and voting, in person or by proxy, have voted in favour of it.

(2) Any resolution is invalid if those voting against it include more than half in value of the creditors to whom notice of the meeting was sent and who are not, to the best of the chair's belief, persons connected with the company.

(3) In the case of a resolution for the nomination of a person to act as liquidator once the postal administration has ended—

- (a) subject to paragraph (4) of this Rule, if on any vote there are two persons put forward by creditors for nomination as liquidator, the person who obtains the most support is nominated as liquidator;
- (b) if there are three or more persons put forward by creditors for nomination as liquidator, and one of them has a clear majority over both or all the others together, that one is nominated as liquidator;
- (c) in any other case, the chair of the meeting shall continue to take votes (disregarding at each vote any person who has withdrawn and, if no person has withdrawn, the person who obtained the least support last time), until a clear majority is obtained for any one person.

(4) The support referred to in paragraph (3)(a) of this Rule shall represent a majority in value of all those present (in person or by proxy) at the meeting and entitled to vote.

(5) Where on such a resolution no person is nominated as liquidator, the person named as proposed liquidator in the postal administrator's proposals or revised proposals shall be the liquidator once the postal administration has ended.

(6) The chair may at any time put to the meeting a resolution for the joint appointment of any two or more persons put forward by creditors for nomination as liquidator.

(7) In this Rule "connected with the company" has the same meaning as "connected with a company" in Article 7 of the 1989 Order.

Minutes

32.—(1) The chair of the meeting shall cause minutes of its proceedings to be kept.

(2) The minutes shall be authenticated by the chair, and be retained by the chair as part of the records of the postal administration.

(3) The minutes shall include—

- (a) a list of the names of creditors who attended (personally or by proxy) and their claims; and
- (b) a record of every resolution passed.

Revision of the postal administrator's proposals

33.—(1) The postal administrator shall, forthwith, under paragraph 55, make a statement setting out the proposed revisions to their proposals which they shall send to all those to whom they are required to send a copy of their revised proposals and to the registrar.

(2) The statement of revised proposals shall include—

- (a) notice that the proceedings are being dealt with in the High Court, and the relevant court reference number;
- (b) the full name, registered address, registered number and any other trading names of the company;
- (c) details relating to their appointment as postal administrator, including the date of appointment and whether the postal administration application was made by the Secretary of State or OFCOM;

- (d) the names of the directors and secretary of the company and details of any shareholdings in the company they may have;
 - (e) a summary of the initial proposals and the reason(s) for proposing a revision;
 - (f) details of the proposed revision including details of the postal administrator's assessment of the likely impact of the proposed revision upon creditors generally or upon each class of creditors (as the case may be);
 - (g) where a proposed revision relates to the ending of the postal administration by a creditors' voluntary liquidation and the nomination of a person to be the proposed liquidator of the company—
 - (i) details of the proposed liquidator,
 - (ii) where applicable, the declaration required by Article 195 of the 1989 Order, and
 - (iii) a statement that the creditors may nominate a different person as liquidator in accordance with paragraph 84(6)(a) and Rule 81(3); and
 - (h) any other information that the postal administrator thinks necessary to enable creditors to decide whether or not to vote for the proposed revisions.
- (3) Subject to paragraph 55(4), within 5 business days of sending out the statement in paragraph (1) of this Rule, the postal administrator shall send a copy of the statement to every member of the company.
- (4) Any notice to be published by the postal administrator acting under paragraph 55(4) shall be advertised in such manner as the postal administrator thinks fit.
- (5) The notice shall be published forthwith after the postal administrator sends the statement to the creditors and in addition to the standard contents shall state—
- (a) that members can write for a copy of the statement of revised proposals for the postal administration; and
 - (b) the address to which to write.

Reports to creditors

- 34.—(1) The postal administrator shall prepare a report (“the progress report”) which includes—
- (a) notice that the proceedings are being dealt with in the High Court, and the relevant court reference number;
 - (b) full details of the company's name, address of registered office and registered number;
 - (c) full details of the postal administrator's name and address, date of appointment and name and address of applicant for the postal administration application, including any changes in the postal administrator, and, in the case of joint postal administrators, their functions as set out in the statement made for the purposes of section 72(5) of the 2011 Act as applied by section 87;
 - (d) details of progress during the period of the report, including a receipts and payments account (as detailed in paragraph (2) of this Rule);
 - (e) details of any assets that remain to be realised; and
 - (f) any other relevant information for the creditors.
- (2) A receipts and payments account shall be in the form of an abstract showing receipts and payments during the period of the report and, where the postal administrator has ceased to act, shall also include a statement as to the amount paid to unsecured creditors by virtue of the application of Article 150A of the 1989 Order.

(3) The progress report shall, except where paragraph (4) of this Rule applies, cover the period of 6 months commencing on the date on which the company entered postal administration and every subsequent period of 6 months.

(4) The period to be covered by a progress report ends on the date when a postal administrator ceases to act, and the period to be covered by each subsequent progress report of a new postal administrator is each successive period of 6 months beginning immediately after that date (subject to the further application of this paragraph when another postal administrator ceases to act).

(5) The postal administrator shall send a copy of the progress report within 1 month of the end of the period covered by the report, to —

- (a) the Secretary of State;
- (b) OFCOM;
- (c) the creditors, and
- (d) the registrar;

(6) The court may, on the postal administrator's application, extend the period of 1 month mentioned in paragraph (5) of this Rule, or make such other order in respect of the content of the report as it thinks just.

(7) If the postal administrator makes default in complying with this Rule, the postal administrator is liable to a fine and, for continued contravention, to a daily default fine.

CHAPTER 2

Company Meetings

Venue and conduct of company meeting

35.—(1) Where the postal administrator summons a meeting of members of the company, the postal administrator shall fix a venue for it having regard to the postal administrator's convenience.

(2) The chair of the meeting shall be the postal administrator or a person nominated by the postal administrator in writing to act in the postal administrator's place.

(3) A person so nominated shall be either—

- (a) one who is qualified to act as an insolvency practitioner in relation to the company; or
- (b) an employee of the postal administrator or the postal administrator's firm who is experienced in insolvency matters.

(4) If within 30 minutes from the time fixed for commencement of the meeting there is no person present to act as chair, the meeting stands adjourned to the same time and place in the following week or, if that is not a business day, to the business day immediately following.

(5) Subject to anything to the contrary in the 1989 Order and the Rules, the meeting shall be summoned and conducted—

- (a) in the case of a company incorporated—
 - (i) in Northern Ireland, or
 - (ii) outside the United Kingdom other than in an EEA state, in accordance with the law of Northern Ireland, including any applicable provision in or made under the Companies Act;

- (b) in the case of a company incorporated in an EEA state, in accordance with the law of that state applicable to meetings of the company.

(6) The chair of the meeting shall cause minutes of its proceedings to be entered in the company's minute book.

PART 5

DISPOSAL OF CHARGED PROPERTY

Authority to dispose of property

36.—(1) The following applies where the postal administrator applies to the court under paragraphs 72 or 73 for authority to dispose of property of the company which is subject to a security (other than a floating charge), or goods in the possession of the company under a hire purchase agreement.

(2) The court shall fix a date for the hearing of the application, and the postal administrator shall as soon as reasonably practicable give notice of the date to the person who is the holder of the security or, as the case may be, the owner under the agreement.

(3) If an order is made under paragraphs 72 or 73 the court shall send two sealed copies to the postal administrator.

(4) The postal administrator shall send one of them to that person who is the holder of the security or owner under the agreement.

(5) The postal administrator shall send a copy of the sealed order to the registrar.

PART 6

EXPENSES OF THE POSTAL ADMINISTRATION

Priority of expenses of postal administration

37.—(1) The expenses of the postal administration are payable in the following order of priority—

- (a) expenses properly incurred by the postal administrator in performing the postal administrator's functions in the administration of the company;
- (b) the cost of any security provided by the postal administrator in accordance with the 1989 Order or the Rules;
- (c) where a postal administration order was made, the costs of the applicant and any person appearing on the hearing of the application;
- (d) any amount payable to a person employed or authorised, under Part 3 of the Rules, to assist in the preparation of a statement of affairs or statement of concurrence;
- (e) any allowance made, by order of the court, towards costs on an application for release from the obligation to submit a statement of affairs or statement of concurrence;
- (f) any necessary disbursements by the postal administrator in the course of the postal administration (but not including any payment of corporation tax in circumstances referred to in sub-paragraph (i) of this Rule);
- (g) the remuneration or emoluments of any person who has been employed by the postal administrator to perform any services for the company, as required or authorised under the 1989 Order or the Rules;
- (h) the remuneration of the postal administrator fixed by the court under Part 8 of the Rules and unpaid pre-postal administration costs approved under Rule 38;
- (i) the amount of any corporation tax on chargeable gains accruing on the realisation of any asset of the company (without regard to whether the realisation is effected by the postal administrator, a secured creditor, or a receiver or manager appointed to deal with a security).

(2) The priorities laid down by paragraph (1) of this Rule are subject to the power of the court to make orders under paragraph (3) of this Rule where the assets are insufficient to satisfy the liabilities.

(3) The court may, in the event of the assets being insufficient to satisfy the liabilities, make an order as to the payment out of the assets of the expenses incurred in the postal administration in such order of priority as the court thinks just.

(4) For the purposes of paragraph 100(3), the former postal administrator's remuneration and expenses shall comprise all those items set out in paragraph (1) of this Rule.

Pre-postal administration costs

38. Where the postal administrator has made a statement of pre-postal administration costs under Rule 20(2)(k), the postal administrator (where the costs consist of fees charged or expenses incurred by the postal administrator) or other insolvency practitioner (where the costs consist of fees charged or expenses incurred by that practitioner) shall, before paying such costs, apply to the court for a determination of whether and to what extent the unpaid pre-postal administration costs are approved for payment.

PART 7

DISTRIBUTION TO CREDITORS

CHAPTER 1

Application of Part and General

Distribution to creditors generally

39.—(1) This Part applies where the postal administrator makes, or proposes to make, a distribution to any class of creditors other than secured creditors. Where the distribution is to a particular class of creditors, references in this Part to creditors shall, in so far as the context requires, be a reference to that class of creditors only.

(2) The postal administrator shall give notice to the creditors of the postal administrator's intention to declare and distribute a dividend in accordance with Rule 65.

(3) Where it is intended that the distribution is to be a sole or final dividend, the postal administrator shall, after the date specified in the notice referred to in paragraph (2) of this Rule—

- (a) defray any items payable in accordance with the provisions of paragraph 100;
- (b) defray any amounts (including any debts or liabilities and the postal administrator's own remuneration and expenses) which would, if the postal administrator were to cease to be the postal administrator of the company, be payable out of the property of which the postal administrator had custody or control in accordance with the provisions of paragraph 100; and
- (c) declare and distribute that dividend without regard to the claim of any person in respect of a debt not already proved.

(4) The court may, on the application of any person, postpone the date specified in the notice.

Debts of insolvent company to rank equally

40. Debts other than preferential debts rank equally between themselves in the postal administration and, after the preferential debts, shall be paid in full unless the assets are insufficient for meeting them, in which case they abate in equal proportions between themselves.

Supplementary provisions as to dividend

41.—(1) In the calculation and distribution of a dividend the postal administrator shall make provision for—

- (a) any debts which appear to the postal administrator to be due to persons who, by reason of the distance of their place of residence, may not have had sufficient time to tender and establish their proofs;
- (b) any debts which are the subject of claims which have not yet been determined; and
- (c) disputed proofs and claims.

(2) A creditor who has not proved their debt before the declaration of any dividend is not entitled to disturb, by reason that they have not participated in it, the distribution of that dividend or any other dividend declared before their debt was proved, but—

- (a) when they have proved that debt they are entitled to be paid, out of any money for the time being available for the payment of any further dividend, any dividend or dividends which they have failed to receive; and
- (b) any dividends payable under sub-paragraph (a) of this paragraph shall be paid before the money is applied to the payment of any such further dividend.

(3) No action lies against the postal administrator for a dividend; but if the postal administrator refuses to pay a dividend the court may, if it thinks just, order the postal administrator to pay it and also to pay, out of the postal administrator's own money—

- (a) interest on the dividend, at the rate applicable to a money judgment of the High Court, from the time when it was withheld; and
- (b) the costs of the proceedings in which the order to pay is made.

Division of unsold assets

42.—(1) The postal administrator may, with the permission of the creditors, divide in its existing form amongst the company's creditors, according to its estimated value, any property which from its peculiar nature or other special circumstances cannot be readily or advantageously sold.

(2) The postal administrator shall—

- (a) in the receipts and payments account included in the final progress report under Part 9 of the Rules, state the estimated value of the property divided amongst the creditors of the company during the period to which the report relates, and
- (b) as a note to the account, provide details of the basis of the valuation.

CHAPTER 2

Machinery of Proving a Debt

Proving a debt

43.—(1) A person claiming to be a creditor of the company and wishing to recover their debt in whole or in part shall (subject to any order of the court to the contrary) submit their claim in writing to the postal administrator.

(2) A creditor who claims is referred to as “proving” for their debt and a document by which they seek to establish their claim is their “proof”.

(3) Subject to the next paragraph, a proof shall—

(a) be made out by, or under the direction of, the creditor and authenticated by them or a person authorised in that behalf; and

(b) state the following matters—

(i) the creditor’s name and address;

(ii) if the creditor is a company, its registered number;

(iii) the total amount of the creditor’s claim (including value added tax) as at the date on which the company entered postal administration less any payments made after that date in respect of the claim, any deduction under Rule 54 and any adjustment by way of set-off in accordance with Rule 55;

(iv) whether or not the claim includes outstanding uncapitalised interest;

(v) particulars of how and when the debt was incurred by the company;

(vi) particulars of any security held, the date on which it was given and the value which the creditor puts on it;

(vii) details of any reservation of title in respect of goods to which the debt refers; and

(viii) the name, address and authority of the person authenticating the proof (if other than the creditor themselves).

(4) There shall be specified in the proof details of any documents by reference to which the debt can be substantiated; but (subject as follows) it is not essential that such document be attached to the proof or submitted with it.

(5) The postal administrator may call for any document or other evidence to be produced to the postal administrator, where the postal administrator thinks it necessary for the purpose of substantiating the whole or any part of the claim made in the proof.

Costs of proving

44. Unless the court otherwise orders—

(a) every creditor bears the cost of proving their own debt, including costs incurred in providing documents or evidence under Rule 43(5); and

(b) costs incurred by the postal administrator in estimating the quantum of a debt under Rule 51 are payable out of the assets as an expense of the postal administration.

Postal administrator to allow inspection of proofs

45. The postal administrator shall, so long as proofs lodged with the postal administrator are in the postal administrator’s hands, allow them to be inspected, at all reasonable times on any business day, by any of the following persons—

(a) any creditor who has submitted a proof of debt (unless their proof has been wholly rejected for purposes of dividend or otherwise);

(b) any contributory of the company; and

(c) any person acting on behalf of either of the above.

New postal administrator appointed

46.—(1) If a new postal administrator is appointed in place of another, the former postal administrator shall forthwith transmit to the new postal administrator all proofs which the former postal administrator has received, together with an itemised list of them.

(2) The new postal administrator shall authenticate the list by way of receipt for the proofs, and return it to the new postal administrator's predecessor.

(3) From then on, all proofs of debt shall be sent to and retained by the new postal administrator.

Admission and rejection of proofs for dividend

47.—(1) A proof may be admitted for dividend either for the whole amount claimed by the creditor, or for part of that amount.

(2) If the postal administrator rejects a proof in whole or in part, the postal administrator shall prepare a written statement of their reasons for doing so, and send it forthwith to the creditor.

Appeal against decision on proof

48.—(1) If a creditor is dissatisfied with the postal administrator's decision with respect to their proof (including any decision on the question of preference), the creditor may apply to the court for the decision to be reversed or varied. The application shall be made within 21 days of the creditor receiving the statement sent under Rule 47(2).

(2) A member or any other creditor may, if dissatisfied with the postal administrator's decision admitting or rejecting the whole or any part of a proof, make such an application within 21 days of becoming aware of the postal administrator's decision.

(3) Where application is made to the court under this Rule, the court shall fix a date for the application to be heard, notice of which shall be sent by the applicant to the creditor who lodged the proof in question (if it is not themselves) and the postal administrator.

(4) The postal administrator shall, on receipt of the notice, file with the court the relevant proof, together (if appropriate) with a copy of the statement sent under Rule 47(2).

(5) Where the application is made by a member, the court shall not disallow the proof (in whole or in part) unless the member shows that there is (or would be but for the amount claimed in the proof), or that it is likely that there will be (or would be but for the amount claimed in the proof), a surplus of assets to which the company would be entitled.

(6) After the application has been heard and determined, the proof shall, unless it has been wholly disallowed, be returned by the court to the postal administrator.

(7) The postal administrator is not personally liable for costs incurred by any person in respect of an application under this Rule unless the court otherwise orders.

Withdrawal or variation of proof

49. A creditor's proof may at any time, by agreement between themselves and the postal administrator, be withdrawn or varied as to the amount claimed.

Expunging of proof by the court

50.—(1) The court may expunge a proof or reduce the amount claimed—

(a) on the postal administrator's application, where the postal administrator thinks that the proof has been improperly admitted, or ought to be reduced; or

(b) on the application of a creditor, if the postal administrator declines to interfere in the matter.

(2) Where application is made to the court under this Rule, the court shall fix a date for the application to be heard, notice of which shall be sent by the applicant—

- (a) in the case of an application by the postal administrator, to the creditor who made the proof; and
- (b) in the case of an application by a creditor, to the postal administrator and to the creditor who made the proof (if not themselves).

CHAPTER 3

Quantification of Claims

Estimate of quantum

51.—(1) The postal administrator shall estimate the value of any debt which, by reason of its being subject to any contingency or for any other reason, does not bear a certain value; and the postal administrator may revise any estimate previously made, if the postal administrator thinks fit by reference to any change of circumstances or to information becoming available to the postal administrator. The postal administrator shall inform the creditor as to the postal administrator's estimate and any revision of it.

(2) Where the value of a debt is estimated under this Rule, the amount provable in the postal administration in the case of that debt is that of the estimate for the time being.

Negotiable instruments, etc

52. Unless the postal administrator allows, a proof in respect of money owed on a bill of exchange, promissory note, cheque or other negotiable instrument or security cannot be admitted unless there is produced the instrument or security itself or a copy of it, certified by the creditor or the creditor's authorised representative to be a true copy.

Secured creditors

53.—(1) If a secured creditor realises their security, they may prove for the balance of their debt, after deducting the amount realised.

(2) If a secured creditor voluntarily surrenders their security for the general benefit of creditors, they may prove for their whole debt, as if it were unsecured.

Alternatively the balance (if any) owed to the company shall be paid to the postal administrator as part of the assets except where all or part of the balance results from a contingent or prospective debt owed by the creditor and in such a case the balance (or that part of it which results from the contingent or prospective debt) shall be paid if and when that debt becomes due and payable.
- (9) In this Rule “obligation” means an obligation however arising, whether by virtue of an agreement, rule of law or otherwise.

Debt in foreign currency

56.—(1) For the purpose of proving any debt incurred or payable in a currency other than sterling, the amount of those debts shall be converted into sterling at a single rate for that currency determined by the postal administrator with reference to the exchange rates prevailing on the relevant date.

(2) If the postal administrator receives any objections from the creditors to that rate the postal administrator shall apply to the court to determine the rate in such a way as it sees fit.

(3) In this Rule, and Rule 58, “the relevant date” means the date on which the company entered postal administration.

Payments of a periodical nature

57.—(1) In the case of rent and other payments of a periodical nature, the creditor may prove for any amounts due and unpaid up to the date when the company entered postal administration.

(2) Where at that date any payment was accruing due, the creditor may prove for so much as would have fallen due at that date, if accruing from day to day.

Interest

58.—(1) Where a debt proved in the postal administration bears interest, that interest is provable as part of the debt except in so far as it is payable in respect of any period after the relevant date.

(2) In the following circumstances the creditor’s claim may include interest on the debt for periods before the relevant date, although not previously reserved or agreed.

(3) If the debt is due by virtue of a written instrument and payable at a certain time, interest may be claimed for the period from that time to the relevant date.

(4) If the debt is due otherwise, interest may only be claimed if, before the relevant date, a demand for payment of the debt was made in writing by or on behalf of the creditor, and notice given that interest would be payable from the date of the demand to the date of payment.

(5) Interest under paragraph (4) of this Rule may only be claimed for the period from the date of the demand to the relevant date and for all the purposes of the 1989 Order and the Rules shall be chargeable at a rate not exceeding that mentioned in paragraph (6) of this Rule.

(6) The rate of interest to be claimed under paragraphs (3) and (4) of this Rule is the rate applicable to a money judgment of the High Court, on the relevant date.

(7) Any surplus remaining after payment of the debts proved shall, before being applied for any purpose, be applied in paying interest on those debts in respect of the periods during which they have been outstanding since the relevant date.

60.—(1) A secured creditor may, with the agreement of the postal administrator or the permission of the court, at any time alter the value which they have, in their proof of debt, put upon their security.

(2) However, if a secured creditor has voted in respect of the unsecured balance of their debt, they may re-value their security only with permission of the court.

Surrender for non-disclosure

61.—(1) If a secured creditor omits to disclose their security in their proof of debt, they shall surrender their security for the general benefit of creditors, unless the court, on application by them, relieves them from the effect of this Rule on the ground that the omission was inadvertent or the result of honest mistake.

(2) If the court grants that relief, it may require or allow the creditor's proof of debt to be amended, on such terms as may be just.

Redemption by postal administrator

62.—(1) The postal administrator may at any time give notice to a creditor whose debt is secured that the postal administrator proposes, at the expiration of 28 days from the date of the notice, to redeem the security at the value put upon it in the creditor's proof.

(2) The creditor then has 21 days (or such longer period as the postal administrator may allow) in which, if they so wish, to exercise their right to revalue their security (with the permission of the court, where Rule 60(2) applies). If the creditor re-values their security, the postal administrator may only redeem at the new value.

(3) If the postal administrator redeems the security, the cost of transferring it is payable out of the assets.

(4) A secured creditor may at any time, by a notice in writing, call on the postal administrator to elect whether the postal administrator will or will not exercise the postal administrator's power to redeem the security at the value then placed on it; and the postal administrator then has 3 months in which to exercise the power or determine not to exercise it.

Test of security's value

63.—(1) Subject as follows, if the postal administrator is dissatisfied with the value which a secured creditor puts on their security (whether in their proof or by way of re-valuation under Rule 60) the postal administrator may require any property comprised in the security to be offered for sale.

(2) The terms of sale shall be such as may be agreed, or as the court may direct; and if the sale is by auction, the postal administrator on behalf of the company, and the creditor on his own behalf, may appear and bid.

(3) This Rule does not apply if the security has been re-valued and the revaluation has been approved by the court.

Realisation of security by creditor

64.—(1) If a creditor who has valued their security subsequently realises it (whether or not at the instance of the postal administrator)—

- (a) the net amount realised shall be substituted for the value previously put by the creditor on the security; and
- (b) that amount shall be treated in all respects as an amended valuation made by them.

Notice of proposed distribution

65.—(1) Where a postal administrator is proposing to make a distribution to creditors the postal administrator shall give notice of that fact.

(2) The notice given pursuant to paragraph (1) of this Rule shall—

(5) Where a dividend is to be declared for preferential creditors—

- (a) the notice pursuant to paragraph (1) of this Rule need only to be given to those creditors in whose case the postal administrator has reason to believe that their debts are preferential; and
- (b) the notice pursuant to paragraph (3) of this Rule need only be given if the postal administrator thinks fit.

Admission or rejection of proofs

66.—(1) Unless the postal administrator has already dealt with them, within 5 business days of the last date for proving, the postal administrator shall—

- (a) admit or reject (in whole or in part) proofs submitted to the postal administrator; or
- (b) make such provision in respect of them as the postal administrator thinks fit.

(2) The postal administrator is not obliged to deal with proofs lodged after the last date for proving, but may do so, if the postal administrator thinks fit.

(3) In the declaration of a dividend no payment shall be made more than once by virtue of the same debt.

Postponement or cancellation of dividend

67. If in the period of 2 months referred to in Rule 65(4)(a)—

- (a) the postal administrator has rejected a proof in whole or in part and application is made to the court for that decision to be reversed or varied, or

(b) application is made to the court for the postal administrator's decision on a proof to be reversed or varied, or for a proof to be expunged, or for a reduction of the amount claimed, the postal administrator may postpone or cancel the dividend.

Declaration of dividend

68.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2) of this Rule, within the 2 month period referred to in Rule 65(4) (a) the postal administrator shall proceed to declare the dividend to one or more classes of creditor of which the postal administrator gave notice.

(2) Except with the permission of the court, the postal administrator shall not declare a dividend so long as there is pending any application to the court to reverse or vary a decision of the postal administrator on a proof, or to expunge a proof or to reduce the amount claimed.

(3) If the court gives permission under paragraph (2) of this Rule, the postal administrator shall make such provision in respect of the proof in question as the court directs.

Notice of declaration of a dividend

69.—(1) Where the postal administrator declares a dividend the postal administrator shall give notice of that fact to all creditors who have proved their debts.

(2) Payment of dividend may be made by post, or arrangements may be made with any creditor for it to be paid to them in another way, or held for their collection.

(3) Where a dividend is paid on a bill of exchange or other negotiable instrument, the amount of the dividend shall be endorsed on the instrument, or on a certified copy of it, if required to be produced by the holder for that purpose.

71. If the postal administrator gives notice to creditors that the postal administrator is unable to declare any dividend or (as the case may be) any further dividend, the notice shall contain a statement to the effect either—

- (a) that no funds have been realised; or
- (b) that the funds realised have already been distributed or used or allocated for defraying the expenses of the postal administration.

Proof altered after payment of dividend

72.—(1) If after payment of dividend the amount claimed by a creditor in their proof is increased, the creditor is not entitled to disturb the distribution of the dividend; but they are entitled to be paid, out of any money for the time being available for the payment of any further dividend, any dividend or dividends which they have failed to receive.

(2) Any dividend or dividends payable under paragraph (1) of this Rule shall be paid before the money there referred to is applied to the payment of any such further dividend.

(3) If, after a creditor's proof has been admitted, the proof is withdrawn or expunged, or the amount is reduced, the creditor is liable to repay to the postal administrator any amount overpaid by way of dividend.

Secured creditors

73.—(1) The following applies where a creditor re-values their security at a time when a dividend has been declared.

(2) If the revaluation results in a reduction of their unsecured claim ranking for dividend, the creditor shall forthwith repay to the postal administrator, for the credit of the postal administration, any amount received by them as dividend in excess of that to which they would be entitled having regard to the revaluation of the security.

(3) If the revaluation results in an increase of their unsecured claim, the creditor is entitled to receive from the postal administrator, out of any money for the time being available for the payment of a further dividend, before any such further dividend is paid, any dividend or dividends which they have failed to receive, having regard to the revaluation of the security. However, the creditor is not entitled to disturb any dividend declared (whether or not distributed) before the date of the revaluation.

Disqualification from dividend

(2) For the purpose of dividend (and no other purpose) the amount of the creditor's admitted proof (or, if a distribution has previously been made to them, the amount remaining outstanding in respect of their admitted proof) shall be reduced by applying the following formula—

$$\frac{X}{1.05^n}$$

- (a) “X” is the value of the admitted proof; and
- (b) “n” is the period beginning with the date the company entered postal administration and ending with the date on which the payment of the creditor’s debt would otherwise be due expressed in years and months in a decimalised form.

98.—(1) An application shall be filed with the court, accompanied by one copy and a number of additional copies equal to the number of persons who are to be served with the application.

(2) Where an application is filed with the court in accordance with paragraph (1) of this Rule, the court shall fix a date for the application to be heard unless—

Affidavits—general

102.—(1) Subject to Rule 104, where evidence is required by the 1989 Order or the Rules as to any matter, such evidence may be provided in the form of an affidavit unless—

CHAPTER 5

Costs and Taxation

Application of Chapter 5

112.—(1) This Chapter applies in relation to costs in connection with postal administration proceedings under the Rules.

(2) In this Chapter a reference to costs includes charges and expenses.

(3) Subject to provision to inconsistent effect made in this Chapter, Order 62 of the Rules of the Court of Judicature applies to insolvency proceedings in the High Court with any necessary modifications.

Requirement to tax costs

113.—(1) Where the costs of any person are payable as an expense out of the assets of the company, those costs shall be taxed unless agreed between the postal administrator and the person entitled to payment.

(2) In the absence of such agreement as is mentioned in paragraph (1) of this Rule, the postal administrator may require taxation by notice in writing requiring that person to deliver his bill of costs to the Taxing Master for taxation

(3) Where the costs of any person employed by a postal administrator in postal administration proceedings are required to be taxed or fixed by order of the court, the postal administrator may make payments on account to such person in respect of those costs provided that person undertakes in writing—

- (a) to repay immediately any money which may, on taxation, prove to have been overpaid; and
- (b) to pay interest on any such sum as is mentioned in sub-paragraph (a) with interest on the date payment was made and for the period beginning with the date of payment and ending with the date of repayment.

(4) In any proceedings before the court, the court may order costs to be taxed at the rate applicable to a money judgment of the High Court.

(5) Unless otherwise directed or authorised, the costs are to be allowed on the standard basis specified in Order 62, rule 12 of the Rules of the Court of Judicature.

(2) The certificate shall include—

(3) Every person whose costs in postal administration proceedings are required to be taxed in insolvency proceedings shall, on being required in writing to do so by the postal administrator, deliver his bill of costs proceedings to the Taxing Master for taxation

(4) If that person does not so deliver his bill within 3 months of the requirement under paragraph (3) of this Rule, or within such further time as the court, on application, may permit, the postal administrator may deal with the assets of the company without regard to any claim by that person, whose claim is forfeited.

(5) Where in any such case such a claim lies additionally against a postal administrator in his personal capacity, that claim is also forfeited.

Costs paid otherwise than out of the assets of the company

115. Where a bill of costs is taxed under an order of the court directing that those costs are to be paid otherwise than out of the assets of the company, the Taxing Master shall note on the certificate of taxation, by whom, or the manner in which, the costs are to be paid.

Award of costs against postal administrator

116. Without prejudice to any provision of the 1989 Order or the Rules by virtue of which the postal administrator is not in any event to be liable for costs and expenses, where a postal administrator is made a party to any proceedings on the application of another party to the proceedings, the postal administrator shall not be personally liable for costs unless the court otherwise directs.

Applications for costs

(2) The person concerned shall serve a sealed copy of their application on the postal administrator.

(3) The postal administrator may appear on any such application.

(4) No costs of or incidental to the application shall be allowed to the applicant unless the court is satisfied that the application could not have been made at the time of the proceedings.

119.—(1) A final costs certificate of the Taxing Master is final and conclusive as to all matters which have not been objected to in the manner provided for under the rules of the court.

(2) Where it is proved to the satisfaction of a Taxing Master that a final costs certificate has been lost or destroyed, they may issue a duplicate.

CHAPTER 6

Persons who Lack Capacity to Manage their Affairs

Introductory

120.—(1) The Rules in this Chapter apply where in postal administration proceedings it appears to the court that a person affected by the proceedings is one who is incapable of managing and administering their property and affairs either—

- (a) by reason of mental disorder within the meaning of the Mental Health (Northern Ireland) Order 1986, or
- (b) due to physical affliction or disability.

(2) The person concerned is referred to as “the incapacitated person”.

Appointment of another person to act

121.—(1) The court may appoint such person as it thinks fit to appear for, represent or act for the incapacitated person.

(2) The appointment may be made either generally or for the purpose of any particular application or proceeding, or for the exercise of particular rights or powers which the incapacitated person might have exercised but for their incapacity.

(3) The court may make the appointment either of its own motion or on application by—

- (a) a person who has been appointed by a court in the United Kingdom or elsewhere to manage the affairs of, or to represent, the incapacitated person, or
- (b) any relative or friend of the incapacitated person who appears to the court to be a proper person to make the application, or
- (c) the postal administrator.

(4) Application under paragraph (3) of this Rule may be made without notice to any other party; but the court may require such notice of the application as it thinks necessary to be given to the person alleged to be incapacitated, or any other person, and may adjourn the hearing of the application to enable the notice to be given.

Affidavit in support of application

122. An application under Rule 121(3) shall, subject to paragraph (2), be supported by an affidavit made by a registered medical practitioner as to the mental or physical condition of the incapacitated person.

Service of notices following appointment

123. Any notice served on, or sent to, a person appointed under Rule 121 has the same effect as if it had been served on, or given to, the incapacitated person.

CHAPTER 7

Appeals in Postal Administration Proceedings

Appeals and reviews of postal administration orders

124.—(1) The High Court may review, rescind or vary any order made by it in the exercise of its jurisdiction as regards postal administration proceedings.

(2) Appeals from decisions made in the exercise of that jurisdiction lie as follows—

- (a) to a single judge of the High Court from an order or decision of the Master, without prejudice to the power of the Master to review an order made under Article 371,
- (b) to the Court of Appeal from a decision of a single judge of the High Court.

(3) Order 58, rule 1(2) to (4) of the Rules of the Court of Judicature applies to such an appeal, with the substitution in paragraph (3) of the words “28 days” for the words “5 days” and the words “7 days” for the words “2 clear days”.

(3) The procedure set out in Order 58 of the Rules of the Court of Judicature applies to any appeal to which this Chapter applies.

CHAPTER 8

General

Principal court rules and practice to apply

126. Except so far as is inconsistent with the Rules, the Rules of the Court of Judicature and the practice of the High Court apply to postal administration proceedings with any necessary modifications.

Right of audience

127. Rights of audience in postal administration proceedings are the same as in insolvency proceedings.

Formal defects

128. No postal administration proceedings shall be invalidated by any formal defect or by any irregularity, unless the court before which objection is made considers that substantial injustice has been caused by the defect or irregularity, and that the injustice cannot be remedied by any order of the court.

Service of orders staying proceedings

129. Where in postal administration proceedings the court makes an order staying any action, execution or other legal process against the property of the company, service of the order may be effected by sending a sealed copy of the order to whatever is the address for service of the plaintiff or other party having the carriage of the proceedings to be stayed.

Payment into court

130. Order 22 of the Rules of the Court of Judicature (miscellaneous provisions about payment into court) applies to money lodged in court under the Rules.

Discovery

131.—(1) Any party to postal administration proceedings may apply to the court for an order—

- (a) that any other party
 - (i) clarify any matter which is in dispute in the proceedings, or
 - (ii) give additional information in relation to any such matter, or
- (b) to obtain discovery from any other party, except so far as is otherwise provided by the Rules.

(2) An application under this Rule may be made without notice to any other party..

132.—(1) Any person who has under the Rules the right to inspect the court file of postal administration proceedings may require the court to provide them with an office copy of any document from the file.

(2) A person's rights under this Rule may be exercised on their behalf by their solicitor.

(3) An office copy provided by the court under this Rule shall be in such form as the Master thinks appropriate, and shall bear the court's seal.

PART 12

PROXIES AND COMPANY REPRESENTATION

Definition of “proxy”

133.—(1) For the purposes of the Rules, a proxy is an authority given by a person (“the principal”) to another person (“the proxy-holder”) to attend a meeting and speak and vote as their representative.

(2) Proxies are for use at creditors’ company or contributories meetings summoned or called under the 1989 Order or the Rules.

(3) Only one proxy may be given by a person for any one meeting at which they desire to be represented; and it may only be given to one person, being an individual aged 18 or over. But the principal may specify one or more other such individuals to be proxy-holder in the alternative, in the order in which they are named in the proxy.

(4) Without prejudice to the generality of paragraph (3) of this Rule, a proxy for a particular meeting may be given to whoever is to be the chair of the meeting and for a meeting held as part of the proceedings in a winding up of the court or a bankruptcy it may be given to the official receiver.

(5) A person given a proxy under paragraph (4) of this Rule cannot decline to be the proxy-holder in relation to that proxy.

(6) A proxy requires the holder to give the principal’s vote on matters arising for determination at the meeting, or to abstain, or to propose, in the principal’s name, a resolution to be voted on by the meeting, either as directed or in accordance with the holder’s own discretion.

Issue and use of forms

134.—(1) When notice is given of a meeting to be held in postal administration proceedings, and forms of proxy are sent out with the notice, no form so sent out shall have inserted in it the name or description of any person.

(2) No form of proxy shall be used at any meeting except that which is sent out with the notice summoning the meeting, or a substantially similar form.

(3) A form of proxy shall be authenticated by the principal, or by some person authorised by the principal (either generally or with reference to a particular meeting). If the form is authenticated by a person other than the principal, the nature of the person’s authority shall be stated.

Use of proxies at meetings

135.—(1) A proxy given for a particular meeting may be used at any adjournment of that meeting.

(2) Where the postal administrator holds proxies to be used by the postal administrator as chair of a meeting, and some other person acts as chair, the other person may use the postal administrator’s proxies as if that person were themselves proxy-holder.

(3) Where a proxy directs a proxy-holder to vote for or against a resolution for the appointment of a person other than the postal administrator as proposed liquidator of the company, the proxy-holder may, unless the proxy states otherwise, vote for or against (as the proxy-holder thinks fit) any resolution for the nomination or appointment of that person jointly with another or others.

(4) A proxy-holder may propose any resolution which, if proposed by another, would be a resolution in favour of which by virtue of the proxy they would be entitled to vote.

(5) Where a proxy gives specific directions as to voting, this does not, unless the proxy states otherwise, preclude the proxy-holder from voting at their discretion on resolutions put to the meeting which are not dealt with in the proxy.

Retention of proxies

136.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2) of this Rule, proxies used for voting at any meeting shall be retained by the chair of the meeting.

(2) The chairman shall deliver the proxies, forthwith after the meeting, to the postal administrator (where that is someone other than the chair).

Right of inspection

137.—(1) The postal administrator shall, so long as proxies lodged with the postal administrator are in the postal administrator’s hands, allow them to be inspected, at all reasonable times on any business day, by—

- (a) the creditors, in the case of proxies used at a meeting of creditors, and
- (b) the company’s members, in the case of proxies used at a meeting of the company.

(2) The reference in paragraph (1) of this Rule to creditors is to those persons who have submitted in writing a claim

- (a) to be creditors of the company but does not include a person whose proof or claim has been wholly rejected for purposes of voting, dividend or otherwise.

(3) The right of inspection given by this Rule is also exercisable by the directors of the company;

(4) Any person attending a meeting in postal administration proceedings is entitled, immediately before or in the course of the meeting, to inspect proxies and associated documents (including proofs) sent or given, in accordance with directions contained in any notice convening the meeting, to the chairman of that meeting or to any other person by a creditor, member or contributory for the purpose of that meeting.

(5) This Rule is subject to Rule 184 (confidentiality of documents—grounds for refusing inspection).

Proxy-holder with financial interest

138.—(1) A proxy-holder shall not vote in favour of any resolution which would directly or indirectly place them, or any associate of theirs, in a position to receive any remuneration out of the insolvent estate, unless the proxy specifically directs them to vote in that way.

(2) Where a proxy-holder has authenticated the proxy as being authorised to do so by their principal and the proxy specifically directs the proxy-holder to vote in the way mentioned in paragraph (1) of this Rule, they shall nevertheless not vote in that way unless they produce to the chair of the meeting written authorisation from their principal sufficient to show that the proxy-holder was entitled so to authenticate the proxy.

(3) This Rule applies also to any person acting as chairman of a meeting and using proxies in that capacity under Rule 135; and in its application to them, the proxy-holder is deemed an associate of theirs.

(4) In this Rule “associate” shall have the same meaning as in Article 4(1) of the 1989 Order.

Company representation

139.—(1) Where a person is authorised to represent a corporation at a meeting of creditors or of the company, they shall produce to the chair of the meeting a copy of the resolution from which they derive their authority.

(2) The copy resolution shall be under the seal of the corporation, or certified by the secretary or a director of the corporation to be a true copy.

(3) Nothing in this Rule requires the authority of a person to authenticate a proxy on behalf of a principal which is a corporation to be in the form of a resolution of that corporation.

PART 13

EXAMINATION OF PERSONS IN POSTAL ADMINISTRATION PROCEEDINGS

Preliminary

140.—(1) The Rules in this Part apply to applications to the court, made by the postal administrator, for an order under Article 200 of the 1989 Order (inquiry into company’s dealings),

(2) The following definitions apply—

- (b) “Article 200” means Article 200 of the 1989 Order;

Form and contents of application

141.—(1) The application shall be in writing and specify the grounds on which it is made.

(2) The application shall specify the name of the respondent.

(3) It shall be stated whether the application is for the respondent—

- (a) to be ordered to appear before the court, or
- (b) to be ordered to answer interrogatories (if so, particulars are to be given of the matters in respect of which answers are required), or
- (c) to submit affidavits (if so, particulars to be given of the matters to which he is required to swear), or
- (d) to produce books, papers or other records (if so, the items in question to be specified), or for any two or more of those purposes.

(4) The application may be made without notice to any other party.

142.—(1) The court may, whatever the purpose of the application, make any order which it has power to make under Article 200.

(2) The court, if it orders the respondent to appear before it, shall specify a date for their appearance, which shall be not less than 14 days from the date of the order.

(3) If the respondent is ordered to submit affidavits, the order shall specify—

- (a) the matters which are to be dealt with in their affidavit, and
- (b) the time within which they are to be submitted to the court.

(4) If the order is to produce books, papers or other records, the time and manner of compliance shall be specified.

(5) The order shall be served forthwith on the respondent; and it shall be served personally, unless the court otherwise orders.

Procedure for examination

143.—(1) At any examination of the respondent, the postal administrator may attend in person, or be represented by a solicitor with or without counsel, and may put such questions to the respondent as the court may allow.

(2) Where application has been made under Article 200 on information provided by a creditor of the company, that creditor may, with the permission of the court and if the postal administrator does not object, attend the examination and put questions to the respondent (but only through the postal administrator).

(3) If the respondent is ordered to answer interrogatories, the court shall direct them as to the questions which they are required to answer, and as to whether their answers (if any) are to be made in an affidavit.

(4) The respondent may at their own expense employ a solicitor with or without counsel, who may put to them such questions as the court may allow for the purpose of enabling them to explain or qualify any answers given by them, and may make representations on their behalf.

(5) There shall be made in writing such record of the examination as the court thinks proper. The record shall be read over either to or by the respondent and authenticated by them at a date fixed by the court.

(6) The written record may, in any proceedings (whether under the 1989 Order or otherwise), be used as evidence against the respondent of any statement made by them in the course of their examination.

Record of examination

144.—(1) Unless the court otherwise directs, the written record of the respondent's examination and any answer given by him to interrogatories, and any affidavits submitted by him in compliance with an order of the court under Article 200, shall not be filed with the court.

(2) The documents set out in paragraph (3) of this Rule shall not be open to inspection without an order of the court, by any person other than the postal administrator.

(3) The documents to which paragraph (2) of this Rule applies are—

- (d) any document on the court file as shows the grounds for the application for an order.

(4) The court may from time to time give directions as to the custody and inspection of any documents to which this Rule applies, and as to the furnishing of copies of, or extracts from, such documents.

Costs of proceedings under Article 200

145.—(1) Where the court has ordered an examination of any person under Article 200, and it appears to it that the examination was made necessary because information had been unjustifiably refused by the respondent, it may order that the costs of the examination be paid by the respondent.

(2) Where the court makes an order against a person under section 201(1) or (2) of the 1989 Order (court's enforcement powers under Article 200) the costs of the application for the Order may be ordered by the court to be paid by the respondent.

(3) Subject to paragraphs (1) and (2) of this Rule, the postal administrator's costs shall, unless the court otherwise orders, be paid out of the assets of the company.

(4) A person summoned to attend for examination under this Chapter shall be tendered a reasonable sum in respect of travelling expenses incurred in connection with their attendance. Other costs falling on them are at the court's discretion.

MISCELLANEOUS AND GENERAL

Power of Department to regulate certain matters

146.—(1) Pursuant to paragraph 27 of Schedule 5 to the 1989 Order and paragraph 28 of Schedule 6 to the Order, the Department may, subject to the 1989 Order, the 2011 Act and the Rules, make regulations with respect to any matter provided for in the Rules as relates to the carrying out of the functions of a postal administrator of a company, including, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, provision with respect to the following matters arising in a postal administration—

- (a) the preparation and keeping by a postal administrator of books, accounts and other records, and their production to such persons as may be authorised or required to inspect them;
 - (b) the auditing of a postal administrator's accounts;
 - (c) the manner in which a postal administrator is to act in relation to the company's books, papers and other records, and the manner of their disposal by the postal administrator or others;
 - (d) the supply by the postal administrator to creditors and members of the company of copies of documents relating to the postal administration and the affairs of the company (on payment, in such cases as may be specified by the regulations, of the specified fee);
- (2) Regulations made pursuant to paragraph (1) of this Rule may—
- (a) confer a discretion on the court;
 - (b) make non-compliance with any of the regulations a criminal offence;
 - (c) make different provision for different cases, including different provision for different areas; and
 - (d) contain such incidental, supplemental and transitional provisions as may appear to the Department necessary or expedient.

Costs, expenses, etc

147.—(1) All fees, costs, charges and other expenses incurred in the course of the postal administration are to be regarded as expenses of the postal administration.

- (2) The costs associated with the prescribed part shall be paid out of the prescribed part.

Provable debts

148.—(1) Subject as follows, in postal administration all claims by creditors are provable as debts against the company whether they are present or future, certain or contingent, ascertained or sounding only in damages.

(2) Any obligation arising under a confiscation order made under Parts 2, 3 or 4 of the Proceeds of Crime Act 2002(12) is not provable.

(3) The following are not provable except at a time when all other claims of creditors in the postal administration proceedings (other than any of a kind mentioned in this paragraph) have been paid in full with interest under Rule 58—

- (a) any claim arising by virtue of section 382(1)(a) of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000(13), not being a claim also arising by virtue of section 382(1)(b) of that Act;
- (b) any claim which by virtue of the 1989 Order or any other enactment is a claim the payment of which is to be postponed.

(4) Nothing in this Rule prejudices any enactment or rule of law under which a particular kind of debt is not provable, whether on grounds of public policy or otherwise.

False claim of status as creditor, etc

149.—(1) Where the Rules provide for creditors or members of a company a right to inspect any documents, whether on the court’s file or in the hands of a postal administrator or other person, it is an offence for a person, with the intention of obtaining a sight of documents which the person has not under the Rules any right to inspect, falsely to claim a status which would entitle the person to inspect them.

(2) A person guilty of an offence under this Rule is liable to imprisonment, or a fine, or both.

Punishment of offences

150.—(1) Schedule 2 to the Rules has effect with respect to the way in which contraventions of the Rules are punishable on conviction.

(2) In relation to an offence under a provision of the Rules specified in the first column of the Schedule (the general nature of the offence being described in the second column), the third column shows whether the offence is punishable on conviction on indictment, or on summary conviction, or either in the one way or the other.

(3) The fourth column shows, in relation to an offence, the maximum punishment by way of fine or imprisonment which may be imposed on a person convicted of the offence in the way specified in relation to it in the third column (that is to say, on indictment or summarily), a reference to a period of years or months being to a term of imprisonment of that duration.

(4) The fifth column shows (in relation to an offence for which there is an entry in that column) that a person convicted of the offence after continued contravention is liable to a daily default fine; that is to say, the person is liable on a second or subsequent conviction of the offence to the fine specified in that column for each day on which the contravention is continued (instead of the penalty specified for the offence in the fourth column of the Schedule).

(5) Article 374 of the 1989 Order (summary proceedings) has effect in relation to offences under the Rules as to offences under the 1989 Order.
