(3) S.R. 1996 No. 322 as amended by S.R. 2007 No. 324 and other statutory rules which are not relevant.

“Special measures direction relating to a person who is, or is at risk of, being subjected to abusive behaviour

(a) 7.8B. (1) In this rule—

“the Act of 2021” means the Domestic Abuse and Civil Proceedings Act (Northern Ireland) 2021;

“abusive behaviour” has the same meaning as in section 2 (as read with section 3(2)) and section 4 of the Act of 2021;

“live link” means a live television link or other arrangement whereby a party or witness is able to see and hear all other persons participating in the proceedings who are in a different location, and to be seen and heard by the judge, legal representatives acting in the proceedings and other persons appointed to assist a party or witness;

“parties” includes the guardian ad litem for the purpose of proceedings under the Order of 1995;

“personally connected” has the same meaning as in section 5 of the Act of 2021;

“relative” has the same meaning as in Article 2(2) of the Order of 1998;

(b) A reference in this rule to “quality of evidence” is to its quality in terms of completeness, coherence and accuracy; and for this purpose “coherence” refers to a party’s or a witness’s ability in giving evidence to give answers which address the questions put to the party or the witness and can be understood both individually and collectively.

(2) The court may make a direction that a person (P), who is a party or witness in the proceedings, shall have the assistance of a measure specified in paragraph (4), where it is stated that—

(a) P is, or is at risk of, being subjected to abusive behaviour by a person who is—

(i) a party to the proceedings,

(ii) a relative of a party to the proceedings (other than P), or

(iii) a witness in the proceedings, and

(b) P and that person are personally connected.

(3) When deciding whether to make a direction under paragraph (2) the court shall have regard in particular to—

(a) any views expressed by P;

(b) any views expressed by a party other than P;

(c) the nature and extent of the information before the court;

(d) the issues arising in the proceedings;

(e) whether any of the measures specified in paragraph (4) would, in its opinion, be likely to improve the quality of evidence given by P, or their participation in the proceedings; and

(f) the availability of the measure to the court.

(4) The measures which may be directed by the court under this rule are those which—

(a) prevent P from seeing another party or witness; or

(b) allow P to participate in the proceedings and give evidence by live link.

(5) The court shall consider whether to make a direction under paragraph (2), either—

- (a) on the written request in Form SM of a party, at the commencement of the proceedings or as soon as practicable after, filed and served on the other parties; or
- (b) of its own motion having given the parties notice of its intention to do so and an opportunity to attend and be heard, or to make written representations.

(6) In an urgent case, a request under paragraph 5(a) may, with the leave of the court, be made orally.

(7) Subject to paragraph (6), on receipt of a written request under paragraph 5(a) the proper officer or chief clerk shall fix a date for the hearing of the request and give not less than 2 days' notice to the parties of the date so fixed.

(8) Where every other party has given their consent in writing to the direction which is sought, the court may grant the request without a hearing and the proper officer or chief clerk shall inform the parties of the decision.

(9) The court may vary or revoke a direction made under paragraph (2).

(10) A direction made under paragraph (2) which is still in force immediately prior to the transfer of proceedings to another court shall continue to apply following the transfer subject to any changes of terminology which are required to apply the direction to the court to which the proceedings are transferred, unless varied or discharged.

(11) The court shall take a note of the making, variation or revocation of a direction under this rule and serve, as soon as practicable, a copy of the note on any party who was not present at the making, variation or revocation."
