2023 No. 98

The Agriculture (Student Fees)
Regulations (Northern Ireland) 2023

PART 5

INTENSITY OF STUDY

Intensity of study

13. “Intensity of study” is calculated as follows and expressed as a percentage—

$$\left(\frac{PTC}{FTC}\right) \times 100$$

Where—

PTC is the total number of credit points, discounting any credit points transferred under the accreditation of prior learning scheme, to be awarded to the student if the student successfully completes the academic year in connection with the higher education course on which they are enrolled.

FTC is the total number of credit points that a student would be required to obtain in each academic year in order to complete the full-time equivalent within the period ordinarily required to complete the higher education course.
