The National Health Insurance Joint Committee and the Ministry of Labour for Northern Ireland, acting jointly or severally as they may be empowered, and in conjunction with the Ministry of Finance, so far as regards Regulations which are required to be so made, in exercise of the powers conferred on them by sub-section (3) of Section 1, and sub-section (5) of Section 7 of the National Health Insurance Act, 1924, sub-sections (2) and (4) of Section 13, sub-section (5) of Section 14, sub-section (5) of Section 15 and sub-section (1) of Section 30 of the Widows', Orphans' and Old Age Contributory Pensions Act (Northern Ireland), 1925, and sub-section (1) of Section 9 and Section 21 of the Widows', Orphans' and Old Age Contributory Pensions Act (Northern Ireland), 1929, and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf, hereby make the following Regulations:—

1. These Regulations may be cited as the National Health Insurance and Contributory Pensions (Voluntary Contributors) Regulations (Northern Ireland), 1932, and shall be deemed to have come into operation on the 2nd day of September, 1931.

Short title.

2.—(1) In these Regulations unless the context otherwise requires:—

Interpretation.

“ The Insurance Act ” means the National Health Insurance Act, 1924, (a) as amended by any subsequent enactment ;

“ The Pensions Act ” means the Widows', Orphans' and Old Age Contributory Pensions Act (Northern Ireland), 1925(b) ;

“ The Pensions Act of 1929 ” means the Widows', Orphans' and Old Age Contributory Pensions Act (Northern Ireland), 1929(c) ;

“ The Ministry ” means the Ministry of Labour for Northern Ireland ;

“ Society ” means any Society approved for the purposes of the Insurance Act, and includes any branch thereof which is a branch for the purposes of that Act ;

“ The Arrears Regulations ” means the Regulations cited as the National Health Insurance (Arrears) Regulations,

(a) 14-5 Geo. 5. c. 38.

(b) 15-6 Geo. 5. c. 23 (N.I.).

(c) 20 Geo. 5. c. 17 (N.I.).

1930, (a) or any Regulations amending or superseding those Regulations, and a reference to any provision of those Regulations shall be deemed to include a reference to the corresponding provision of any Regulations superseding or amending that provision ;

The expression "Period of grace" has, in the case of a member of a Society, the same meaning as it has in the Arrears Regulations, and in the case of a deposit contributor shall apply as if he were a member of a Society ;

"Contribution half-year" means any period in respect of which contribution cards may be issued under any Regulations relating to the collection of contributions made under the Insurance Act and the Pensions Act, and for the time being in force.

(2) The Interpretation Act, 1921, (b) applies to the interpretation of these Regulations as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

Time for giving notice of desire to become a voluntary contributor under s. 1 (3) (a) of the Insurance Act.

3. The time within which a person who, having been employed within the meaning of the Insurance Act and insured as an employed contributor for a period whether continuous or not of one hundred and four weeks or upwards, has ceased to be so employed, may give notice under paragraph (a) of sub-section (3) of Section 1 of the Insurance Act that he desires to become a voluntary contributor, shall be the period during which he remains insured under the Insurance Act or such longer period as the Ministry, having regard to the circumstances of the particular case, may allow.

Time for giving notice under section 13 (4) of the Pensions Act.

4. The time within which, under sub-section (4) of Section 13 of the Pensions Act, an uninsured man, having married an insured woman by or in respect of whom one hundred and four contributions have been paid under the said Act, may give notice that he desires to become a voluntary contributor, shall be the period of twelve months after the date of his marriage to the woman aforesaid or the period not exceeding five years from the date of the marriage during which she remains insured, whichever period is the longer.

Time for giving notice under section 14 (5) of the Pensions Act.

5. The time within which, under sub-section (5) of Section 14 of the Pensions Act, an exempt person, being a man in respect of whom not less than 104 contributions have been paid and who ceases to be employed in an employment within the meaning of the Insurance Act, may give notice that he desires to become a voluntary contributor, shall be the period during which he is deemed to continue to be insured for the purposes of the Pensions Act.

6. The conditions subject to which, under sub-section (5) of Section 15 of the Pensions Act, and sub-section (1) of Section 9 of the Pensions Act of 1929, a person who has been employed in an excepted employment to which Section 15 of the Pensions Act applies (not being a married woman or a person in respect of whom no contributions under the Pensions Act have been payable whilst he was so employed) and who ceases to be so employed, or for whom contributions cease to be payable or become payable at the reduced rates mentioned in Part IV. of the First Schedule to the Pensions Act instead of at the ordinary rates, may become a voluntary contributor, shall be :—

Conditions for becoming a voluntary contributor under sections 15 (5) of the Pensions Act and 9 (1) of the Pensions Act of 1929.

- (i) that since the date of his last entry into insurance for the purposes of the Pensions Act he has for a period of not less than 104 weeks been employed in such an excepted employment or employed within the meaning of the Insurance Act, and not less than 104 contributions under the Pensions Act have been paid or would, had that Act been then in force, have been payable in respect of the employment ; and
- (ii) that he gives notice within the period during which he is deemed to continue to be insured for the purposes of the Pensions Act, or in the case of a person for whom contributions become payable at the reduced rates above referred to, for the purposes of the said Act relating to Old Age Pensions.

For the purposes of condition (i)—

- (a) no account shall be taken of any period of employment within the meaning of the Insurance Act in the case of employment prior to the commencement of the Pensions Act, if contributions under the Insurance Act were not paid in respect of the employment; nor in the case of a woman who, while so employed, was an exempt person ;
- (b) any period prior to the commencement of the Pensions Act during which the person was insured as a voluntary contributor under the Insurance Act and in respect of which contributions were paid, or any period during which under sub-section (5) of Section 44 of the Pensions Act he is deemed to have been insured, shall be treated as a period of employment for which contributions were paid.

7. The time within which under paragraph (b) of sub-section (1) of Section 21 of the Pensions Act of 1929 a person employed in an excepted employment to which Section 15 of the Pensions Act applies (not being a married woman or a person in respect of whom no contributions are payable under the Pensions Act) may give notice that he desires to become a voluntary contributor, shall be the period of twelve months after the first date on which he was employed in such excepted employment after the commencement of the Pensions Act of 1929.

Time for giving notice under section 21 (1) (b) of the Pensions Act of 1929.

Form of application to become a voluntary contributor.

8. The application to become a voluntary contributor in pursuance of any of the preceding provisions of these Regulations shall be in writing and addressed to the Society of which the person is or desires to be a member or to the Ministry. A person making such an application shall furnish such information in relation thereto as the Society or the Ministry may require, and in a case to which Article 4, 5 or 6 of these Regulations applies, the application shall contain such of the particulars specified in the Form set out in the First Schedule to these Regulations as are appropriate to the case.

Time for giving notice under section 13 (2) of the Pensions Act.

9.—(1) The date before which, under sub-section (2) of Section 13 of the Pensions Act, any person who was at the commencement of that Act insured as a voluntary contributor shall give notice of desire to pay contributions as a voluntary contributor shall be—

- (a) where he was at or within 13 weeks after the commencement of the Pensions Act rendered incapable of work by reason of some specific disease or by bodily or mental disablement of which notice was given within the time prescribed in Article 3 of the Arrears Regulations, the date shall be the last day of the period of grace following the end of the contribution year as regards which contributions ceased to be treated for the purpose of calculating arrears as having been paid in respect of the period of incapacity ;
- (b) in any other case, if the Ministry is satisfied that the person had a reasonable excuse for not giving notice before the expiration of the period of grace next succeeding the commencement of the Pensions Act and before the commencement of these Regulations, such date as the Ministry, having regard to the circumstances of the particular case, may determine.

(2) Such notice shall be given in writing, and in the case of a voluntary contributor to whom paragraph 1 (a) of this Article applies, if on or before the date specified in that paragraph he surrenders to the Society of which he is a member or to the Ministry a card bearing one or more stamps for the contribution half year as regards which contributions ceased to be treated for the purpose of calculating arrears as having been paid in respect of the period of the incapacity, he shall be deemed to have given such a notice as aforesaid, unless at the time of surrendering the card he gives notice to the contrary in writing to the Society or the Ministry as the case may be.

(3) The provisions of this Article shall apply to a deposit contributor as if he were a member of a Society.

10. For the purposes of the Insurance Act (other than sub-section (5) of Section 7 of that Act) a person who has elected to become a voluntary contributor shall be treated as a voluntary contributor from the commencement of the contribution week in which he gave notice of his desire to become a voluntary contributor :

Date of entry into voluntary insurance. Section 1 (3) of Insurance Act.

Provided that for the purpose of payment of contributions by a person who was insured at the time when he gave such notice, he may be treated as having become a voluntary contributor on such earlier date as will permit him to pay contributions in respect of any period prior to the date on which he gave such notice and subsequent to his being employed, so long as such contributions are paid before the end of the relative period of grace.

11.—(1) For the purposes of sub-section (5) of Section 7 of the Insurance Act a person who has elected to become a voluntary contributor shall be treated as a voluntary contributor—

Regulations under section 7 (5) of Insurance Act.

- (a) where he was insured as an employed contributor immediately prior to becoming a voluntary contributor, either (i) as from the commencement of the contribution year following that in which he ceased to be employed, or (ii) if on ceasing to be employed he was rendered incapable of work by some specific disease or by bodily or mental disablement of which notice was given, as from the commencement of the contribution year following that in which he ceased to be so incapable of work, or (iii) as from the commencement of the contribution year in which he gave notice of his desire to become a voluntary contributor, whichever is the later ; and
- (b) in any other case, from the date on which he gave notice of his desire to become a voluntary contributor.

(2) For the purposes of sub-section (5) of Section 7 of the Insurance Act and any Regulations made under that sub-section, "contribution year" means any period commencing in June or July, as the case may be, and comprising two consecutive contribution half-years.

(3) In calculating for the purpose of sub-section (5) of Section 7 of the Insurance Act the number of contributions paid for any contribution year by a person insured as a voluntary contributor, a contribution shall be deemed to have been paid in respect of every week or part of a week in respect of which a contribution is treated as having been paid for the purpose of calculating arrears under the Arrears Regulations, and this provision shall apply to a deposit contributor as if he were a member of a Society, save that the Ministry may in any case in which it thinks fit modify or dispense with the requirements of Article 3 of the said Regulations relating to the time within which notice of incapacity is required to be given :

Provided that where a person, not being a person to whom the proviso to the said sub-section applies, had, on attaining the age of 60 in the case of a man, or 55 in the case of a woman, been continuously insured for the purposes of the Pensions Act for a period of ten years, or since the 15th July, 1912, (whichever period is the shorter), the number of contributions paid by him shall, for the purpose of the said sub-section, but for that purpose only, be deemed to be 45 for any contribution year in respect of which not less than 26 contributions have been paid, or are deemed under the provisions of this paragraph to have been paid.

(4) For the purposes of sub-section (5) of Section 7 of the Insurance Act the period after the expiration of a contribution year within which a voluntary contributor may pay such further contributions as will bring the total number of his contributions for the contribution year up to 45 or 26, as the case may be, shall be the relative period of grace.

Notice of desire to become a voluntary contributor on a date later than the date of notice.

12. Where a person at the time of giving notice of his desire to become a voluntary contributor states in writing that he wishes the notice to take effect from a specified date later than the date on which he gives notice (but not later than the expiry of the time prescribed in these Regulations for giving such notice) the provisions of Articles 10 and 11 of these Regulations shall have effect as if the notice had been given on the date so specified, and in the case of a person whose time for electing to become a voluntary contributor has been extended under Article 3 of these Regulations, such provisions shall have effect as if the notice of desire to become a voluntary contributor had been given immediately before he ceased to be insured.

Inclusion as qualifying contributions of contributions paid as an exempt person. Section 21 (2) (a) of the Pensions Act of 1929.

13. In calculating the period of 104 weeks for which a person must have been employed within the meaning of the Insurance Act and insured as an employed contributor in order to be entitled to become a voluntary contributor under Section 1 (3) (a) of that Act, there shall be included weeks for which contributions were paid as an exempt person in the case of any person being a man who, having ceased to be an exempt person, became an employed contributor during the period for which he is deemed to continue to be an insured person for the purposes of the Pensions Act.

Revocation.

14. The Regulations specified in the Second Schedule to these Regulations are hereby revoked, but without prejudice to anything done or suffered, or to any right, privilege, obligation or liability acquired, accrued or incurred, under any of those Regulations.
