Fees, Payment of.

1933. No. 4.

WHEREAS by Sections 2 and 3 of the Public Offices Fees Act, 1879, the Treasury was empowered to direct the manner in which fees payable in any public office should be collected, and to make regulations determining the use of impressed or adhesive stamps, and regulating the use of such stamps.

And whereas the said powers of the Treasury under the said sections in so far as they relate to matters within the powers of the Parliament and Government of Northern Ireland, are now vested in the Ministry of Finance for Northern Ireland (hereinafter referred to as “ the Ministry ”).

Now therefore the Ministry hereby makes the following regulations :—

1. All fees payable to the Registrar of Companies under the Companies Act (Northern Ireland), 1932, or under any order made by the Ministry of Commerce in pursuance of the said Act and for the time being in force, shall be collected by means of stamps. Such impressed stamps as may from time to time be adopted by the Ministry shall be used in all cases.

2. The following regulations, made in pursuance of the Public Offices Fees Act, 1879, are hereby revoked except as regards
