Agricultural Workers : Long Hirings.

THE UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE (LONG HIRINGS IN AGRICUL-TURE) REGULATIONS (NORTHERN IRELAND), 1936, DATED THE TWENTY-NINTH DAY OF APRIL, 1936, MADE BY THE MINISTRY OF LABOUR FOR NORTHERN IRELAND UNDER THE UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE ACTS (NORTHERN IRELAND), 1920 TO 1936.

1936. No. 60.

The Ministry of Labour for Northern Ireland, by virtue of the powers conferred on it by the Unemployment Insurance Acts (Northern Ireland), 1920 to 1936, and of all other powers in that behalf hereby makes the following Regulations :---

1.—(1) These Regulations may be cited as the Unemployment Insurance (Long Hirings in Agriculture) Regulations (Northern Ireland), 1936, and shall come into force on the fourth day of May, 1936.

(2) The Interpretation Act, 1921, applies to the interpretation of these Regulations as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

2. In these Regulations :

- " Local Office " has the same meaning as in the Unemployment Insurance (Collection of Contributions) Regulations, 1920.
- "The Ministry " means the Ministry of Labour for Northern Ireland.

3. Where a contract is made for the employment of any person in agriculture for a period of yearly or half-yearly hiring (hereinafter referred to as a "contract of long hiring"), then, if—

- (1) it is duly proved in the manner hereinafter provided that the contract was made, and that the employment has continued and that agricultural contributions have been duly paid throughout the period of the hiring; and
- (2) an application is duly made in the manner hereinafter provided, the appropriate proportion of the agricultural contributions paid during the period of the hiring shall be repaid to the employer and employee respectively, or in a case where the employer has duly paid agricultural contributions on behalf of a person employed under a contract of long hiring and has not recovered from that person the contributions so paid, to the employer.

4. For the purpose of proving that a contract of long hiring has been made, the employer and the employee shall, not later than 28 days after the beginning of the period of yearly or half-yearly hiring—

- (1) lodge at or send by post to a local office a joint declaration in the form set out in the First Schedule to these Regulations or such other form substantially to the like effect as the Ministry may from time to time direct ;
- (2) if required produce for inspection at the local office the employee's unemployment book; and
- (3) furnish such further information with respect to the terms and conditions of the contract and of the circumstances in which it was made as the Ministry may reasonably require.

5. An application for the repayment of the appropriate proportion of agricultural contributions paid in respect of the employed person during the period of a contract of long hiring shall be made by lodging at or sending by post to a local office, within one month after the expiration of the period of the long hiring in respect to which the application is being made (or such further period not exceeding three months as the Ministry may for good cause in any case permit), an application in the form set out in the Second Schedule to these Regulations, or such other form substantially to the like effect as the Ministry may from time to time direct.

6. For the purpose of proving that the employment has continued and that agricultural contributions have been duly paid throughout the period of the contract of long hiring, the employer and the employee upon a joint application (or where an application is made by the employer or the employee alone, or where separate applications are made, the person making the application) shall—

- (1) furnish with the application for repayment such particulars relating to the matters aforesaid as are specified in the form of application set out in the Second Schedule to these Regulations, or such other form substantially to the like effect as the Ministry may from time to time direct;
- (2) lodge or send with the application for repayment the employee's unemployment book; or if, for any reason which appears to the Ministry to be sufficient in any case, the unemployment book cannot be lodged or sent, furnish such information respecting the disposal of that book and the payment of contributions as the Ministry may require; and
- (3) furnish such further information respecting the matters aforesaid as the Ministry may reasonably require, including (if required) in a case where an application is not made jointly by the employer and the employee, a statement signed by the person not joining in the application confirming the statements made by the person making the application in connection with his application.

Given under the Official Seal of the Ministry of Labour for Northern Ireland this twenty-ninth day of April, 1936.
