RULES MADE BY THE UNEMPLOYMENT ASSISTANCE BOARD FOR NORTHERN IRELAND UNDER SECTION 46 (1) OF THE UNEMPLOYMENT ASSISTANCE ACT (NORTHERN IRELAND), 1934.

1938. No. 34.

The Unemployment Assistance Board for Northern Ireland, to the intent that, with the consent of the Ministry of Finance, reciprocal arrangements may be made with the Unemployment Assistance Board established under Part II of the Unemployment Act, 1934, for dealing with the cases of persons transferring between Great Britain and Northern Ireland, and for determining the conditions under which such persons may be paid allowances, by virtue of the powers conferred on it by Section 46 (1) of the Unemployment Assistance Act (Northern Ireland), 1934, and of all other powers in that behalf, hereby makes the following Rules:—

1.—Reciprocal arrangements may, with the consent of the Ministry of Finance, be made by the Unemployment Assistance Board for Northern Ireland with the Unemployment Assistance

Board established under Part II of the Unemployment Act, 1934, for dealing with the cases of persons transferring between Great Britain and Northern Ireland and for determining the conditions under which such persons may be paid allowances and any arrangements so made may in particular provide:—

(1) that for the purpose of deciding whether the Unemployment Assistance Act (Northern Ireland), 1934, or the Unemployment Assistance Act, 1934 (as the case may be) applies to a person who has transferred between Northern Ireland and Great Britain—

(a) an occupation carried on in Great Britain or Northern Ireland (as the case may be) may be treated as though it had been carried on in Northern Ireland or Great Britain respectively; and

(b) subject to such conditions as may be specified in the arrangement, a person normally resident in Great Britain who is attending a training course or course of instruction in Northern Ireland and a person normally resident in Northern Ireland who is attending a training course or course of instruction in Great Britain shall not by reason only that he is so attending be deemed to be not capable of or available for work.

(2) that where a person normally resident in Great Britain or Northern Ireland is temporarily transferred to Northern Ireland or Great Britain (as the case may be) for the purpose of attending a training course or course of instruction, the Unemployment Assistance Board having authority at the place where such course is situated may while he is attending thereat issue to him an allowance equal in amount to the amount for the time being granted for his maintenance at that training course or course of instruction by an officer of the Board having authority where he is normally resident; and

(3) for the review of such arrangements subject to such notice as may be specified therein.

2.—If an arrangement is made for the purposes aforesaid, then while the arrangement is in force, the Unemployment Assistance Act (Northern Ireland), 1934, shall in relation to persons affected by such an arrangement have effect subject to the following modifications:—

(1) sub-paragraph (i) of paragraph (b) of sub-section (1) of Section 31 shall apply as though there were inserted at the end thereof the words "or is employment in Great Britain in respect of which, if that employment had been carried on in Northern Ireland, contributions would have been payable under those Acts."

(2) sub-section (2) of Section 31 shall apply as though it included a reference to a training course or course of instruction in Great Britain.

(3) Section 37 shall apply as though so much of an allowance granted under the Unemployment Assistance Act, 1934, as is granted for the maintenance of the applicant at a training course or course of instruction were an allowance granted under the Act.

3.—The Interpretation Act, 1921, applies to the interpretation of these Rules as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

4.—These Rules may be cited as the Unemployment Assistance (Reciprocal Arrangements with Great Britain) Rules (Northern Ireland), 1938, and shall come into force on the day after the day on which they are confirmed by the Minister of Labour.

Given under the Official Seal of the Unemployment Assistance Board for Northern Ireland this 2nd day of March, 1938.
