

Now, therefore, the Ministry, in exercise of the powers conferred upon it by the said Section 23 and of every other power enabling it in that behalf, hereby makes the following Order, that is to say :—

1.—References in sub-section (2) of Section 5 of the Act to thirty pigs shall, as respects the period beginning on the first day of September, nineteen hundred and thirty-nine, and ending on the thirty-first day of December, nineteen hundred and thirty-nine, be construed as referring to ten pigs.

2.—This Order may be cited as the Bacon Industry (Registered Agreements) Order, 1939, and shall come into operation on the date hereof.

Sealed with the Official Seal of the Ministry of Agriculture for Northern Ireland this fifth day of July, nineteen hundred and thirty-nine, in the presence of 1939. No. 88.

WHEREAS certain Regulations for Peace and Order in Northern Ireland are contained in the Schedule to the Civil Authorities (Special Powers) Act (Northern Ireland), 1922, and it is provided by sub-section (3) of section 1 of the said Act that the Minister of Home Affairs shall have power to make Regulations (a) for making further provision for the preservation of the Peace and Maintenance of Order, and (b) for varying or revoking any provision of the Regulations, whether contained in the said Schedule, or made as aforesaid, and that any Regulations made as aforesaid shall, subject to the provisions of the said Act, have effect and be enforced in like manner as Regulations contained in the said Schedule :

Now, THEREFORE, I, The Right Honourable Sir Richard Dawson Bates, Bart., D.L., M.P., Minister of Home Affairs for Northern Ireland, do make the following Regulation for making further provision for the preservation of the Peace and Maintenance of Order, and the said Regulation shall be enforced and have effect in like manner as Regulations contained in the said Schedule, and the said Regulation now made, and the Regulations contained in the said Schedule shall have effect and be construed as if the said Regulation now made formed part of said Regulations in said Schedule, that is to say :—

3B. (1) It shall be unlawful for any person (other than a person selling by retail) to be in possession of, purchase, sell, transfer, or otherwise dispose of potassium chlorate or aluminium powder in excess of 4 lbs. avoirdupois without the consent in writing of the Inspector General, the Commissioner of Belfast, a County Inspector, or a District Inspector of the Royal Ulster Constabulary.

- (2) It shall be unlawful for any person selling by retail :—
- (i) to sell, transfer, or otherwise dispose of any of the aforesaid substances in excess of 4 lbs. avoirdupois to any person unless such person produces an authority in writing from the Inspector General, the Commissioner of Belfast, a County Inspector, or a District Inspector granting permission to purchase and be in possession of the amount specified in the authority;
 - (ii) to have in his possession more than 6 lbs. of the substances to which this Regulation refers, without the consent in writing of the Inspector General, the Commissioner of Belfast, a County Inspector, or a District Inspector of the Royal Ulster Constabulary.
- (3) A person selling these substances by wholesale shall provide and keep a register in which shall be entered within twenty-four hours full particulars of the amount and the description of all such substances received or disposed of by such person, which particulars shall include the names and full addresses of the persons from whom the said substance was received, or to whom it was disposed of, and the date of each transaction. The said register shall be open for inspection at all times by the District Inspector of the Royal Ulster Constabulary of the District, or any member of the Royal Ulster Constabulary authorised by him, and any person so receiving or disposing of such substance shall at all times when so required by the aforesaid Police Authorities, show to the said Authorities all stock on hands of such substance, together with all invoices, consignment notes, receipts, or permits which may be required to verify any entry in the Register, and shall allow copies and extracts to be taken by such authorities, and shall allow such authorities at all reasonable times to enter the places where such substances are stored or kept for sale. Where the person receiving such substance is not known to the vendor, the vendor shall require such person to furnish satisfactory particulars of identification (which shall be entered in the register referred to) and to sign his name and address to such register.

Given under my Hand at Belfast this 16th day of June, 1939.

R. Dawson Bates,

Minister of Home Affairs for Northern Ireland.
Civil Authority.
