Certain questions to be determined by society :

3.—Any person who desires to obtain the decision of the Ministry on any question may make an application for the purpose by delivering or sending to the Ministry an application in such one of the forms set out in the First Schedule to these Regulations as is appropriate to the case, or in a form substantially to the like effect :

(2) The notice sent to the respondent shall also state that he must fill up the form of particulars and, before the date specified in the notice, deliver or send it to the Ministry, and that if he fails to do so the Ministry may give its decision forthwith on the information contained in the form of application.

5.—(1) As soon as may be after the expiry of the period within which the parties are required to submit particulars and further particulars, if any, the Ministry shall, save as hereinafter provided,

(4) Subject as aforesaid, the procedure at a hearing under these Regulations shall be such as the Ministry or the person before whom the hearing takes place may determine.

Power to decide applications summarily or without oral hearing.

(2) If after consideration of the application and the particulars of the respondent and interested parties and of any further particulars which may have been required, the Ministry is of opinion that the question is one which can properly be determined without holding a hearing then, notwithstanding anything in these Regulations, the Ministry may dispense with the holding of a hearing :

Provided that in any such case the Ministry shall before giving its decision send to the applicant a copy of the particulars and further particulars, if any, submitted by the respondent, and to the respondent a copy of the further particulars, if any, submitted by the applicant, and afford to each of them an opportunity of furnishing a written reply thereto or observations thereon.

12.—(1) The Ministry may, if it thinks fit in any particular case, and subject to such conditions as it may impose, extend the period within which anything is required to be done under these Regulations, other than requirements made obligatory by any Statute, provided that it is satisfied that there is reasonable cause for such extension or dispensation and that such extension or dispensation will not prejudice the interests of any person.

(2) Such extension or dispensation may be made or granted notwithstanding that the period within which the thing is required to be done has expired.

Provisions as to sending of notices.

13.—Any notice or other document required or authorised to be sent to any person for the purpose of these Regulations shall be deemed to be duly sent if sent by post addressed to that person at his ordinary address.
