1940. No. 51.

WHEREAS certain Regulations for Peace and Order in Northern Ireland are contained in the Schedule to the Civil Authorities (Special Powers) Act (Northern Ireland), 1922, and it is provided by sub-section (3) of section 1 of the said Act that the Minister of Home Affairs shall have power to make Regulations (a) for making further provision for the preservation of the Peace and Maintenance of Order, and (b) for varying or revoking any provision of the Regulations, whether contained in the said Schedule, or made as aforesaid, and that any Regulations made as aforesaid shall, subject to the provisions of the said Act, have effect and be enforced in like manner as Regulations contained in the said Schedule :

Now, THEREFORE, I, The Right Honourable Sir Richard Dawson Bates, Bart., D.L., M.P., Minister of Home Affairs for Northern Ireland, do make the following Regulation for making further provision for the preservation of the Peace and Maintenance of Order, and the said Regulation shall be enforced and have effect in like manner as Regulations contained in the said Schedule, and the said Regulation now made, and the Regulations contained in the said Schedule shall have effect and be construed as if the said Regulation now made formed part of said Regulations in said Schedule, that is to say :—

- 1a. (1) On and from such date as may be prescribed by the Civil Authority every person of fourteen years of age and upwards in Northern Ireland shall have in his possession an approved document of identity, and shall, on demand, produce the said document to any police constable in uniform.

The civil authority shall have power to prescribe from time to time documents which shall be approved documents of identity for the purposes of this Regulation.

Failure to produce an approved document of identity on demand shall be an offence under the Regulations.

Given under my Hand at Belfast this 15th day of June, 1940.

R. Dawson Bates,
Minister of Home Affairs for Northern Ireland.
