SCHEDULE.

FORM A.

INDUSTRIAL ASSURANCE AND FRIENDLY SOCIETIES (EMERGENCY PROTECTION FROM FORFEITURE) ACT (NORTHERN IRELAND), 1940. SECTION 2 (1).

If any policy mentioned in this Notice, in respect of which not less than two years' premiums have been paid, was in force immediately before the 1st September, 1939, and is for an amount (exclusive of any bonus additions) not exceeding £50, and if default in the payment of premiums on that policy is due to circumstances arising directly or indirectly out of the war, application in writing may be made within 28 days from the date of the service of this Notice by the owner or any other person on his behalf for the policy to be protected from forfeiture in accordance with the provisions of the above Act.

Any such application should be addressed to.....

FORM B.

Date.....

Dear Sir or Madam,

INDUSTRIAL ASSURANCE AND FRIENDLY SOCIETIES (EMERGENCY PROTECTION FROM FORFEITURE) ACT (NORTHERN IRELAND), 1940. SECTION 2 (3).

Your application for protection from forfeiture of the undermentioned Policy (or policies) has been considered and we regret we are unable to grant your request.

If you are not satisfied with this decision an appeal may be made by or on behalf of the owner of the policy (or policies), within twenty-eight days from the receipt of this letter, to the Industrial Assurance Commissioner, Ministry of Commerce, Chichester Street, Belfast.

If you decide to appeal you should write to the Commissioner with a brief note of the facts and the policy (or policies) and the notice before forfeiture should be enclosed.

Yours faithfully,

Secretary.

FORM C.

Date.....

Dear Sir or Madam,

INDUSTRIAL ASSURANCE AND FRIENDLY SOCIETIES (EMERGENCY PROTECTION FROM FORFEITURE) ACT (NORTHERN IRELAND), 1940. SECTION 4 (1).

Protection from forfeiture of the undermentioned policy (or policies) was granted by the Company (or Society) on the..... The Company (or Society) is now satisfied that you are no longer unable by reason of circumstances arising directly or indirectly out of the war to pay the premiums on the policy (or policies). The protection granted will therefore cease in respect of premiums falling due after the expiration of 28 days from the date of the service of this Notice.

If you are not satisfied with this decision an appeal may be made by or on behalf of the owner of the policy (or policies) within twenty-eight days from the receipt of this letter to the Industrial Assurance Commissioner, Ministry of Commerce, Chichester Street, Belfast.

If you decide to appeal you should write to the Commissioner with a brief note of the facts. The policy (or policies) and this notice should be enclosed.

On the other hand, if you accept the decision of the Company (or Society) and later on your circumstances should change and you are of the opinion that you are then unable to continue premium payments in consequence of the war, you may make a further application to the Company (or Society).

Yours faithfully,

Secretary
