ROYAL ULSTER CONSTABULARY PENSIONS (AMENDING) ORDER, 1946,
DATED 17TH OCTOBER, 1946.

1946. No. 184

I, THE RIGHT HONOURABLE EDMOND WARNOCK, K.C., Minister of Home Affairs for Northern Ireland, in exercise of the powers conferred on me by Section 2 of the Constabulary Act (Northern Ireland), 1922, and by sub-section (1) of Section 4 of the Constabulary and Police (Ireland) Act, 1919, as applied by the said Act of 1922, and of all other powers enabling me in that behalf, do hereby order as follows:—

1. For paragraph (a) of Article 2 of the Schedule appended to the Royal Ulster Constabulary (Pensions) Amending Order, 1929, there shall be substituted the paragraph in Part I of the Schedule appended hereto.

2. For Article 10 of the First Schedule (Part II) to the Royal Ulster Constabulary Pensions Order, 1923, there shall be substituted the Article in Part II of the Schedule appended hereto.

3.—(a) Paragraph (4) of Article 4 of the Royal Ulster Constabulary Pensions Order, 1923, shall be read and have effect as though the following words were added thereto.

“The provisions of this paragraph shall not apply to a person appointed to the post of Inspector General after the 31st July, 1945, and shall cease to have effect as from the 31st January, 1946, but without prejudice to any pension granted before 1st February, 1946.”

(b) The following paragraph shall be inserted after paragraph (4) of Article 4 of the Royal Ulster Constabulary Pensions Order, 1923:—

“(4) (a) A person appointed to the post of Inspector General after the 31st July, 1945, and who has served in an established capacity in the Civil Service of Northern Ireland, shall be entitled to reckon his period of service in that capacity as approved service for the purpose of this Order, provided that four years of service as a Civil Servant shall be reckoned as equivalent to three years approved service in the force.”

4. Articles 1 and 2 of this Order shall take effect as from 1st April, 1946.

5. This Order shall not apply to any woman appointed as a member of the Royal Ulster Constabulary.

And I certify that Sub-section (2) of Section 4 of the Constabulary and Police (Ireland) Act, 1919, which provides that a draft of any Order proposed to be made under the said Section shall be submitted to the representative body or bodies constituted by the Act and representing any rank or ranks affected, and that before making the Order the Ministry of Home Affairs shall consider any representations made by such body or bodies, has been fully observed.

This Order may be cited as the Royal Ulster Constabulary Pensions (Amending) Order, 1946, and shall be construed as one with the Royal Ulster Constabulary Pensions Order, 1923, the Royal Ulster Constabulary Pensions (Amending) Order, 1925, the Royal Ulster Constabulary Pensions (Amending) Order, 1929, and the Royal Ulster Constabulary Pensions (Amending) Order, 1941, and those Orders and this Order may be cited together as the Royal Ulster Constabulary Pensions Orders, 1923 to 1946.

Dated this 17th day of October, 1946.

Edmond Warnock,

Minister of Home Affairs for Northern Ireland.

I, THE RIGHT HONOURABLE J. MAYNARD SINCLAIR, Minister of Finance for Northern Ireland, hereby signify my concurrence in the foregoing Order and Schedule thereto.

Dated this 31st day of October, 1946.

J. M. Sinclair,

Minister of Finance for Northern Ireland.

SCHEDULE REFERRED TO IN FOREGOING ORDER.

PART I

Where a member of the force dies whilst in the force, or where a member of the force having been granted a pension dies within twelve months after the grant of the pension or at any time from the effects of an injury received in the execution of his duty without his own default, his children under sixteen years of age shall be entitled to allowances until they severally reach the age of sixteen years or where a member of the force, having been granted a pension, dies twelve months or more after the grant of such pension otherwise than from the effects of an injury received in the execution of his duty without his own default, his children under sixteen years of age who were born whilst he was serving in the force or within two years from the date of the grant of the pension may, in case of pecuniary need, at the discretion of the Ministry, and with the approval of the Ministry of Finance, be granted allowances until they severally reach the age of sixteen years ; and

PART II

Member of the force or Pensioner dying from any other cause.—The allowance in respect of each child who has not attained the age of sixteen shall be an annual allowance up to the time that child attains the age of sixteen at the rate of :—

£10 in the case of a person who was a constable or sergeant at the time of his death or retirement.

£12 in the case of a person who was a head constable at the time of his death or retirement.

£15 in the case of a person who was of higher rank at the time of his death or retirement.

The aggregate amount of such allowance shall not in any year exceed £30, £40 and £50 respectively, provided, however, that in any case of pecuniary need the Ministry, with the approval of the Ministry of Finance, may at its discretion increase the aggregate of such allowance in the appropriate category, but so that the total aggregate allowance in any year shall not in any case exceed the amount arrived at by multiplying the amount of the said appropriate allowance by the number of children of the deceased who have not then attained sixteen years and provided further that notwithstanding any limitations above imposed if the deceased member leaves no widow, or if he leaves a widow and she dies before all the children attain the age of sixteen, the actual allowance or allowances and the aggregate amount of any allowances may be increased by fifty per cent. above the sums hereinbefore mentioned.
