 - (b) three hundred and seventy-five pounds.
- (2) There shall be wholly disregarded any income from capital resources which fall to be disregarded under the last foregoing sub-paragraph.
- (3) The amount of the war savings of any person shall be ascertained for the purposes of this paragraph in accordance with the provisions in that behalf of paragraphs 7, 8 and 9 of the Second Schedule to the Act.

Treatment of other capital

- 4. Any capital resources not disregarded by virtue of either of the two last foregoing paragraphs shall—
 - (a) so far as their aggregate value does not exceed fifty pounds, be disregarded together with all income therefrom;

(b) so far as their aggregate value exceeds fifty pounds but does not exceed four hundred pounds, be treated as equivalent to a weekly income of sixpence for each complete twenty-five pounds;

(c) so far as their aggregate value exceeds four hundred pounds be treated as part of the available resources of the applicant.

Disregard of death and maternity grants

5. There shall be wholly disregarded-

(a) any death grant paid to a person under the provisions of section 21 of the National Insurance Act (Northern Ireland), 1946;

(b) any maternity grant to which a woman is entitled under section 13 of the National Insurance Act (Northern Ireland), 1946.

Disregard of certain forms of income

6.—(1) Any such payment or part of a payment as is specified in the following provisions of this paragraph shall be disregarded up to the amount of one pound a week or, if the person in question is in receipt of more than one payment so specified, up to the said amount in the aggregate.

(2) The payments and parts of payments hereinbefore referred to are :-

(a) the first ten shillings and sixpence a week of any payment of sick pay received from a friendly society or trade union;

- (b) the first ten shillings and sixpence a week of any superannuation payment or superannuation payments in respect of previous service or employment from which the recipient has retired or resigned (whether payable by a former employer or not), not being a payment or payments-
 - (i) on account of a pension under the Old Age Pensions Act (Northern Ireland), 1936, or under or by virtue of the Widows', Orphans' and Old Age Contributory Pensions Acts (Northern Ireland), 1936 to 1946, or under any enactment repealed by any of those Acts; or

(ii) on account of a retirement pension under the National Insurance Act (Northern Ireland), 1946;

(c) any payment by way of attendance allowance under section 13 of the National Insurance Act (Northern Ireland), 1946, and any payment by way of maternity allowance under section 14 of that Act;

(d) any of the following payments, that is to say-

- (i) any payment in respect of retired pay or pension to which section 16 of the Finance Act, 1919, applies, including any payment in respect of a dependant's allowance attached to such a pension;
- (ii) any payment in respect of a disablement pension awarded under the Personal Injuries (Emergency Provisions) Act, 1939, including an increase in such a pension in respect of dependants;
- (iii) any weekly payment by way of compensation under any enactment relating to workmen's compensation;
- (iv) any payment by way of disablement benefit under the National Insurance (Industrial Injuries) Act (Northern Ireland), 1946.

Treatment of earnings

- 7.—(1) The portion of the earnings of any person to be taken into account in computing his resources shall be taken to be the amount of his net weekly earnings reduced by the amount allowed in accordance with the provisions of sub-paragraph (2) of this paragraph.
- (2) The amount (which may be varied if there are special circumstances) to be allowed for the purposes of sub-paragraph (1) of this paragraph shall be as follows, that is to sav-
 - (a) the first 20s., and any amount in excess of the last complete shilling, of the net weekly earnings of any person aged 16 years or over, unless he is a person required under subsection (4) of section 8 of the Act to register for employment as a condition for the receipt of an assistance grant, in which case the amount allowed shall be the first 10s. of his net weekly earnings; or
 - (b) one third of the net weekly earnings of any person aged under 16 years.

Contribution towards household expenses

8. Where the applicant is the householder, or the husband or wife of the householder, his resources shall, unless exceptional circumstances are shown, be taken to include a contribution towards the expenses of the household from any member thereof who is not a dependant of his of an amount of 7s. a week, or of such less amount as is reasonable having regard to the said member's circumstances and personal responsibilities:

Provided that-

- (a) where the resources of the said member are derived solely from a gainful occupation or occupations and his net weekly earnings-
 - (i) amount to less than 70s. a week but more than 45s. a week, the amount of the contribution shall not be taken to exceed 5s. a week;
 - (ii) amount to 45s. a week or less, but more than 25s. a week, the amount of the contribution shall not be taken to exceed 2s. 6d. a week;
 - (iii) amount to 25s. a week or less, no contribution shall be taken to be so included:
- (b) this paragraph shall not apply where the householder or his wife or her husband is a blind person.

Treatment of other resources

9. In computing the available resources of a person there shall be taken into account any resources not particularly mentioned in this Part of this Schedule reduced by such amount (if any) as is reasonable having regard to all the circumstances of the case.

Application of rules to aggregated resources

10. Where the resources of two or more persons are to be aggregated, paragraphs 3 and 7 of this Part of this Schedule shall apply to the resources of each of the said persons severally and paragraphs 4 and 6 thereof shall apply to the aggregate of the resources of both or all the said persons.
