

the case of persons not entitled to superannuation allowances who die while employed or are removed in consequence of the abolition of their employment or by reason of incapacity) shall apply as if at the time when he became absent from his usual employment he had been removed therefrom in consequence of the abolition thereof.

5.—(1) Subject as hereinafter in this Regulation appears, where the usual employment of any person has been interrupted or terminated by war circumstances in order that he might serve in the armed forces of the Crown, and where immediately upon his discharge from those forces (or within such further period as the Ministry of Finance may in any particular case allow) that person has been reinstated in his usual employment, the time during the war period during which such person was so serving shall reckon for the purposes of the Superannuation Acts, as if he had remained in his usual employment at the remuneration which he would have been receiving if he had not left that employment.

(2) No person shall be entitled to reckon such service as aforesaid unless that person satisfies the Ministry that he has refunded or is willing to refund, any non-effective pay or excess remuneration in respect of any part of his war service which he desires to be treated under Section 4 of the Superannuation Act (Northern Ireland), 1947, as service to be counted towards a superannuation allowance at the end of his term of Civil Service employment, and that he has surrendered his right to any further payment of non-effective pay or excess remuneration in respect of such part of his war service as aforesaid.

(3) For the purposes of this Regulation service in the armed forces of the Crown shall include any leave granted at the termination thereof.

Sealed with the Official Seal of the Ministry of Finance for Northern Ireland this 31st day of December, 1948, in the presence of
