Pensions, Existing Beneficiaries and Other Persons (Transitional) Amendment Regulations (Northern Ireland), 1949

REGULATIONS, DATED 6TH JULY, 1949, MADE BY THE MINISTRY OF LABOUR AND NATIONAL INSURANCE, IN CONJUNCTION WITH THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE, UNDER THE NATIONAL INSURANCE ACT (NORTHERN IRELAND), 1946.

1949. No. 124

The Ministry of Labour and National Insurance, acting in conjunction with the Ministry of Finance, in exercise of the powers conferred by section 62 of the National Insurance Act (Northern Ireland),

1946, and of all other powers enabling it in that behalf, hereby makes the following regulations :—

Citation and commencement

1. These regulations, which may be cited as the National Insurance (Pensions, Existing Beneficiaries and Other Persons) (Transitional) Amendment Regulations (Northern Ireland), 1949, shall be read as one with the National Insurance (Pensions, Existing Beneficiaries and Other Persons) (Transitional) Regulations (Northern Ireland), 1948 (hereinafter referred to as “the principal regulations”) and shall come into operation on the 11th July, 1949.

Amendment of the principal regulations

2. The following amendments shall be made in the principal regulations :—

(1) In paragraph (b) of the proviso to paragraph (2) of regulation 3 (which former paragraph provides that a contributory old age pension shall not be treated as a retirement pension for the purposes of certain provisions of the Act), after the words “the provisions of” there shall be inserted the words “paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of section 16 of the Act (which paragraph relates to the conditions for a widow’s allowance),” and the word “subsections” shall be substituted for the word “provisions” where that word occurs in brackets.

(2) The following words shall be added at the end of paragraph (3) of regulation 6 (which paragraph applies with modifications the provisions of section 20 of the Act to the wife of an existing old age pensioner) :—

“and subject to the modification that instead of subsection (4) of section 19 of the Act applying in her case by virtue of subsection (3) of the said section 20 (which provisions together provide for increases in retirement pensions payable in respect of the husband’s insurance based on contributions paid by the husband), the following provision shall apply, namely, the weekly rate of the retirement pension (including any retirement pension payable to a wife at a reduced rate by virtue of the provisions of regulation 10) shall be increased by one shilling for every twelve months which have elapsed in the period from the date on which she would but for the Act have become entitled to an old age pension under or by virtue of the Contributory Pensions Acts in respect of her husband’s insurance up to the date of her husband attaining the age of seventy or retiring from regular employment, whichever date occurs first :

Provided that for the purpose of this provision any period in respect of which she is, or but for any disqualification would have been, entitled to a retirement pension by virtue of her own insurance shall not be taken into account.”

(3) The following regulation shall be inserted after regulation 23 :—

“ Special provision relating to existing widow pensioners

24. Regulation 3 of the National Insurance (Widow's Benefit and Retirement Pensions) Regulations (Northern Ireland), 1948 (which relates to the condition as to duration of marriage in relation to widows' pensions in the case of widows who have been married more than once) shall apply to a widow who was an existing widow pensioner as if the references therein to any periods during which she was entitled to widow's benefit included references to any periods during which she was entitled to a widow's pension under the Contributory Pensions Acts in so far as that pension included an additional allowance in respect of a child or children.”
