(a) 1946. c.21. (b) 1953. c.30.

1946, as amended by the National Insurance (Industrial Injuries) (Amendment) Act (Northern Ireland), 1948 (a) and section 3 (2) of the said Act of 1953, and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf, hereby make the following regulations :—

Citation, commencement and interpretation

1. These regulations, which may be cited as the National Insurance (Industrial Injuries) (Benefit) Amendment Regulations (Northern Ireland), 1953, shall be read as one with the National Insurance (Industrial Injuries) (Benefit) Regulations (Northern Ireland), 1948 (b) as amended (c) (hereinafter referred to as the principal regulations) and shall come into operation on the 21st October, 1953.

Amendment of Part III of the principal regulations

2. In sub-paragraph (a) of paragraph (2) of regulation 4A of the principal regulations (d) (which regulation relates to the circumstances in which for the purposes of section 14 of the Act, a beneficiary may be treated as being incapable of following an occupation or employment notwithstanding that he has worked thereat), for the words " three months " there shall be substituted the words " six months ".

Amendment of Part VI of the principal regulations

3. The following regulations shall be inserted in Part VI of the principal regulations after regulation 25 :—

" Provisions as to incapacity for work

25A.—(1) A person, having suffered an industrial accident, who apart from the provisions of this paragraph would not be treated as incapable of work as a result thereof, shall, for the purposes of the Act, be so treated in respect of any day on which as a result of that accident he satisfies the conditions specified in paragraph (a) or paragraph (b) of regulation 3 or in regulation 3A of the National Insurance (Unemployment and Sickness Benefit) Regulations (Northern Ireland), 1948 (e) as amended (f), (which regulations relate to deeming persons to be incapable of work for the purposes of the National Insurance Act).

(2) Subject to the provisions of subsection (2) of Section 11 of the Act (which subsection relates to incapacity for work on the day of the accident) a day shall not be treated for the purposes of benefit as a day of incapacity for work if it is a day which in the opinion of the determining authority would not be treated under paragraph (1) of regulation 6 of the said regulations (which regulation relates to

(a) 1948. c.20.

(b) S. R. & O. 1948. No. 203.

(c) S. R. & O. 1949. No. 73 ; 1951. No. 102 ; 1951. No. 161 ; 1951, No. 182 ; 1952. No. 199.

(d) This regulation was inserted by regulation 2 of S. R. & O. 1952. No. 199.

(e) S. R. & O. 1948. No. 248. (f) S. R. & O. 1949. No. 197.

the days not to be treated as days of unemployment or incapacity for work) as —

- (a) a day of interruption of employment by reason of sub-paragraph (a) thereof ; or
- (b) a day of incapacity for work by reason of sub-paragraph (f) or (g) thereof.

(3) A day shall not be treated for the purpose of benefit as a day of incapacity for work if it is a day in respect of which a person has not claimed, is disqualified for receiving, or forfeits injury benefit.

Night Workers

25B.—(1) The provisions of this regulation shall apply in relation to night workers for the purpose of benefit.

(2) Subject to the provisions of the next following paragraph —

- (a) where a period of employment begun on a Saturday extends over midnight into Sunday, the person employed shall, in respect of such period, be treated as having been employed on Saturday only, which day shall not be treated as a day of incapacity for work ; and
- (b) where a period of employment begun on a Sunday extends over midnight into Monday, the person employed shall, in respect of such period, be treated as having been employed on Monday only, which day shall not be treated as a day of incapacity for work ; and
- (c) where a period of employment begun on any day other than Saturday or Sunday extends over midnight into the following day, the person employed shall, in respect of such period —
  - (i) be treated as having been employed on the first day only, if the employment before midnight is of longer duration than that after midnight, and, in that case, the first day shall not be treated as a day of incapacity for work ; or
  - (ii) be treated as having been employed on the second day only, if the employment after midnight is of longer duration than that before midnight, or if the employments before and after midnight are of equal duration, and, in either of these cases, the second day shall not be treated as a day of incapacity for work.

(3) Where a person —

- (a) suffers an industrial accident during any such period of employment as is referred to in the preceding paragraph ; and

(b) is thereby immediately rendered incapable of work; the provisions of that paragraph shall apply, subject to the following qualifications:—

- (i) if the period of employment before midnight would, apart from the onset of the incapacity, have been of longer duration than that after midnight, the first of the two days shall be treated as the day of the accident and the person employed shall in respect of such period be treated as employed on that day only; and
  - (ii) nothing in the said paragraph shall be taken as preventing the day of the accident or the day which is to be treated as the day of the accident from being treated as a day of incapacity for work.
- (4) Where a person —
- (a) is by virtue of any of the foregoing provisions of this regulation to be treated as having been employed on one day only of two days; and
  - (b) throughout that part of the other of those two days during which that person is not employed, is, or is treated in accordance with regulations as, incapable of work as a result of an industrial accident; that person shall be treated as being so incapable of work throughout that other of those two days.

(5) Where a person —

- (a) is, by virtue of the provisions of sub-paragraph (c) of paragraph (2) of this regulation, to be treated as having been employed on the second day only of two days; and
- (b) throughout the day immediately preceding the first of those two days is, or is treated in accordance with regulations as, incapable of work as a result of an industrial accident; that person shall be treated as being so incapable of work throughout the first of those two days.

25C.—(1) Save as provided in the following paragraphs of this regulation, the last two foregoing regulations shall apply to a person who has contracted or sustained a disease or injury against which he is insured under Part IV of the Act (hereinafter in this regulation referred to as a prescribed disease case) as they apply to a person who has suffered an industrial accident, and the references to an industrial accident in regulation 25A shall be construed accordingly.

(2) In considering the application to a prescribed disease case of regulation 13 of the National Insurance (Industrial Injuries) (Prescribed Diseases) Regulations (Northern Ireland), 1948 (a)

(a) S. R. & O. 1948. No. 212; for amendment to regulation 13 see regulation 6, S. R. & O. 1953. No. 132.

(which regulation relates to cases where disablement benefit is not preceded by injury benefit), the provisions of paragraph (3) of regulation 25A shall be disregarded.

(3) Paragraph (3) of regulation 25B shall not apply in a prescribed disease case ”.

Amendment of Part VII of the principal regulations

4. In sub-paragraph (b) of paragraph (2) of regulation 29 (a) of the principal regulations (which regulations provide for the adjustment of dependency benefit under the Act where certain specified personal benefit is payable) after the words “ not being attendance allowance ” there shall be inserted the words “ home confinement grant,”.

Amendment of Part VIII of the principal regulations

5. In paragraph (1) of regulation 32 of the principal regulations after the words “ unemployability supplement ” there shall be inserted the words “ together with the like right to payments under the Act in respect of a child or adult dependant.”

6. The following paragraphs shall be inserted after paragraph (2) of regulation 33 of the principal regulations :—

“ (3) The foregoing provisions of this regulation shall also apply to a former constable or fireman who is or has been on or after the appointed day entitled as such former constable or fireman to payments on account of an injury pension payable under or by virtue of any enactment in respect of an injury received or disease contracted by him before that day or in respect of his retirement in consequence of such an injury or disease, as they apply to a person who is or has been entitled to weekly payments under the Workmen’s Compensation Acts.

(4) In this regulation —

“ former constable or fireman ” means a person who has been —

- (a) a member of the Royal Ulster Constabulary or of the Ulster Special Constabulary ;
- (b) a member of a fire brigade maintained by a local authority or by a fire authority constituted under the Fire Services Act (Northern Ireland), 1947 ; or
- (c) a member of the National Fire Service (Northern Ireland).

“ injury pension ” has the same meaning as in section 5 of the National Insurance (Industrial Injuries) Act (Northern Ireland), 1953, but shall not include any pension awarded under a scheme made under the Personal Injuries (Emergency Provisions) Act, 1939. (b).”

(a) For previous amendment to the regulation see S. R. & O. 1951. No. 182.

(b) 2 & 3 Geo. 6. c.82.

7. The following amendments shall be made in regulation 34 of the principal regulations :—

- (i) after the words " constant attendance " where those words first appear, there shall be inserted the words " or in respect of a child or adult dependant ".
- (ii) after the words " section 15 of the Act " there shall be inserted the words " or in respect of a child or adult dependant under section 17 or section 18 of the Act ".

Given under the Official Seal of the Industrial Injuries Joint Authority this 16th day of October, nineteen hundred and fifty-three.
