- (b) in the second column thereof there shall be inserted after the word "product" the words "(including quinone or hydroquinone)," and the paragraph shall accordingly have effect as set out in the Schedule.

(2) Where a person to whom paragraph (1) applies is awarded disablement benefit in respect of the disease and an increase of that benefit is claimed

(a) 1946, c. 21.

(b) S.R. & O. (N.I.) 1960, No. 209.

under section 14 of the Act (which section relates to increase of disablement pension in cases of special hardship), and, if at any time after having been employed in an occupation in respect of which the disease is prescribed but before the date on which these regulations come into operation the claimant has abandoned any occupation as the result of the disease, the fact that he has abandoned that occupation shall be disregarded in determining his regular occupation for the purposes of the said section 14.

(3) Where at any time after the 5th July, 1948, but before the date on which these regulations come into operation, the death of any person who has been employed as aforesaid has resulted from the disease, and the disease was due to the nature of that employment, that person shall be treated for the purposes of Part IV of the Act (which relates to extension of insurance to diseases) and of the principal regulations, as if these regulations had been in force at the date of death, subject only to the following modifications:

- (a) no benefit shall be payable in respect of the death of that person—

Provided that a person who would be entitled to any benefit but for the operation of this sub-paragraph shall (except as provided in sub-paragraph (b)) be treated as if he were entitled thereto for the purposes of any rights or obligations under the Act (whether of himself or any other person) which depend on his being so entitled, other than the right to payment of that benefit;

- (b) in applying, in respect of the death of that person, the provisions of the Fourth Schedule to the Act (which limit benefit payable in respect of any death), any person who has died before the said date on which these regulations come into operation shall be disregarded.
