

Sealed with the Official Seal of the Ministry of Health and Local Government for Northern Ireland this 5th day of November, nineteen hundred and sixty-two.

(L.S.)

Wm. J. Morgan,
Minister of Health and Local Government.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the regulations but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These regulations constitute a Food Hygiene Advisory Committee for the area of each health authority. The regulations prescribe the size and functions of the Committees and the manner in which matters are to be referred to them.

Each Committee will be comprised of 13 members appointed by the Ministry and made up of a Chairman, 4 health committee members, 5 persons engaged in the food trades and 3 persons from interests other than trade interests. The members, other than the Chairman and the health committee members, will be appointed after consultation with such organisations as may be recognised by the Ministry as representative of interests substantially affected by regulations made under Section 13 of the Food and Drugs Act (Northern Ireland), 1958.

1962. No. 203

[C]

CENSUS OF PRODUCTION

Exemption of Certain Undertakings

THE CENSUS OF PRODUCTION (EXEMPTION) ORDER (NORTHERN IRELAND), 1962, DATED 29TH OCTOBER, 1962, MADE BY THE MINISTRY OF COMMERCE UNDER SECTION 1(4) OF THE STATISTICS OF TRADE ACT (NORTHERN IRELAND), 1949.

Whereas Section 1(1) of the Statistics of Trade Act (Northern Ireland), 1949(a) (hereinafter referred to as "the Act"), provides that for the purpose of providing at intervals general surveys of the state of trade and business, the Ministry of Commerce (hereinafter referred to as "the Ministry") shall in the year nineteen hundred and fifty and in every subsequent year take a census of production.

And whereas Section 1(4) of the said Act enables the Ministry by Order to provide for exempting any persons or any prescribed class or description of persons, from the obligation contained in the said Act to furnish returns for the purposes of such a census:

(a) 1949. c. 7.

Now, therefore, the Ministry in exercise of the powers conferred upon it hereby makes the following Order:—

1. Where, in any undertaking within the meaning of the Act, the persons employed therein (including all working proprietors, clerical and typing staff and operatives inside or outside the factory or workshop) shall not exceed twenty-four on the average throughout the year nineteen hundred and sixty-two, the person or persons carrying on that undertaking shall, subject as hereinafter mentioned, be exempt from any requirement to furnish a return for the purposes of the Act for that year provided, however, that such exemption shall not be applicable unless the person or persons carrying on the undertaking shall notify the Ministry that not more than twenty-four persons on the average during the said year have been employed in the undertaking.

2. Where any undertaking within the meaning of the Act was engaged during the year nineteen hundred and sixty-two in mining and quarrying, the person or persons carrying on such an undertaking shall be exempt from any requirement to furnish a Census return for that year in respect of any such operations.

3. This Order may be cited as the Census of Production (Exemption) Order (Northern Ireland), 1962.

Sealed with the Official Seal of the Ministry of Commerce for Northern Ireland this twenty-ninth day of October, nineteen hundred and sixty-two.

(L.S.)

H. Ruben,
Assistant Secretary.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Order, which has been made with the approval of the Northern Ireland Trade Statistics Consultative Committee, prescribes that an undertaking employing not more than twenty-four persons shall be exempt from any requirement to furnish a return in respect of the Census of Production for the year 1962 and also exempts from the scope of the census all undertakings engaged in mining and quarrying.
