NATIONAL INSURANCE

Married Women

REGULATIONS, DATED 28TH MARCH, 1962, MADE BY THE MINISTRY OF LABOUR AND NATIONAL INSURANCE, IN CONJUNCTION WITH THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE, UNDER THE NATIONAL INSURANCE ACT (NORTHERN IRELAND), 1946.

The Ministry of Labour and National Insurance, acting in conjunction with the Ministry of Finance, in exercise of powers conferred by sections 12(4) and 56 of the National Insurance Act (Northern Ireland), 1946(a), and of all other powers enabling it in that behalf, hereby makes the following regulations :

Citation, commencement and interpretation

1.—(1) These regulations may be cited as the National Insurance (Married Women) Regulations (Northern Ireland), 1962, and shall come into operation on the 2nd April, 1962.

(2) In these regulations—

“the Act” means the National Insurance Act (Northern Ireland), 1946;

“the Industrial Injuries Act” means the National Insurance (Industrial Injuries) Act (Northern Ireland), 1946(b);

“the Insurance Act” means the National Health Insurance Act, 1936(c);

(a) 1946. c. 23.

(b) 1946. c. 21.

(c) 26 Geo. 5 & 1 Edw. 8. c. 32.

“the Contributory Pensions Act” means the Widows’, Orphans’ and Old Age Contributory Pensions Act (Northern Ireland), 1936(a);

“the Overlapping Benefits Regulations” means the National Insurance (Overlapping Benefits) Regulations (Northern Ireland), 1961(b);

“the Ministry” means the Ministry of Labour and National Insurance;

“the Commissioner” means the Commissioner or a deputy Commissioner or a tribunal presided over by the Commissioner or a deputy Commissioner(c);

“the determining authority” means, as the case may require, an insurance officer or a local tribunal appointed or constituted in accordance with the National Insurance (Determination of Claims and Questions) Regulations (Northern Ireland), 1948(d), or the Commissioner;

“contribution year” and “benefit year” have the same meanings as in the National Insurance (General Benefit) Regulations (Northern Ireland), 1948(e);

“week” means a contribution week(f);

“marriage” includes any remarriage, and the word “married”, wherever it occurs, shall be construed accordingly;

“contributions” has the same meaning as in the Act save that it does not include graduated contributions under the National Insurance Act (Northern Ireland), 1959(g);

“personal benefit”, “Personal Injuries Scheme”, “Service Pensions Instrument” and “1914-1918 War Injuries Scheme” have the same meanings as in the Overlapping Benefits Regulations;

“appropriate weekly rate” means, in relation to any benefit, the weekly rate of personal benefit by way of benefit of that description which is appropriate in the case of the person in relation to whom the provision containing that expression is to be applied;

“widow’s basic pension” has the same meaning as in the National Insurance (Pensions, Existing Beneficiaries and Other Persons) (Transitional) Regulations (Northern Ireland), 1948(h).

(3) For the purposes of regulations 9, 12 and 13, a woman who has obtained a decree absolute of presumption of death and dissolution of marriage shall, notwithstanding that the man whose death has been presumed is dead, be treated as a woman whose marriage has been terminated otherwise than by the death of her husband unless the date of his death is established to the satisfaction (as respects the said regulation 9, paragraph (1) or paragraph (3) of the said regulation 12, or the said regulation 13) of the Ministry or (as respects paragraph (2) of the said regulation 12) of the determining authority; and, in relation to a woman who is so treated, the marriage in question shall be treated as having been terminated on the date of the decree absolute.

(a) 26 Geo. 5 & 1 Edw. 8. c. 32 (N.I.).

(b) S.R. & O. (N.I.) 1961, No. 180 as amended by S.R. & O. (N.I.) 1962, No. 27.

(c) See s. 40(3)(c), National Insurance Act (Northern Ireland), 1946.

(d) See s. 40(3)(a) and (b), National Insurance Act (Northern Ireland), 1946, and regs. 8 and 9 of S.R. & O. (N.I.) 1948, No. 185.

(e) See reg. 2 of S.R. & O. (N.I.) 1948, No. 208.

(f) See s. 74(1) of National Insurance Act (Northern Ireland), 1946.

(g) 1959. c. 21.

(h) See Pt. I of Sch. to S.R. & O. (N.I.) 1957, No. 180 and regs. 5, 7 and 9 of S.R. & O. (N.I.) 1948, No. 39.

Married women who are employed persons

- 2.—(1) (a) A woman may elect not to be, and thereafter (subject to the provisions of paragraph (2)) shall not be, liable to pay contributions under the Act in respect of any employment as an employed person(a) for any period during which she is married.
- (b) Nothing in this regulation shall relieve an employer of any liability imposed on him by the Act in relation to employer's contributions.
- (2) (a) Any such election by a married woman not to pay contributions as an employed person may be made by her at any time by giving notice in writing to the Ministry to that effect, and the election shall be operative from the beginning of the week next but one following the week in which the notice was given or from such earlier date as the Ministry may allow.
- (b) Any such election by a married woman may be cancelled by her at any time by giving notice to the Ministry to that effect, and such cancellation shall be operative from the beginning of the week next but one following the week in which the notice was given or from such earlier date as the Ministry may allow :

Provided that such cancellation shall be without prejudice to the right of the person concerned again to make any such election from time to time.

- (3) (a) A married woman who has elected not to pay contributions in accordance with the provisions of this regulation, and who is at the time of the election in an employed contributor's employment or thereafter enters such employment, shall, at that time or at the commencement of the subsequent employment, as the case may be, make application to the Ministry for a certificate of such election, which shall be issued to her by the Ministry on any such application, and the married woman shall produce such certificate to her employer forthwith.
- (b) If a married woman cancels any such election in accordance with the provisions of this regulation, she shall surrender the certificate to the Ministry at the time of the cancellation, and forthwith notify her employer of the cancellation.
- (4) Where a married woman has cancelled her election not to pay contributions as an employed person, any contributions paid by or credited to her as an employed person (or, if she becomes self-employed, as a self-employed person) on or after the date on which the cancellation became operative shall not be taken into account for the purpose of determining her right to unemployment benefit or sickness benefit under the Act unless, before the day for which benefit is claimed, in the case of unemployment benefit, Condition I of the First Schedule has been satisfied, and, in the case of sickness benefit, Condition II of that Schedule has been satisfied, and unless in either case the contributions so paid or credited are in respect of weeks commencing on or after the operative date of the said cancellation.

Married women who are self-employed persons

- 3.—(1) (a) A woman shall be excepted from liability to pay contributions in respect of any period during which she is married and is a self-employed person(b) unless, during that period, she elects otherwise in accordance with the following provisions of this regulation.

(a) See s. 1(2)(a), National Insurance Act (Northern Ireland), 1946; Sch. to S.R. & O. (N.I.) 1957, No. 270 and S.R. & O. (N.I.) 1960, No. 119.

(b) See s. 1(2)(b), National Insurance Act (Northern Ireland), 1946 and Sch. to S.R. & O. (N.I.) 1957, No. 270.

- (b) Every such election by a married woman shall be either an election to be liable to pay contributions as a self-employed person or an election to be liable to pay contributions as if she were a non-employed person notwithstanding that she is a self-employed person, and a woman who makes any such election shall, during the operation of the election but subject to the provisions of the Act and of regulations 5 and 6, be liable to pay the contributions which she has elected to be liable to pay :

Provided that, in relation to a married woman who has attained pensionable age but has not attained the age of sixty-five, any such election made by her to be liable to pay contributions as if she were a non-employed person shall be treated as if it were an election to be liable to pay contributions as if she were a non-employed person under pensionable age.

- (c) Where a married woman has elected under the foregoing provisions of this regulation to be liable to pay contributions as if she were a non-employed person, every such contribution paid by her in respect of a week commencing on or after the 1st March, 1954, and occurring during the operation of any such election shall be treated as if it were a contribution as a self-employed person for the purposes of paragraph (1) of regulation 4 and Condition II of the First Schedule and, if it is paid in respect of a week commencing on or after the date on which she attained pensionable age, for the purposes of sub-section (4) of section 19 of the Act (which provides for increasing the weekly rate of a retirement pension where contributions as an employed or self-employed person have been paid by the beneficiary in respect of the period after his attaining pensionable age).
- (2) (a) Every election by a married woman under the foregoing provisions of this regulation shall be made by her by giving notice in writing to the Ministry, and if such notice is given before the expiration of thirteen weeks (or such longer period as the Ministry, having regard to all the circumstances of the case, may allow) beginning with the week next following the date on which she became or again became a married woman who was a self-employed person, the election shall be operative from that date, but if such notice is given thereafter, the election shall be operative from the beginning of the week in which the said notice was given.
- (b) Any such election by a married woman may be cancelled by her at any time by giving notice in writing to the Ministry to that effect, and such notice shall be operative from the beginning of the week in which the notice was given.
- (3) Where a married woman did not elect to pay contributions as a self-employed person under the Act, or elected to pay contributions as if she were a non-employed person, and subsequently elects to pay contributions as a self-employed person, any contributions paid by or credited to her as a self-employed person (or, if she becomes employed, as an employed person) on or after the date on which such latter election became operative shall not be taken into account for the purpose of determining her right to sickness benefit under the Act unless, before the day for which benefit is claimed, Condition II of the First Schedule has been satisfied, and unless the contributions so paid or credited are in respect of weeks commencing on or after the operative date of such election.

Married women who are non-employed persons

4.—(1) A woman shall be excepted from insurance under the Act during any period during which she is married and is a non-employed person unless she elects (in accordance with paragraph (2), but subject to the provisions of regulations 5 and 6) either to be liable to pay contributions as a non-employed person or to remain in insurance under the Act without paying contributions :

Provided that no such person shall be entitled to elect to remain in insurance without paying contributions unless immediately before the date on which the election would otherwise be effective she satisfies one of the following conditions, namely :

- (i) that not less than one hundred and fifty-six contributions, whether as an employed person or self-employed person, have been paid in respect of her since her entry into insurance under the Act; or
- (ii) in the case of a person who became insured under the Insurance Act or the Contributory Pensions Act before the 30th September, 1946, and who continued to be insured or treated as insured under either of those Acts up to immediately before the 5th July, 1948, that not less than one hundred and four contributions have been paid in respect of her before the 5th July, 1948, under those Acts since her last entry into insurance under either of those Acts; or
- (iii) in the case of a person who became so insured on or after the said 30th September, or, having become so insured before that day, had had less than one hundred and four such contributions so paid in respect of her before the 5th July, 1948, and who in either case continued to be insured or treated as insured under either the Insurance Act or the Contributory Pensions Act up to immediately before the 5th July, 1948, that not less than one hundred and fifty-six contributions, whether under those Acts or the Act, have been paid in respect of her since her last entry into insurance under the Insurance Act or the Contributory Pensions Act; and, for the purpose of this proviso, if more than one contribution has been paid under the said Acts for any one week, any such contributions shall be treated as if they were one contribution.

- (2) (a) Every election by a married woman under the foregoing provisions of this regulation shall be made by her by giving notice in writing to the Ministry, and if such notice is given before the expiration of thirteen weeks (or such longer period as the Ministry, having regard to all the circumstances of the case, may allow) beginning with the week next following the date on which she became or again became a married woman who was a non-employed person, the election shall be operative from that date, but if such notice is given thereafter, the election shall be operative from the beginning of the week in which the said notice was given.
- (b) Any such election by a married woman may be cancelled by her at any time by giving notice in writing to the Ministry to that effect, and such notice shall be operative from the beginning of the week in which the notice was given.

(3) Where a married woman, being a person who as a non-employed person did not elect to pay contributions under the Act or elected to be insured only, subsequently pays, or has credited to her, contributions either as an employed person or self-employed person, any such contributions shall not be taken into account for the purpose of determining her right to unemployment or sickness benefit, unless before the day for which benefit is claimed, in the case of unemployment benefit, Condition I of the First Schedule has been satisfied, and, in the case of sickness benefit, Condition II of that Schedule has been satisfied, in either case in respect of weeks to which the said subsequent payment or crediting of contributions relates.

(4) Where a married woman by reason of any provision of this regulation ceases to be an insured person under the Act, but thereafter becomes insured thereunder, the date of her entry into insurance shall (subject to any regulations^(a) made under the transitional provisions of section 62 of the Act) be the date on which she first became an insured person under the Act, notwithstanding that she may have ceased to be an insured person on more than one occasion.

Special condition relating to payment of contributions by married women as non-employed persons in certain cases

5. A married woman who—

- (a) being an employed person, has, in respect of any period, elected, not to be liable to pay contributions; or
- (b) being a self-employed person, has, in respect of any period, not elected to be liable to pay contributions as a self-employed person, or has cancelled any election as a self-employed person to be liable to pay contributions as if she were a non-employed person (not being for the purpose of paying contributions as a self-employed person); or
- (c) being a non-employed person, has, in respect of any period, not elected to be liable to pay contributions; shall, after any such election, failure to elect or cancellation of an election, not be entitled to pay contributions as, or as if she were, a non-employed person unless and until (after making any necessary election or cancellation of an election in accordance with these regulations) she has in respect of weeks commencing after the election, failure or cancellation, as the case may be, satisfied Condition II of the First Schedule.

Contribution test for married women

6. Where, in respect of a contribution year beginning after the 5th July, 1948, during the whole of which a person is a married woman, less than forty-five contributions of any class under the Act have been paid by or credited to her, she shall not be entitled in respect of any period after the end of that contribution year to pay contributions as, or as if she were, a non-employed person unless and until Condition II of the First Schedule has been satisfied in respect of weeks commencing after the end of that contribution year.

Limitation of the operation of regulations 5 and 6

7. The provisions of regulations 5 and 6 shall not operate to prevent the payment by a married woman of any contribution in respect of any week commencing on or after the 1st March, 1954, except in the case of a married woman who, immediately before that date, by virtue of the operation of those provisions, either—

- (a) was not entitled to pay contributions as, or as if she were, a non-employed person notwithstanding that she had elected to be liable to pay such contributions; or

(a) See reg. 3 of S.R. & O. (N.I.) 1948, No. 129; 1948, No. 228 as amended by 1949, No. 141; reg. 2 of 1948, No. 239.

- (b) would not have been so entitled if she had been able to elect, and had elected, so to be liable, unless and until Condition II of the First Schedule should have been satisfied in respect of appropriate weeks determined in accordance with those provisions; and, in the case of any such married woman, those provisions shall cease to apply if and when, on or after that date, that Condition is satisfied in respect of those weeks or she ceases to be a married woman.

Waiving of Conditions in First Schedule on cessation of marriage

8. Where for the purpose of any provision of these regulations a married woman is during any period in process of satisfying either Condition I or Condition II of the First Schedule, and at that time ceases to be a married woman either by reason of the death of her husband or otherwise, the Condition then applicable shall be treated as waived, and any contributions paid by her in respect of the period during which she was subject to that Condition shall be taken into account as if she had been a single woman, subject to the qualification that the waiving of the Condition shall not entitle her to payment of any benefit for any period before the cessation of the marriage which would not have been payable if the Condition had not been waived.

Special credits where a woman's marriage has been terminated

9.—(1) In the case of a woman whose marriage has been terminated by the death of her husband or otherwise, contributions shall be credited to her, subject to and in accordance with the following provisions of this regulation, for the purposes specified in paragraph (3), if at any time, in respect of weeks beginning not earlier than the twenty-sixth week next before the termination of that marriage (hereafter in this regulation referred to as “the appropriate weeks”) she has not paid twenty-six contributions as an employed person but has paid twenty-six contributions of which each is either a contribution as an employed person or a contribution as a self-employed person, and if at any time, in respect of the appropriate weeks, she has paid twenty-six contributions as an employed person.

(2) Contributions credited to a woman by virtue of paragraph (1) shall be—

- (a) if she has not paid twenty-six contributions as an employed person in respect of the appropriate weeks, a contribution as a self-employed person for every week in the period beginning with the commencement of the last complete contribution year before the benefit year which includes that one of the appropriate weeks in respect of which she paid the twenty-sixth contribution as an employed or self-employed person and ending with that week; and
- (b) if she has paid (either with or without any other contribution) twenty-six contributions as an employed person in respect of the appropriate weeks, a contribution as an employed person for every week in the period beginning with the commencement of the last complete contribution year before the benefit year which includes that one of the appropriate weeks in respect of which she paid the twenty-sixth contribution as an employed person and ending with that week:

Provided that—

- (i) a contribution shall not be so credited for any week which did not fall wholly within the period of the marriage in question or for any week in respect of which she has paid, or is to be treated as having paid, or, by virtue of any provision of the regulations made under the Act except this regulation, is to be credited with, a contribution of the class of which, but for this proviso, a contribution would fall to be credited to her in accordance with this regulation or (where the contribution of that class is a contribution as a self-employed person) a contribution as an employed person;

- (ii) where, in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this regulation, a contribution as an employed person falls to be credited to a woman for any week for which she has paid, or is to be treated as having paid, or is to be credited with a contribution as a self-employed person, the crediting of that contribution as an employed person shall be taken into account for the purposes specified in paragraph (3) to the exclusion of the payment or crediting of the contribution as a self-employed person.
- (3) The purposes for which contributions credited to a woman by virtue of the foregoing provisions of this regulation shall be so credited are—
 - (a) for the purpose of her satisfying, as respects the fifty contributions required to have been paid or credited in a contribution year, the contribution conditions for unemployment and sickness benefit; and
 - (b) for the purpose of her satisfying the conditions attaching to exception from liability to pay, and to the crediting of, contributions which are contained in the First Schedule to the National Insurance (Contributions) Regulations (Northern Ireland), 1962(a).

Modifications, in relation to widows, of provisions with respect to unemployment and sickness benefit and retirement pensions

10.—(1) Subject to the following provisions of this regulation, where, otherwise than by reason of remarriage or cohabitation with a man as his wife, a woman either ceases to be entitled to a widow's allowance or ceases to be entitled to a widowed mother's allowance, but in the latter case without becoming entitled under the Act to a widow's pension or a retirement pension—

- (a) she shall be deemed to have satisfied, as respects the twenty-six contributions required to have been paid, the contribution conditions for unemployment and sickness benefit;
- (b) for the purpose of her satisfying, as respects the fifty contributions required to have been paid or credited in a contribution year, the contribution conditions for unemployment and sickness benefit and of her satisfying the conditions attaching to exception from liability to pay, and to the crediting of, contributions which are contained in the First Schedule to the National Insurance (Contributions) Regulations (Northern Ireland), 1962, a contribution as an employed person shall be credited to her for each week which began in the period commencing with the beginning of the last complete contribution year before the beginning of the benefit year which includes the day on which she ceases to be entitled as aforesaid and ending with that day;
- (c) for the purpose of her right to unemployment benefit, the provisions of the National Insurance (Additional Days of Unemployment Benefit) Regulations (Northern Ireland), 1953(b), shall be applied in her case—
 - (i) as if she had paid a contribution as an employed person for every week beginning on or after the 5th July, 1948, during the whole or

(a) S.R. & O. (N.I.) 1962, No. 65.

(b) S.R. & O. (N.I.) 1953, No. 99 as amended by S.R. & O. (N.I.) 1960, No. 194.

- any part of which her marriage subsisted and for every week after its termination for which, or for part of which, she was entitled, or but for the operation of the provisions of the Overlapping Benefits Regulations would have been entitled, to a widow's allowance or a widowed mother's allowance and as if she had not been entitled to unemployment benefit for any day in any such week; and
- (ii) if her marriage subsisted before the 5th July, 1948, and she is not an existing contributor, as if she were an existing contributor and as if the reference in regulation 7 of the said regulations to the prescribed period in which she attained the age of sixteen were a reference to that prescribed period or (if later) the prescribed period in which her marriage occurred;
 - (d) for the purpose of her right to sickness benefit, the provisions of sub-section (2) of section 11 of the Act (which relates to exhaustion of, and requalification for, sickness benefit) shall not apply;
 - (e) for the purposes of the provisions of sub-section (1) of the said section 11 (which relates to exhaustion of, and requalification for, unemployment benefit) if the day on which she ceases to be entitled as aforesaid falls during a period of interruption of employment, any part of that period before that day shall be left out of account and, if on that day her right to unemployment benefit is exhausted, she shall be deemed to have requalified therefor on that day; and
 - (f) she shall be deemed to have satisfied, as respects the one hundred and fifty-six contributions required to have been paid, the contribution conditions for a retirement pension.

(2) For the purposes of this regulation, where a woman ceases to be entitled to a widowed mother's allowance as is mentioned in paragraph (1) at a time when she is entitled to personal benefit by way of a widow's pension under the Industrial Injuries Act or any Personal Injuries Scheme or any Service Pensions Instrument or any 1914-1918 War Injuries Scheme at a weekly rate which is equal to or exceeds the weekly rate of widow's pension under the Act which is specified in the second column of Part I of the Second Schedule thereto, she shall be deemed not to have ceased to be entitled as aforesaid unless and until that personal benefit, while continuing to be payable, falls to be reduced to a weekly rate which is less than the said weekly rate of widow's pension under the Act.

(3) In relation to a widow who, at her husband's death, would be entitled to a widow's allowance but for the fact that the conditions for a widow's allowance specified in paragraph (a) of sub-section (1) of section 16 of the Act (which relates to widow's benefit) are not satisfied, sub-paragraph (f) of paragraph (1) shall, subject to the provisions of paragraph (6), apply as if she had then ceased to be entitled to a widow's allowance.

(4) Where a woman is entitled to personal benefit by way of a widow's pension under the Industrial Injuries Act or any Personal Injuries Scheme or any Service Pensions Instrument or any 1914-1918 War Injuries Scheme,—

- (a) if the weekly rate of that personal benefit is equal to or exceeds the appropriate weekly rate of unemployment benefit or sickness benefit, the provisions of sub-paragraphs (a) to (e) of paragraph (1) shall not operate to entitle her to unemployment benefit or sickness benefit for any period before she has paid twenty-six contributions of the appropriate class in respect of weeks beginning after she ceased to be entitled as is mentioned in the said paragraph (1); and

- (b) if the weekly rate of that personal benefit is less than the said appropriate weekly rate, the said provisions shall not operate to entitle her to unemployment benefit or sickness benefit, for any period such as is mentioned in sub-paragraph (a), at a weekly rate which exceeds the difference between the said appropriate weekly rate and the weekly rate of that personal benefit.

(5) Where a woman is entitled to a widow's basic pension, the provisions of regulation 3 of, and paragraph (1) of the First Schedule to, the Overlapping Benefits Regulations (which except widow's basic pension payable in certain circumstances from adjustment by reference to unemployment benefit or sickness benefit) shall not operate to except her widow's basic pension from adjustment by reference to any unemployment benefit or sickness benefit which would not be payable but for the foregoing provisions of this regulation for any period before she has paid twenty-six contributions of the appropriate class in respect of weeks beginning after she ceased to be entitled as is mentioned in paragraph (1).

(6) The provisions of sub-paragraph (f) of paragraph (1)—

(a) shall not, in the case of a woman who, having ceased to be entitled as is mentioned in that paragraph, remarries before she attains pensionable age, apply by reason of her ceasing to be entitled as aforesaid before her remarriage;

(b) shall not apply in the case of a woman who is entitled when she attains pensionable age to personal benefit by way of a widow's pension under the Industrial Injuries Act or any Personal Injuries Scheme or any Service Pensions Instrument or any 1914-1918 War Injuries Scheme at a weekly rate which is equal to or exceeds the weekly rate of widow's pension under the Act which is specified in the second column of Part I of the Second Schedule thereto; and

(c) shall not operate, in the case of any other woman who is entitled when she attains pensionable age to such personal benefit as aforesaid, to entitle her to a retirement pension at a weekly rate which exceeds the difference between the weekly rate of widow's pension under the Act which is so specified and the weekly rate of that personal benefit:

Provided that a woman affected by sub-paragraph (b) or (c) shall cease to be so affected if and when she remarries.

(7) In determining for the purpose of paragraph (1) whether a woman ceases to be or becomes entitled as is mentioned in that paragraph, a woman in whose case the Ministry is satisfied that she would be or would have been entitled to widow's benefit or a retirement pension for any period but for any one or more of the following factors, namely—

(a) delay or failure to make a claim therefor;

(b) disqualification for the receipt of benefit for any other reason except her cohabitation with a man as his wife;

(c) the operation of the provisions of the Overlapping Benefits Regulations;

(d) the operation of any provision of either the Act or any regulations made thereunder relating to earnings; shall be treated as if she is or (as the case may be) was entitled thereto throughout that period.

(8) In determining for the purpose of paragraph (3) whether a woman would be entitled to a widow's allowance but for the fact mentioned in that paragraph, a woman in whose case the Ministry is satisfied that she would be so entitled but for that fact and for any one or more of the factors mentioned in paragraph (7) shall be treated as if she would be so entitled but for that fact.

(9) A woman shall not be entitled by virtue of this regulation to an increase of unemployment benefit or sickness benefit in respect of a child or adult dependant for any period before she has paid twenty-six contributions of the appropriate class in respect of weeks beginning after she ceased to be entitled as is mentioned in paragraph (1).

(10) A woman who ceases to be entitled as is mentioned in paragraph (1) on more than one occasion shall be entitled to the benefit of the provisions of that paragraph, subject as therein mentioned, on each such occasion:

Provided that, in relation to such a woman, the references in paragraphs (4), (5) and (9) to her ceasing to be entitled as aforesaid shall be construed as references to the later or last of such occasions, so, however, that a woman who, after any occasion (hereafter in this paragraph called "the occasion in question") and before the next subsequent occasion, has satisfied, in relation to the occasion in question, the requirement of paying the twenty-six contributions referred to in paragraphs (4), (5) and (9), shall, in relation to any right to benefit arising by reason of the application of the provisions of paragraph (1) on the occasion in question, be relieved from any restriction on that right imposed by those paragraphs as if the provisions of paragraph (1) had not applied on any subsequent occasion.

(11) Where in accordance with the provisions of sub-paragraph (b) or (c) of paragraph (1) a contribution is credited or treated as paid for any week, any contribution under the Act otherwise credited, paid or treated as paid for that week shall be disregarded for the purpose specified in the said sub-paragraph (b) or sub-paragraph (c), as the case may be, but for all other purposes shall be taken into account to the exclusion of any contribution credited or treated as paid in accordance with the provisions of that sub-paragraph.

(12) Where, but for this paragraph, the provisions of regulation 9 and the provisions of this regulation would be applicable for the purpose of determining a woman's right to unemployment benefit or sickness benefit for any day, her right thereto shall be determined by reference to the provisions of that one of those two regulations which is more favourable to her, to the exclusion of the provisions of the other.

Transitory provisions in relation to regulation 10

11.—(1) The provisions of regulation 10 shall apply—

(a) in relation to a widow who, having at any time before the 7th January, 1957, been entitled to—

(i) a widow's allowance;

(ii) a widow's pension by virtue of sub-section (3) of section 17 of the Act (which relates to the right of a widow to a widow's pension where she ceases to be entitled to widow's benefit at a time when she is by reason of any infirmity incapable of self-support and is under pensionable age);

(iii) a widowed mother's allowance by virtue of the provisions of regulation 4 of the National Insurance (Pensions, Existing Beneficiaries and Other Persons) (Transitional) Regulations (Northern Ireland), 1948(a); or

(iv) a widow's basic pension;

is not upon that date entitled to a widow's allowance, as if on that date she had ceased to be entitled to a widow's allowance; and

(b) in relation to a widow who, having been entitled, immediately before the said date, to a widow's pension by virtue of the said sub-section (3), ceases, otherwise than by reason of remarriage or cohabitation with a man as his wife, to be entitled to such pension but without becoming entitled under any other provision of the Act to a widow's pension or a retirement pension, as if she had then ceased to be entitled to a widow's allowance:

Provided that the provisions of regulation 10 shall not apply by virtue of sub-paragraph (a) in relation to a widow who, before the said date and after she last became entitled to widow's benefit under the Act, remarried or was disqualified for the receipt of such benefit by reason of her cohabitation with a man as his wife or in relation to a widow who would have been entitled to widow's benefit under the Act for a period immediately before that date but for disqualification by reason of such cohabitation.

(2) A widow's pension which, for the purposes of the said section 17, is treated as if it were a pension payable by virtue of the said sub-section (3) shall be so treated for the purposes of this regulation.

(3) In determining for the purpose of paragraph (1) any question as to a woman's entitlement to widow's benefit or a retirement pension, the provisions of paragraph (7) of regulation 10 shall apply as if that question were a question for determination for the purpose of paragraph (1) of that regulation.

Retirement pensions for women whose marriages have been dissolved

12.—(1) Where a woman's marriage has been terminated otherwise than by the death of her husband and she was under pensionable age on the date of that termination, she may elect that, in calculating for the purpose of her right to a retirement pension by virtue of her own insurance the yearly average of the contributions paid by or credited to her, there shall be treated as so paid or credited for each contribution year falling wholly or partly during the period of the marriage a number of contributions equal to the yearly average (ascertained as at the date of the termination of the marriage or of her husband's attaining pensionable age, whichever is the earlier) of the contributions paid by or credited to her husband, instead of the number of contributions actually paid by or credited to her for that year.

(2) Where a woman's marriage has been terminated otherwise than by the death of her husband and she was not under pensionable age on the date of that termination, she shall, subject to the provisions of the Act, be entitled to a retirement pension by virtue of his insurance as if he had died on the date of that termination.

(3) Where at the date of the termination of a marriage otherwise than by death, the husband would, had he then died, have satisfied, as respects the number of contributions required to have been actually paid since entry into insurance, the contribution conditions for a retirement pension, the wife shall, for the purpose of her right to a retirement pension by virtue of her own insurance, be deemed to have satisfied those contribution conditions in that respect.

(4) The foregoing provisions of this regulation shall not apply in the case of a woman whose marriage has been terminated otherwise than by the death of her husband if, being under pensionable age on the date of that termination, she has remarried after that termination and before attaining that age.

Death grant in respect of the death of a woman whose marriage was dissolved

13. Where a woman, whose marriage was terminated otherwise than by the death of her husband and who did not thereafter remarry, dies and the contribution conditions for a death grant in respect of her death are not satisfied by her, the following provisions shall apply for the purposes of such a grant:

(1) If she did not satisfy the condition specified in head (a) of sub-paragraph (1) of paragraph 5 of the Third Schedule to the Act (which sub-paragraph specifies the contribution conditions for death grant), she shall be deemed to have satisfied that condition if not less than twenty-six contributions as an insured person were paid by or credited to her husband in respect of the period between the 5th July, 1948, and the date of the termination of that marriage or the date of his attaining pensionable age, whichever is the earlier.

(2) If she did not satisfy either of the conditions specified in head (b) of the said sub-paragraph (1), she shall be deemed to have satisfied one of those conditions if either—

(a) not less than forty-five contributions as an insured person were paid by or credited to her husband in respect of weeks in his last complete contribution year before the date of her death or the date of his attaining pensionable age, whichever is the earlier, excluding any week which did not fall wholly or partly during the period of the marriage; or

(b) the yearly average of the contributions paid by or credited to her (ascertained as at the date of her death or the date of her attaining pensionable age, whichever is the earlier) would have been not less than forty-five if there were treated as so paid or credited for each contribution year falling wholly or partly during the period of the marriage a number of contributions equal to the yearly average (ascertained as at the date of the termination of the marriage or of his attaining pensionable age, whichever is the earlier) of the contributions paid by or credited to her husband, instead of the contributions actually paid by or credited to her for that year.

(3) For the purposes of regulation 10 of the National Insurance (Death Grant) Regulations (Northern Ireland), 1949(a) (which relates to the partial satisfaction of the contribution conditions for, and to a reduction of the amount of, a death grant), the yearly average of the contributions paid by or credited to her shall be ascertained on the basis specified in sub-paragraph (b) of paragraph (2) if the yearly average so ascertained is higher than the yearly average of the contributions actually paid by or credited to her.

Credits for widows

14.—(1) A contribution as a non-employed person shall be credited to a woman in respect of every week, whether before or after the 5th March, 1962.

(a) See Pt. III of Sch. to S.R. & O. (N.I.) 1957, No. 267.

for the whole or any part of which widow's benefit (not being a widow's basic pension) is payable to her, or would be so payable but for the provisions of sub-section (3) of section 16 of the Act (which sub-section relates to the reduction, based on earnings, of certain allowances and pensions).

(2) A contribution as a non-employed person shall be credited to a woman, for the purpose of her right to retirement pension, in respect of any week, whether before or after the 5th March, 1962, for the whole or any part of which widow's benefit (not being a widow's basic pension) would have been payable (or would have been payable apart from the provisions of the said sub-section (3) of section 16 of the Act) to her but for the existence of one or more of the following circumstances:

- (a) her absence from Northern Ireland,
- (b) the operation of the provisions of regulations made under section 29 of the Act (which relates to overlapping benefits),
- (c) her failure to make or delay in making a claim for such benefit,
- (d) the fact that the week in question preceded the appointed day^(a) under the Family Allowances and National Insurance Act (Northern Ireland), 1956^(b),
- (e) in the case of a woman to whom widow's benefit was payable by virtue of paragraph (1) of regulation 2 of the National Insurance (Widow's Benefit and Retirement Pensions) Regulations (Northern Ireland), 1948^(c), or paragraph (2) of regulation 4 of the National Insurance (Pensions, Existing Beneficiaries and Other Persons) (Transitional) Regulations (Northern Ireland), 1948^(d) (which regulations relate to widow's pension for widows incapable of self-support), for two or more periods separated by a period or periods during which such benefit was not payable because she was not incapable of self-support, the fact that she was not incapable of self-support during the latter period or periods.

(3) A contribution as a non-employed person shall be credited to a woman, for the purpose of her right to retirement pension, if and when she remarries, in respect of any week commencing on or after the 6th January, 1958, for the whole or any part of which any of the specified benefits, as defined in paragraph (4) of regulation 2 of the Overlapping Benefits Regulations, was payable to her as a widow at a weekly rate which was equal to or exceeded the weekly rate of widow's pension under the Act, current in that week, as specified in the second column of Part I of the Second Schedule thereto:

Provided that any week to which there related a certificate of exception from liability to pay contributions issued to her by the Ministry pursuant to regulations providing for the grant of such certificates of exception in cases where any of those specified benefits are payable to a widow at a certain weekly rate, shall be deemed to be a week to which this paragraph applies, notwithstanding any increase in the weekly rate of widow's pension under the Act.

(4) Any contribution credited to a woman in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (1), (2) or (3), in respect of any week commencing before the 5th March, 1962, may only be taken into account for the purpose of a right to benefit for any period commencing on or after that date.

(a) 21st August, 1956 (See S.R. & O. (N.I.) 1956, No. 122).

(b) 1956. c. 8.

(c) S.R. & O. (N.I.) 1948, No. 246.

(d) See Pt. II of Sch. to S.R. & O. (N.I.) 1957, No. 180 and Pt. X of Sch. A to S.R. & O. (N.I.) 1961, No. 3.

(5) Where by virtue of these regulations more than one contribution is credited to a woman for any week or a contribution is credited to her for a week in respect of which a contribution is paid in respect of her or is credited to her by virtue of any other regulations, not more than one such contribution shall be taken into account for any purpose.

(6) In calculating the yearly average of contributions paid by or credited to a woman for the purpose of her right to a retirement pension, any contribution credited to her by virtue of the provisions of this regulation, or any regulations under sub-section (1) of section 5 of the Act which provided for the crediting of contributions to certain women in respect of widow's benefit, or retirement pension by virtue of a husband's insurance, shall be either taken into account or omitted from the calculation, whichever course may from time to time be more to her advantage.

(7) For the purpose of calculating the yearly average of the contributions paid by or credited to a woman who, immediately before the 5th July, 1948, was under pensionable age and on that date was over the age of sixteen, and who has at no time become an insured person but to whom contributions have been credited by virtue of the provisions of this regulation, the provisions of regulation 2 of the National Insurance (New Entrants Transitional) Regulations (Northern Ireland), 1948(a) (which relate to the period over which the yearly average of contributions is to be calculated in the case of new entrants into insurance), shall apply in her case as though she were a person becoming insured under the Act.

(8) Where a woman is in receipt of any death benefit by way of pension or allowance payable to her as the widow of the person in respect of whose death that benefit is payable under the Industrial Injuries Act, any Personal Injuries Scheme, any Service Pensions Instrument or any 1914-1918 War Injuries Scheme, any retirement pension which is payable to her wholly or in part by taking into account contributions credited to her by virtue of the provisions of this regulation, or of any such regulations under sub-section (1) of section 5 of the Act as are referred to in paragraph (6), shall, for the purposes of regulations for adjusting benefit payable to or in respect of any person, or the conditions for receipt thereof, made under section 29 of the Act, be treated as payable, wholly or in part, by virtue of her husband's contributions or insurance:

Provided that, in the case of a woman who has been a widow more than once, the provisions of this paragraph shall apply in relation only to contributions credited to her as the widow of her last husband.

Special provision relating to retirement pensions for widows entitled to widow's benefit

15.—(1) Subject to the provisions of paragraph (2), where a woman is entitled to widow's benefit (other than widow's basic pension) immediately before she attains pensionable age or would be so entitled but for one or more of the following causes—

- (a) the operation of any provisions of either the Act or any regulations made thereunder relating to earnings,
- (b) her imprisonment or detention in legal custody,
- (c) her cohabitation with a man as his wife,
- (d) the operation of the provisions of regulations made under section 29 of the Act,

(a) See Sch. to S.R. & O. (N.I.) 1958, No. 108.

(e) failure to make or delay in making a claim to such benefit, she shall be deemed to have satisfied, as respects the one hundred and fifty-six contributions required to have been paid, the contribution conditions for a retirement pension.

(2) The provisions of paragraph (6) of regulation 10 other than sub-paragraph (a) shall apply in relation to paragraph (1) of this regulation as they apply to sub-paragraph (f) of paragraph (1) of that regulation.

Special provision relating to disqualification of married women for unemployment benefit

16. The question whether a married woman is subject to any of the disqualifications for unemployment benefit contained in sub-section (2) of section 12 of the Act shall be determined on the same basis as that applicable to a single woman, but not so as to exclude such consideration of the responsibilities arising from her marriage as is reasonable in the circumstances of the case.

Additional condition for receipt by a married woman of an increase of benefit for a child

17. Where a married woman is residing with her husband and claims an increase of benefit for a child of their family, it shall be an additional condition with respect to the receipt of that increase that her husband is incapable of self-support(a).

Notice of marriage

18. It shall be the duty of every woman who, being an insured person, marries, to furnish any evidence of her marriage as may be required by the Ministry and to give notice to the Ministry in writing of her marriage not later than thirteen weeks thereafter, or, if she claims benefit before the expiration of that period, at the time of making such a claim.

Notice by post

19. Any notice required by these regulations may be sent by post, and, if so sent, shall be deemed to have been given on the date on which it was posted.

Modifications of the Act

20. The provisions of the Act shall have effect subject to the modifications contained in these regulations.

Revocations

21. The regulations specified in the Second Schedule are hereby revoked to the extent mentioned in the third column of that Schedule.
